From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings great and wondrous people of Aneala

Thank you for making this years' fighter auction so memorable. We had a magnificent time and many of you have expressed what a fun event it was. Special thanks must be made to the team of list keepers and all those who donated prizes. Without you, the day would not have been the success it was.

May is another busy time, including the Royal visit and later in the month a Round Robin event. We are looking forward to seeing all the fighters displaying their arms. What you don't have registered Arms! Then it is time you had a chat with Blackwing Herald and start the process of creating some personalised Arms!

The Barony is seeking ways in which to improve the current regalia and ambience of events. If you have any ideas on purchasing or making regalia (including banners, pavilions, etc) then please bring those ideas and costing (if possible) to next council so that they can be discussed. We are hoping to be in touch with a coronet maker this month, so it is hoped we should have some news on the new coronets. fingers crossed!

Yours In Service

Baroness

From the Arts & Sciences Office

Anyone looking over the upcoming events list will notice the abundance of events over the rest of the year! So that the arts and sciences are not left out of this extravaganza of activity, I hope to hold casual A&S workshops during tournaments.

I am after suggestions (and volunteers), so if there is an area or skill you would like to know more about, please let me know.

Also, we will be holding an A&S display at the Country Ball, for Their Majesties' visit. Show off the skills of Aneala's artisans, and bring your work to display!

In service, Alessandra

Midwinter

Open competition

Kingdom of Lochac

May Crown 2K (2005)

Metal working: jewellery or small ornamental accessories

Engineering & research: A contraption for travel

Herbal: hygiene/grooming products/remedies

Midwinter 2K(2005)

Leatherwork: a decorated item of your choice

Textile: Paper making (minimum one page bound or unbound).

Performance: writing and performing a dance in period style.

November Crown 2K (2005)

Costuming: Textile period accessories: feet and hands (hose, stockings, gloves, shoes)

Brewing: a floral wine/mead, liquor or cordial

Cooking: food fit for travel

Here Ye all and pray attend for here do I announce things of great interest and import to the populace and notable others of these Western Shores of Lochac.

In the first weekend of June (Public Holiday Day!) this year there shall be held a Camping Weekend which will include a Tournament to select the Peneampwr gan Abertridwr, (Canton Tournament Champion).

To encourage the populace to witness this Inaugural Peneampwr Tourney, the following activities will also be scheduled at the weekend for your entertainment and participation.

Friday Evening

A Soup-fest and Bardic circle for the eager, enthusiastic or brave souls who venture out into the days last light.

Saturday

See opening Court in the morning followed by the Tournament to select the Peneampwr gan Abertridwr.

Saturday Evening Feast

Held with an Arthurian/Camelot Theme to celebrate the many victories and renown gained that day.

Sunday

There will be an Archery list and Melées of all types, we have access to a largish open field and an extensive Forrest (if I can be half French the bush there can be a Forrest) for wars and archery combat.

Sunday Evening

After such warlike activities or the alternative and less energetic gentler arts, sciences or service activities, which will also be run there will be a Tavern Night (BYOD) complete with wenchés, gaming, food, dancing and tall tales to enthuse the weary travellers.

Monday Morning

After breakfast will be set aside for closing Court and a relaxed session of packing up.

The weekend will also witness a variety of Arts and Sciences competitions to test the mettle of local artisans and display the riches of their creativity.

Powered camp sites will be available for those hardy souls who wish to tent it in the small forest. Limited inside camping also available for those less hardy souls .... or potentially more sensible? Under table space will be available for those who are sobriety challenged, tentless or for those among us unable to organise their own sleeping arrangements, and don't mind being woken up before breakfast....

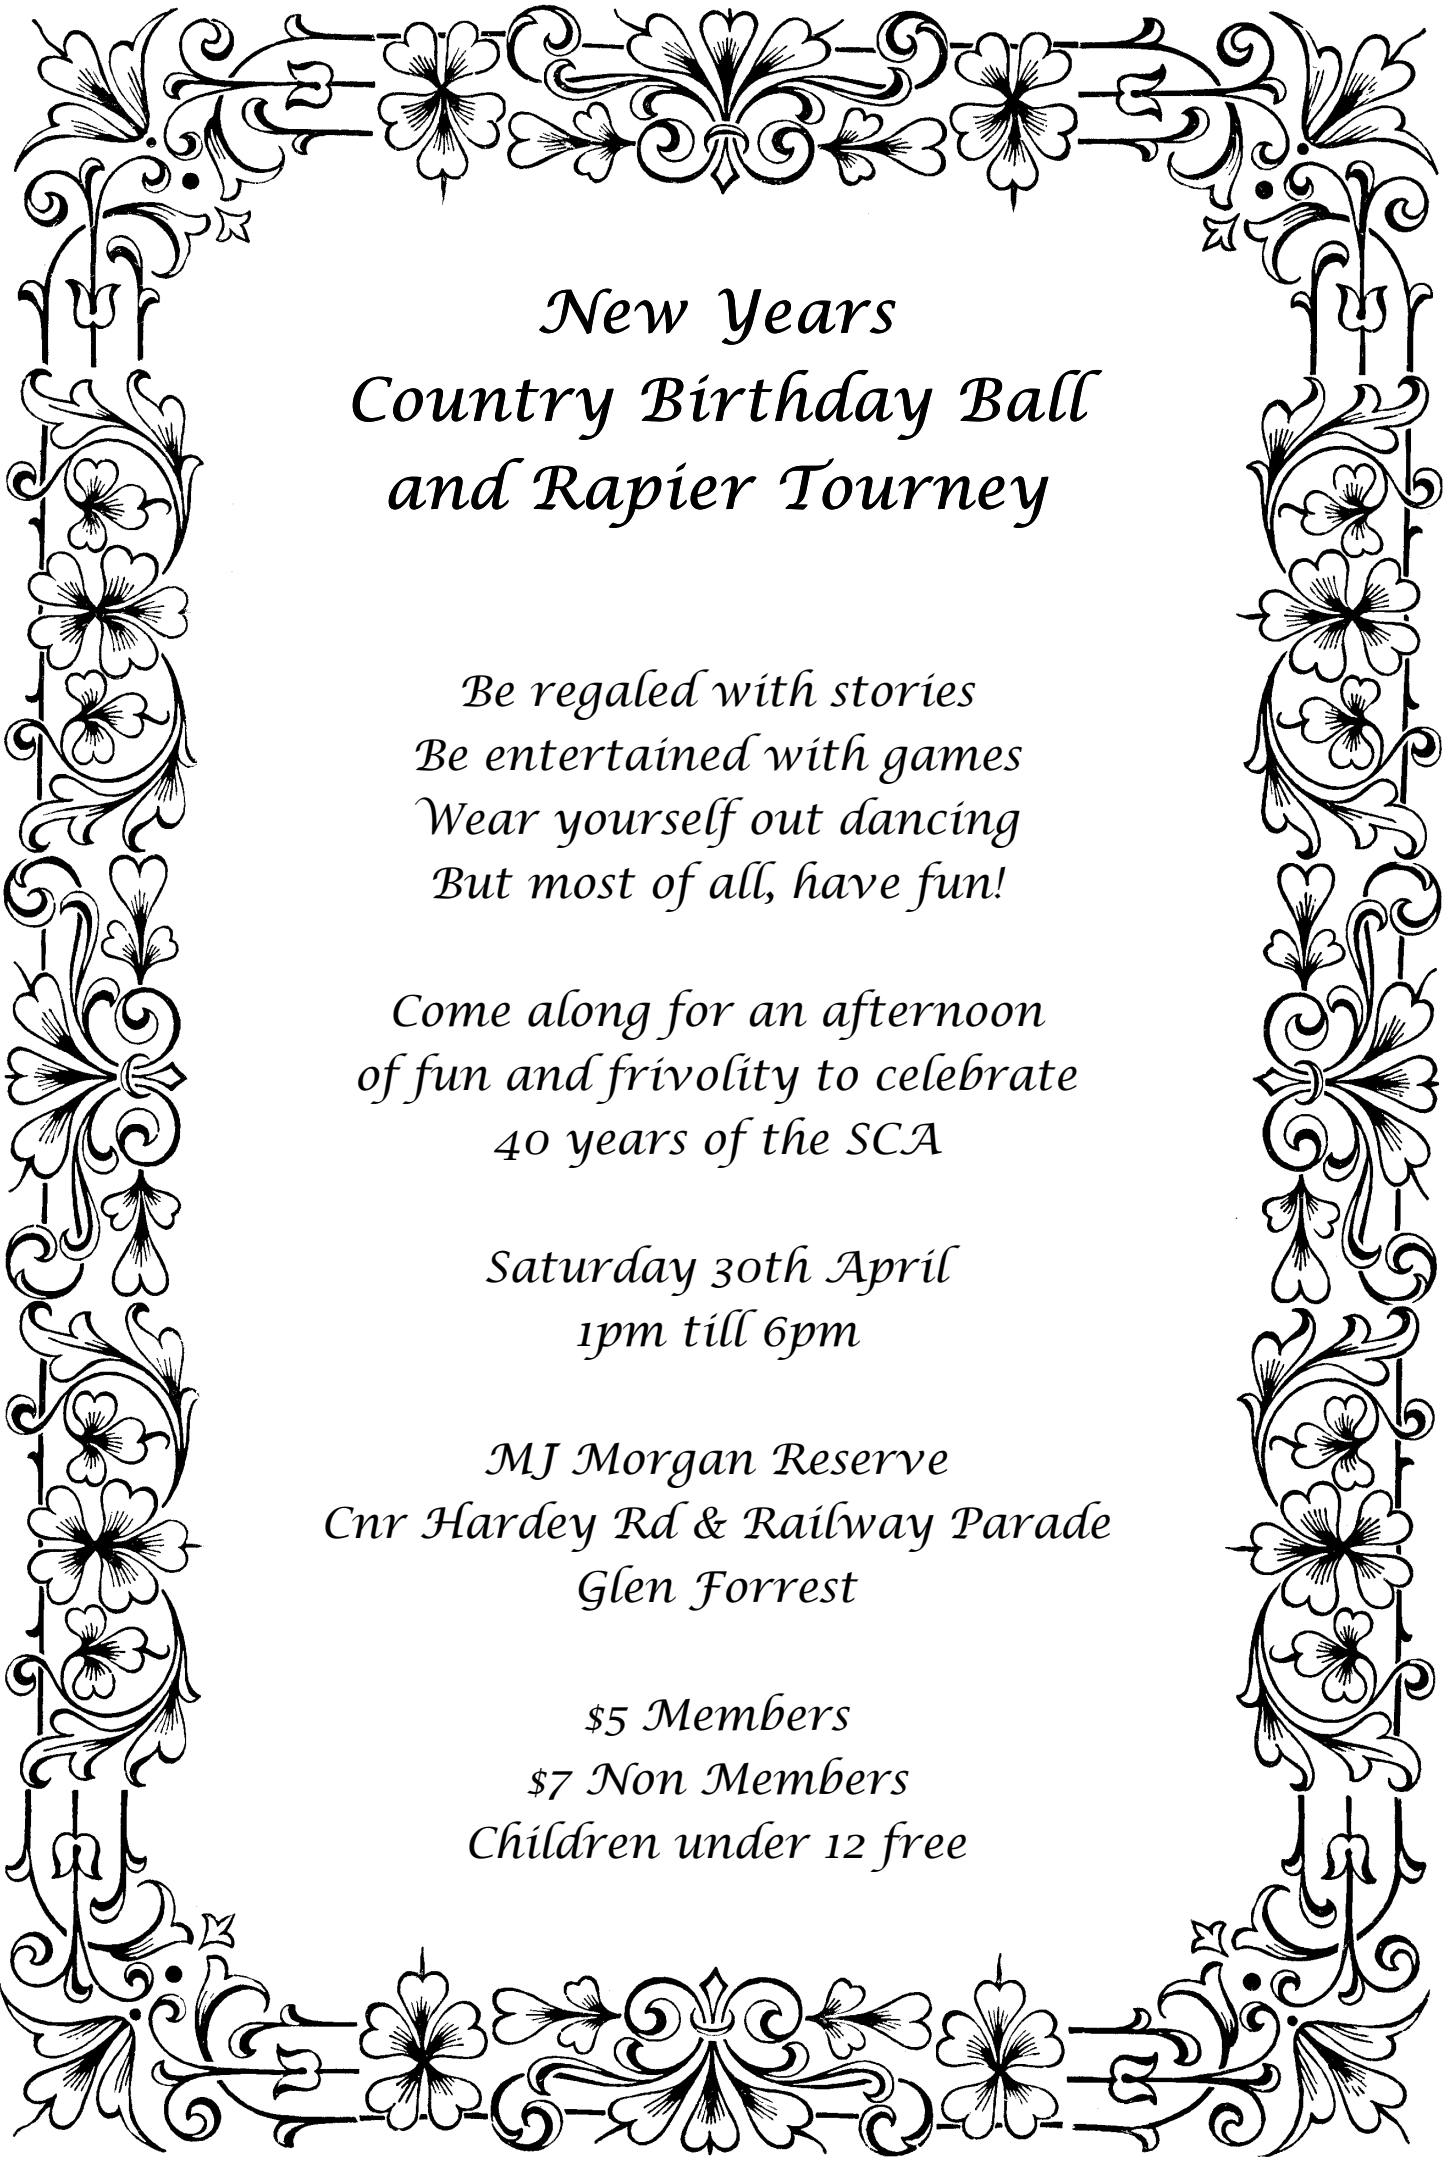

So pay close attention to your Pegasus, Vine or Rhol for further details and updates for this weekend of spiritually uplifting jolly good fun

When : 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th of June 2005.

Where: Wandri Progress Association Hall, De Haer Road WANDRI.

Where the hell is Wandri I hear you say!.. well book and we will send you a map or go to the Abertridwr web site and you shall be illuminated.

Anzalan Midwinter, set in 1400, near the end of a glorious era.
The age of chivalry is drawing to a close but it has far from been forgotten.
This is a time of great wealth and opulence

Bright banners,
richly decorated walls and fine clothing
are prized amongst the Noble Class.

Literature is being written in English by such as Chaucer, Malory and Mt has revolutionised music.

We would appreciate an attempt at 1400 costume. Cottehardies,houplandes and t-tunics are the style of the day.
Please give every banner you can to the steward before the event.

Open Arts and Sciences competition with both open and novice categories.
