From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings most noble and gracious people of Aneasa

The winds of time have ravaged again, and our beloved Sir Kane has fallen victim to its snare. This month of March will see a tourney fought with half a century of experience at its helm, and We encourage all those combatants both rapier and heavy to take the field and take up Sir Kane's challenge.

Others may like to travel East with Baron Craeg, to the war and tourney fields of festival. This year there is a small but dedicated group of Aneasans making the trek east and We wish them a safe and enjoyable journey. We look forward to hearing their tales of victory and revelry upon their return.

Please remember, that Their Majesties will be visiting at the end of April, and We would encourage every member of the populace, both new and not so new, to make award recommendations. A simple letter with the deeds of those you feel most deserving is all that is required.

Yours In Service

DURAND

From the Seneschal (and the Reeve)

I am still taking applications for the office of Seneschal until the end of March. Anyone who would like to apply please contact me before then so we can talk about what is entailed in the office.

*Senora Catalina de Gata
Seneschal of Aneala*

Greetings Gentles.

As you may or may not be aware as yet, I am finally giving up my post as Reeve of Aneala.

The reason being that I just know scores of you are dying to take my place! I know you all believe that this is the most fun and interesting of all the Offices...

Please call or email me if you think you can be a fantastic Baronial Officer, and you can at least add up!

Prior financial experience is not needed but is helpful. Mostly all that is required is a bit of time and patience.

Applications for Reeve close at the end of April for handover around June.

*Yours In Service (hopefully not for much longer)
Ottilia Adelize von Grafenbach (Amy)*

THE HOKEY POKEY: in the Shakespearean Style
(as posted on Lochac list by Brusí of Orkney)

© proud left foot, that ventures quick within
Then soon upon a backward journey lithe.
Anon, once more the gesture, then begin:
Command sinistral pedestal to writhe.
Commence thou then the fervid Hokey-Poke.
A mad gyration, hips in wanton swirl.
To spin! A wilde release from heaven's yoke.
Blessed dervish! Surely canst go, girl.
The Hoke, the Poke // banish now thy doubt
Verily, I say, 'tis what it's all about.

Here Ye all and pray attend for here do I announce things of great interest and import to the populace and notable others of these Western Shores of Lochar.

In the first weekend of June (Public Holiday Day!) this year there shall be held a Camping Weekend which will include a Tournament to select the Pencampwr gan Abertridwr, (Canton Tournament Champion).

To encourage the populace to witness this Inaugural Pencampwr Tourney, the following activities will also be scheduled at the weekend for your entertainment and participation.

Friday Evening

A Soup-fest and Bardic circle for the eager, enthusiastic or brave souls who venture out into the days last light.

Saturday

See opening Court in the morning followed by the Tournament to select the Pencampwr gan Abertridwr.

Saturday Evening Feast

Held with an Arthurian/Camelot Theme to celebrate the many victories and renown gained that day.

Sunday

There will be an Archery list and Melées of all types, we have access to a largish open field and an extensive Forrest (if I can be half French the bush there can be a Forrest) for wars and archery combat.

Sunday Evening

After such warlike activities or the alternative and less energetic gentler arts, sciences or service activities, which will also be run there will be a Tavern Night (BYOD) complete with wenchés, gaming, food, dancing and tall tales to enthuse the weary travellers.

Monday Morning

After breakfast will be set aside for closing Court and a relaxed session of packing up.

The weekend will also witness a variety of Arts and Sciences competitions to test the mettle of local artisans and display the riches of their creativity.

Powered camp sites will be available for those hardy souls who wish to tent it in the small forest. Limited inside camping also available for those less hardy souls or potentially more sensible? Under table space will be available for those who are sobriety challenged, tentless or for those among us unable to organise their own sleeping arrangements, and don't mind being woken up before breakfast....

So pay close attention to your Pegasus, Vine or Rhol for further details and updates for this weekend of spiritually uplifting jolly good fun

When : 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th of June 2005.

Where: Wandri Progress Association Hall, De Haer Road WANDRI.

Where the hell is Wandri I hear you say!.. well book and we will send you a map or go to the Abertridwr web site and you shall be illuminated.

Anealan Midwinter, set in 1400, near the end of a glorious era. The age of chivalry is drawing to a close but it has far from been forgotten. This is a time of great wealth and opulence.

Bright banners, richly decorated walls and fine clothing are prized amongst the Noble Class. Literature is being written in English by such as Chaucer, Malory and Mt has revolutionised music.

We would appreciate an attempt at 1400 costume. Cottehardies, houplandes and t-tunics are the style of the day. Please give every banner you can to the steward before the event.

Open Arts and Sciences competition with both open and novice categories.
