Baronial Missive

Well Met,

We hope you will forgive the brevity of Our missive this month, for as you are no-doubt keenly aware not only must We ready our caravan for the much anticipated PenCampwr gan Abertridwr, but Their Majesties are soon to grace Our fair shores with the delicate tread of Their ambrosial feet; all of which necessitates both a degree of frantic action and detached ratiocination.

(It is this wise that We are placed in mind of our own emblematic fowl: apparent grace and serenity above the water, paddling like blazes below.)

Having spoken of Their Majesties, it bears reiteration that, although They come expressly to declare Our Successors, They would similarly be pleased to reward those of the populace who, through great deeds and meritorious, might have earned the Crown's commendation; but to this end They needs must hear your voices to know your minds, for such rewards are not only the recognition of the Crown, moreover they are the acknowledgements of one's peers.

Think on this, but for the strength of sentiment to drive one to a personal acknowledgement in private correspondence, how then could one gauge there be adequate feeling to warrant so public an acclamation as can be afforded by the Crown?

Yours In Service

HERALD

Seneschals Missive

Greetings from the Seneschalate

Hello to you all. A few notes arising from the last few weeks and council for your delcetation . Firstly for those of you who don't know I am acting as Baronial Seneschal for the time being so please don't hesitate to talk to me about anything you wish concerning the Barony and its running

Council was short and sweet last night as Her excellency was off to sunny Stormhold at the wee hours of the morning .

A couple of things came from council Firstly to everyone, especially the officers

It seems the link from Seneschal @ angala isn't linking to my home email so please can all officers resend their quarterly reports to hawkstwr@iinet.net.au so I can let my boss know you are all alive well and the Barony is kicking just dandy my thanks for that .

Item 2

The Fabulous college of St. Basil is running a demo at the York Olive Festival.

So mark June 25th into your calendar for a trip up to York. Wear you garb, bring your speeey A&S thingys and give them a helping hand have a fabulous day out to boot .

I also believe we get a free LUNCH so please if you want to help contact Lady Leoflaeda before you just rock up the free lunch needs to know how many they are feeding lol and have a great day. If I can I will be there too, now ahh lachlahn hmmm transport ? hehehehe.

Item 3

This one goes to all who wish to use the Baronial gear. From this council there are some new guidelines that need to be followed.

Firstly, if you need the gear as Autoerat or co-ordinator you must contact Catalina at least one week prior to your needing to collect the gear. This is to arrange a time when she is home for you to collect it.

Secondly, all items you take out will be itemised and signed out. You will be required to return all items by the following weekend after your event in CLEAN and good order. Again, please arrange a time with Catalina so she can be there to sign the items back in . If you are collecting the gear or returning it on behalf of the Autoerat it will be your responsibility to take back the list of any items missing to the Autoerating team so they can be searched for.

If an item is missing it will be noted and as autoerat it will be up to you to make every effort to find the missing things . If items are lost it will go into your final report and be brought to the notice of the council so we can decide if it needs to be replaced asap or if replacement is not necessary. This is so the next person who needs the gear isn't expecting to have an item that we then cant find and we again know what we do and don't have.

If you need to dryclean any items such as the high table cloth then an extension for its return will be organised with Catalina so that you can get this done .Ok that's said and done it is an easy thing to do and will be to the benefit of everyone the Gear belongs to OUR BARONY all it needs is a little pre organization and I know your all able to do that "GRYN"

Well that's all from me folks have fun with what ever you do and I will see you all soon

Arts & Sciences

Workshop

There will be a workshop to finish the new tablecloths and work on the pavilion decorations on Sunday the 11th of June from 1pm at my house. Please come and bring your friends. No experience necessary.

Thankyou to Catalina da Gata and Leofric for their assistance at the last workshop.

Laurel Prize Tourney

The Laurels of Aneasa have kindly agreed to hold a Laurels' Prize Tournament at the Royal Visit. This is a great opportunity for our artisans to get feedback from five Laurels (including her majesty, Queen Yolande).

In spite of its name, this is NOT a competition. Anyone can bring along any of their work, including work in progress, and display it for the Laurels and other interested people to see, comment upon, and be inspired by.

Midwinter Dance Practice

The dance list for Midwinter shall include La Spagna, La Spagnoletta, and Lo Spagnoletto (in keeping with the Spanish theme), Lybens Distonys, Prenes en Gre, and Prenes a Gard (in keeping with the 1500 theme), Petit Oriens, Amoroso, and Saltarello la Regina (dances that would have been known by 1500).

Since some of these dances are not well known, they will be covered at Dance Practice at my house on Tuesday 6 June from 7pm. They may also come up at Canton Dance Practice in Fremantle and at College Training. Most of them are quite easy; the others just need a little practice.

The Year is 1500

Charles V, future king of Spain was born in Ghent, Belgium to Juana lo loca and Phillip the fair.

Princess Catalina de Aragon prepares for her Journey to Spain to marry her betrothed, Prince Arthur.

Columbus is arrested & later released over a dispute following his third voyage.

Representative from Spain, Señora Catalina de Gata, has invited the fair nobles from the Barony of Aneala and Kingdom of Lochac to a feast to honour Their Majesties, Aedward and Yolande, King and Queen of Lochac.

From the Blackwing Herald

Greetings unto the Populace of Anzala and its surrounds from Rhianwen ni Dhiarmada, Blackwing Herald for Anzala.

Gentle cousins, my time as Herald for this great Barony is coming to an end and with this in mind I beseech those who may be interested to contact me regarding this wonderful office and let me know that you would like to take it over in September at Baronial Invest.

"What does the office entail?"

Well firstly you need to make a commitment to be at events OR to arrange for someone to go for you so as to be able to make announcements as requested by the Baron and Baroness, To run Court when requested by Their Excellencies and / or Their Majesties if they are here and have not travelled with/selected Their own Herald.

You need to be available for people to consult regarding names and devices, collect the same, check for conflicts, collect moneys and forward the required documents and money to Crux Australis Herald in a timely fashion. Consult with members of Anzala regarding their choice of Name and Device, offer advice and help them achieve a registered Name and Device that they a) want and b) Like.

Keep a file of submissions and their progress along the way to being accepted or rejected.

Keep Order of Precedence up to date. You must report on a regular basis to the Baron and Baroness, Seneschal and Populace of Anzala as well as the Crux Australis Herald.

You must account for funds collected on behalf of the College of Heralds.

You get to look spiffy in the Court Tabard, and you get a front row seat (well standing room) at events.

You also get to store the Baronial Heraldry Library which currently takes up about 3 library shelves in my home.

This comprises books, and files.

You get to look after the Spiffy Court Tabard and to be responsible for the upkeep of the Heralds regalia which includes the Tourny Tabards and baldrics and the Heralds Pole.

Requirements for the office.

There is only one requirement for this office. You MUST be a member of the SCA. Oh and I believe you have to be over eighteen.

Desirable

The most desirable characteristics for this office is an ability to keep up to date with reports and such like and some knowledge of Heraldry, book and field and court.

So if you think you want to be this officer, then contact me, my details are in the Regnum.
