from the XIIth Night Steward

To all and singular greetings from the Autocrat of An Italian
Carnivale, our 12th Night celebrations

The Carnivale fast approaches, promising mirth, merriment, and of course, masks. Who knows, there might even be a masque.

Please remember that this event is outside, so make sure that you bring chairs to sit on. In addition, as the event starts in the mid-afternoon, consider sunscreen, and, as the event continues into the evening, mosquito repellent may be welcome.

Lastly, your pavilion must be raised by 4:45pm, or it doesn't go up at all.

Yours in service to Crown and Kingdom
Muirghein

Wanted

Any Old Armour ... (New is also acceptable)

Do you have any unused armour lying around?
Know someone who has armour gathering dust?
Or some leather or basket hilts you no longer need?

I'm looking for armour and other fighting equipment no longer being used to put together a few loaner suits so we can help our new and future fighters get into the action sooner, to enjoy the thrill of combat, the clash of arms, the braining of our mates and the exhilaration of inflicting pain upon others before they do it to us.

If you have anything lying around or can hassle someone into donating a piece or two, I'll be at Baronial training each Sunday (if maybe a little late) or I can be contacted on:

0405 570 885 or centurion@iinet.net.au

and we can arrange something

Thank you greatly for any assistance

Baronial A&S Competitions

An Italian Carnivale (Jan 2008)

Open Arts and Sciences

Steward's prize for Best pre-1600 Mask

These are the A&S competitions currently on the calendar. I particularly wish to draw your attention to the competitions for Loehae Midwinter next year, which will be held in Anzala. This is a great opportunity to get your work seen without risking it in transit and you have plenty of time to prepare.

An Opportunity!

Are you looking for something more in the SC&A?

Are you interested in creating things?

Have you considered becoming an Arts and Sciences Minister?

The Arts and Sciences office is not especially difficult or demanding. You will be closely involved with everyone who is working on arts and sciences projects (almost everyone in the SC&A at some point in time) and with Baronial A&S projects. You get your name in The Vine, and a shiny (almost) new officer's medallion.

If you become Anzala's new A&S Minister you will be expected to:

Be a member

Report to the Loehae A&S Minister, the Anzalan Seneschal and the Baron and Baroness every three months. This is quite simple and proforma reports are available.

Arrange A&S competitions throughout the year.

Attend council regularly so you know what is going on and what events you might need to organise A&S activities at.

Keep an eye on the various regular A&S activities that are already happening so that you can report on them.

In addition, you may wish to run workshops, regular classes, or a weekend of classes on a specific topic or a vast array of topics; you might want to put together an A&S newsletter or add to the articles on the Anzalan website; or you might have other new and interesting ideas for encouraging the arts and sciences in Anzala.

If you think you might have an interest in this office please ask me about it or speak to the Seneschal or the Baron and Baroness. You can also check out the A&S Minister's Page on the Loehae website for more information about the office.!

Catherine de Arc
Arts & Sciences Minister

from the Mid-Winter Steward

Good Gentles,

As you will hopefully be aware by now, Anzala has the honour of hosting Kingdom Mid-Winter this coming July.

This is no small matter. Far from being the work of a dedicated few, organising and carrying out the weekend will require the efforts of many of us.

To this end, therefore, I ask that all of you who would like to assist in making this event a success please contact me as soon as possible.

You can contact me by e-mail at:

AN ITALIAN CARNIVALE

Come join in the Masked street fair, and enjoy dancing, games and general frivolity incognito. (Did I mention MASKS?) Attendance at a carnivale called for ALL to wear masks so that rank and identity could be hidden from all (just think of the mischief you can get up to wearing a MASK). Noble folk especially hid their identity so they could relax and enjoy themselves.

The event opens at 5pm, continuing until 10pm, when we must all scatter afore the Guard takes our revels to the cells.

Pavilions will be set up; however, you will need to bring your own seating, and, as always, something to eat off and drink out of. Hmm ... in summer, liquid to drink is also good.

If you wish to raise your personal pavilion or banner you can either be on site from 3:30pm to raise it yourself, or give it Mistress Muirghein (north of the river) or Lady Sorcha (south of the river) BEFORE the day. If you choose to raise your pavilion yourself be aware that the stewarding team will tell you where you can put it.

Note that NO pavilions or banners may be raised after 4:45pm

Also note that we will not have access to the hall proper until 5pm.
