Baronial Missive

We wish you all a Merry Christmas and a very happy New Year.

Thank you all for making 2015 a great year in Aneala, especially those people who gave generously of their time to steward and assist in the running of so many enjoyable events.

There have been a few events since our last missive, so here is a summary.

Dragons Bay Candlemas. We enjoyed the hospitality of the Canton of Dragons Bay on 18 July at a delicious pot luck feast, where we gave the following Baronial awards. Congratulations to you all.

Order of the Demi-Sun: Imagina Bertram

Order of the Demi-Sun: Rachae of Dragons Bay

Order of the Golden Swans: Clothilde du Lac

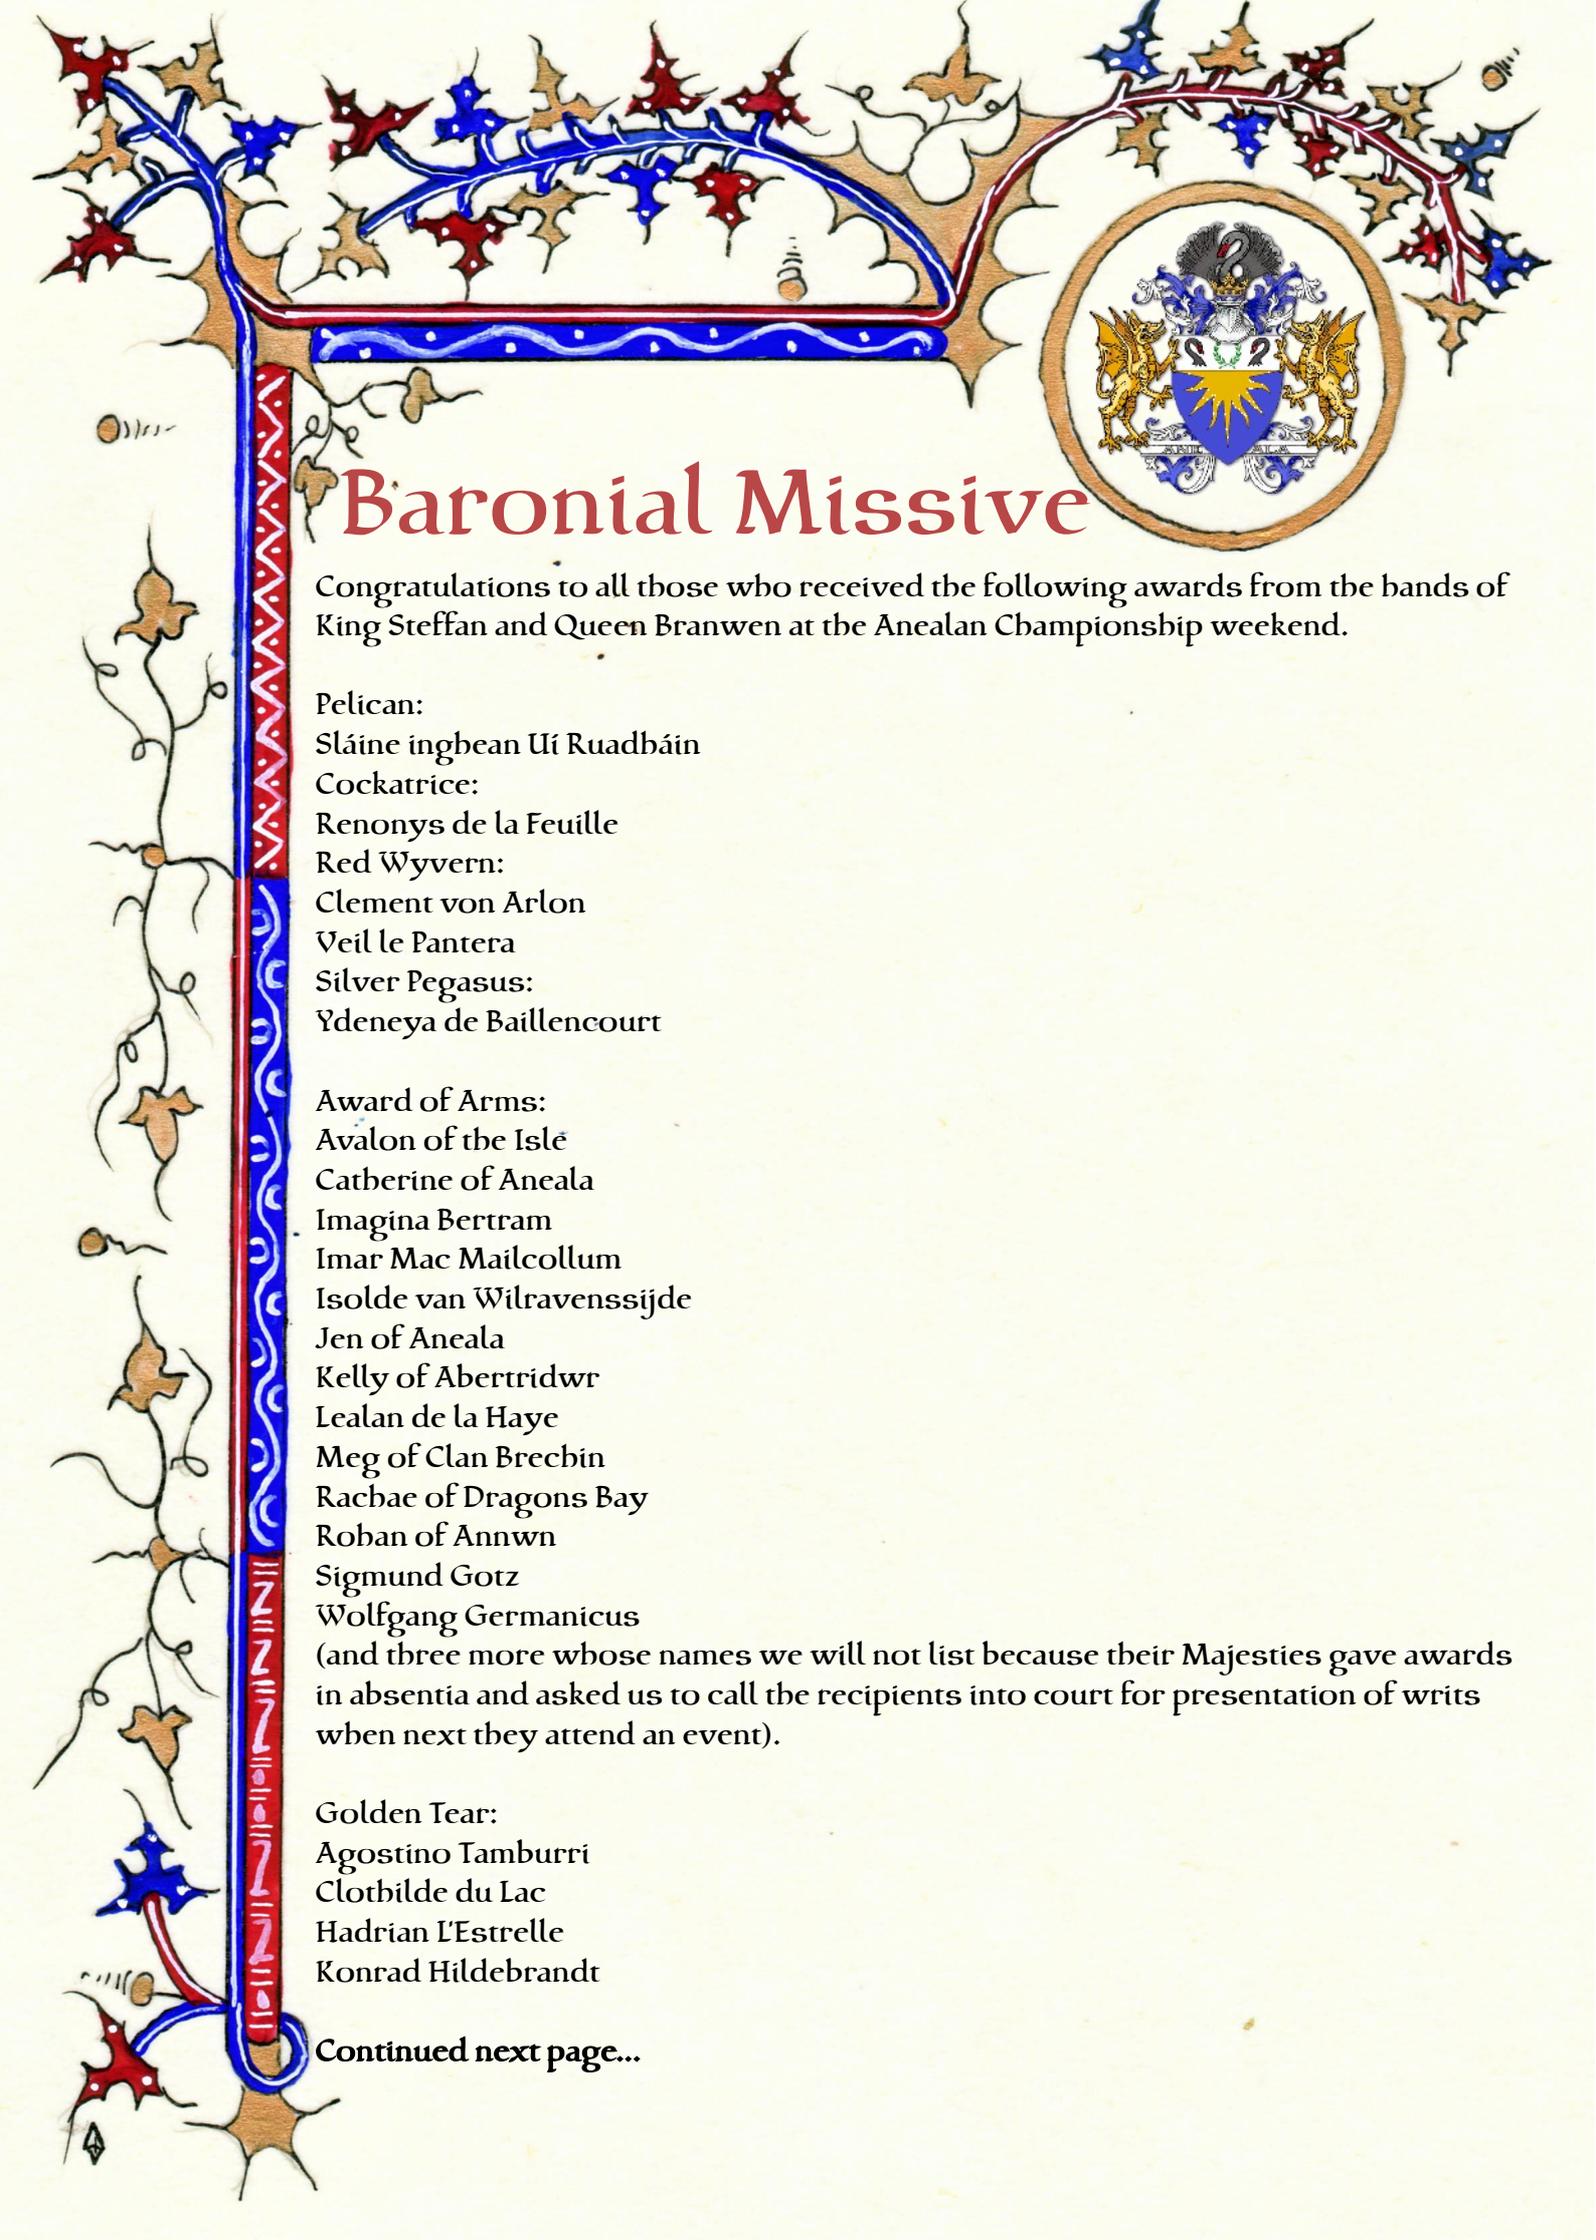

Order of the Valiant Swans: Lokki Rekr

We travelled to the Pennsic War in July, and the Barony was well-represented in the Known World Baronial Champion's tournament by our Champion Lokki Rekr. He also attended us at the courts of their Majesties Steffan and Branwen.

College Challenge on 20 September was most enjoyable. The mix of fighting and a quest was well thought-out, and very entertaining. Congratulations to the college.

The Anealan Championship Weekend on 26-29 September saw a Royal visit by King Steffan and Queen Branwen, as well as attendance by Eva, Baroness Innilgard, and Master Ianto and Lady Vitéz Tatiana from Riverhaven. There was much fighting and archery, and well-contested lists for the honour of becoming the new Anealan Champions. Congratulations to our new Armoured Champion, Clement von Arlon, our Rapier Champion Zaven Zeitountsi, and our Archery Champion Thomas o'Caerdyf. Congratulations also to our new Arts and Sciences Champion Renonys de la Feuille, and the outgoing champions who became members of the Hearth Troop. Heartfelt thanks to the Stewards Dede Kilic and Mistress Branwen, for making a very complicated event run so smoothly, and to all their helpers.

Tyler (nephew of Wolfgang)

In addition to the awards given, their Majesties publicly invited Clement von Arlon to join the Order of Chivalry and sent him to vigil. He was elevated to the order in Politarchopolis at Fields of Gold in November.

We also gave the following Baronial awards at Championship:
Order of the Valiant Swans: Clement von Arlon
Black Feather: Missy of Aneala

Dede Kilic has run two very successful Combat Archery tourneys in August and November, and plans to hold these every quarter, to give people more opportunities to practice and enjoy combat archery.

Thank you to Lady Mery of Ellersly, who ran a series of shoemaking workshops in October, hosted by the College of St Basil, and attended by a dozen people, many of whom are now wearing their first pair of hand-made turnshoes.

The Bal D'Aneala on 31 October was a spectacular event, with a theme of heraldic masks. Thank you to everyone who entertained us, both in the bardic competition, and for the music and dancing. Congratulations to the new Bard of Aneala, Ariel of St Basil, whose performance on the great harp was outstanding, and thanks to our outgoing bard, Jane de Belle, for her service.

We enjoyed the Green Dragon Rising feast in Dragons Bay in November, where we were able to surprise a number of people with Awards of Arms given to them at Championship and carefully kept quiet until that time by their friends - well done.

Baronial Missive

At the end of November we travelled again, to Politarchopolis and the Fields of Gold event, where we saw Clement von Arlon, elevated to Knighthood. Congratulations Sir Clement, Aneala's second new peer this year.

The final official event for us this year was the Tournament of St Nicholas of Mara (AKA Toys for Tots) where a mighty pile of children's toys and many food items were given, and subsequently donated to the St Vincent de Paul charity for their Christmas appeal. Thank you to Lady Isobel de Annesley for stewarding a most successful event, and to the winners of the armoured tourney, Sir Nathan Blacktower, and the rapier tourney, the Honourable Lord Veil le Pantera.

There have been several office changeovers as well and we sincerely thank the outgoing officers for their service to Aneala, and welcome and thank the incoming officers for volunteering their time.

Herald: Lord Seamus O'Seamus has handed over the office to Lord Lavaeolus of St Basil

Lists: Lady Elizabeth Rowe has handed over the office to Mistress Branwen of Werchesvorde

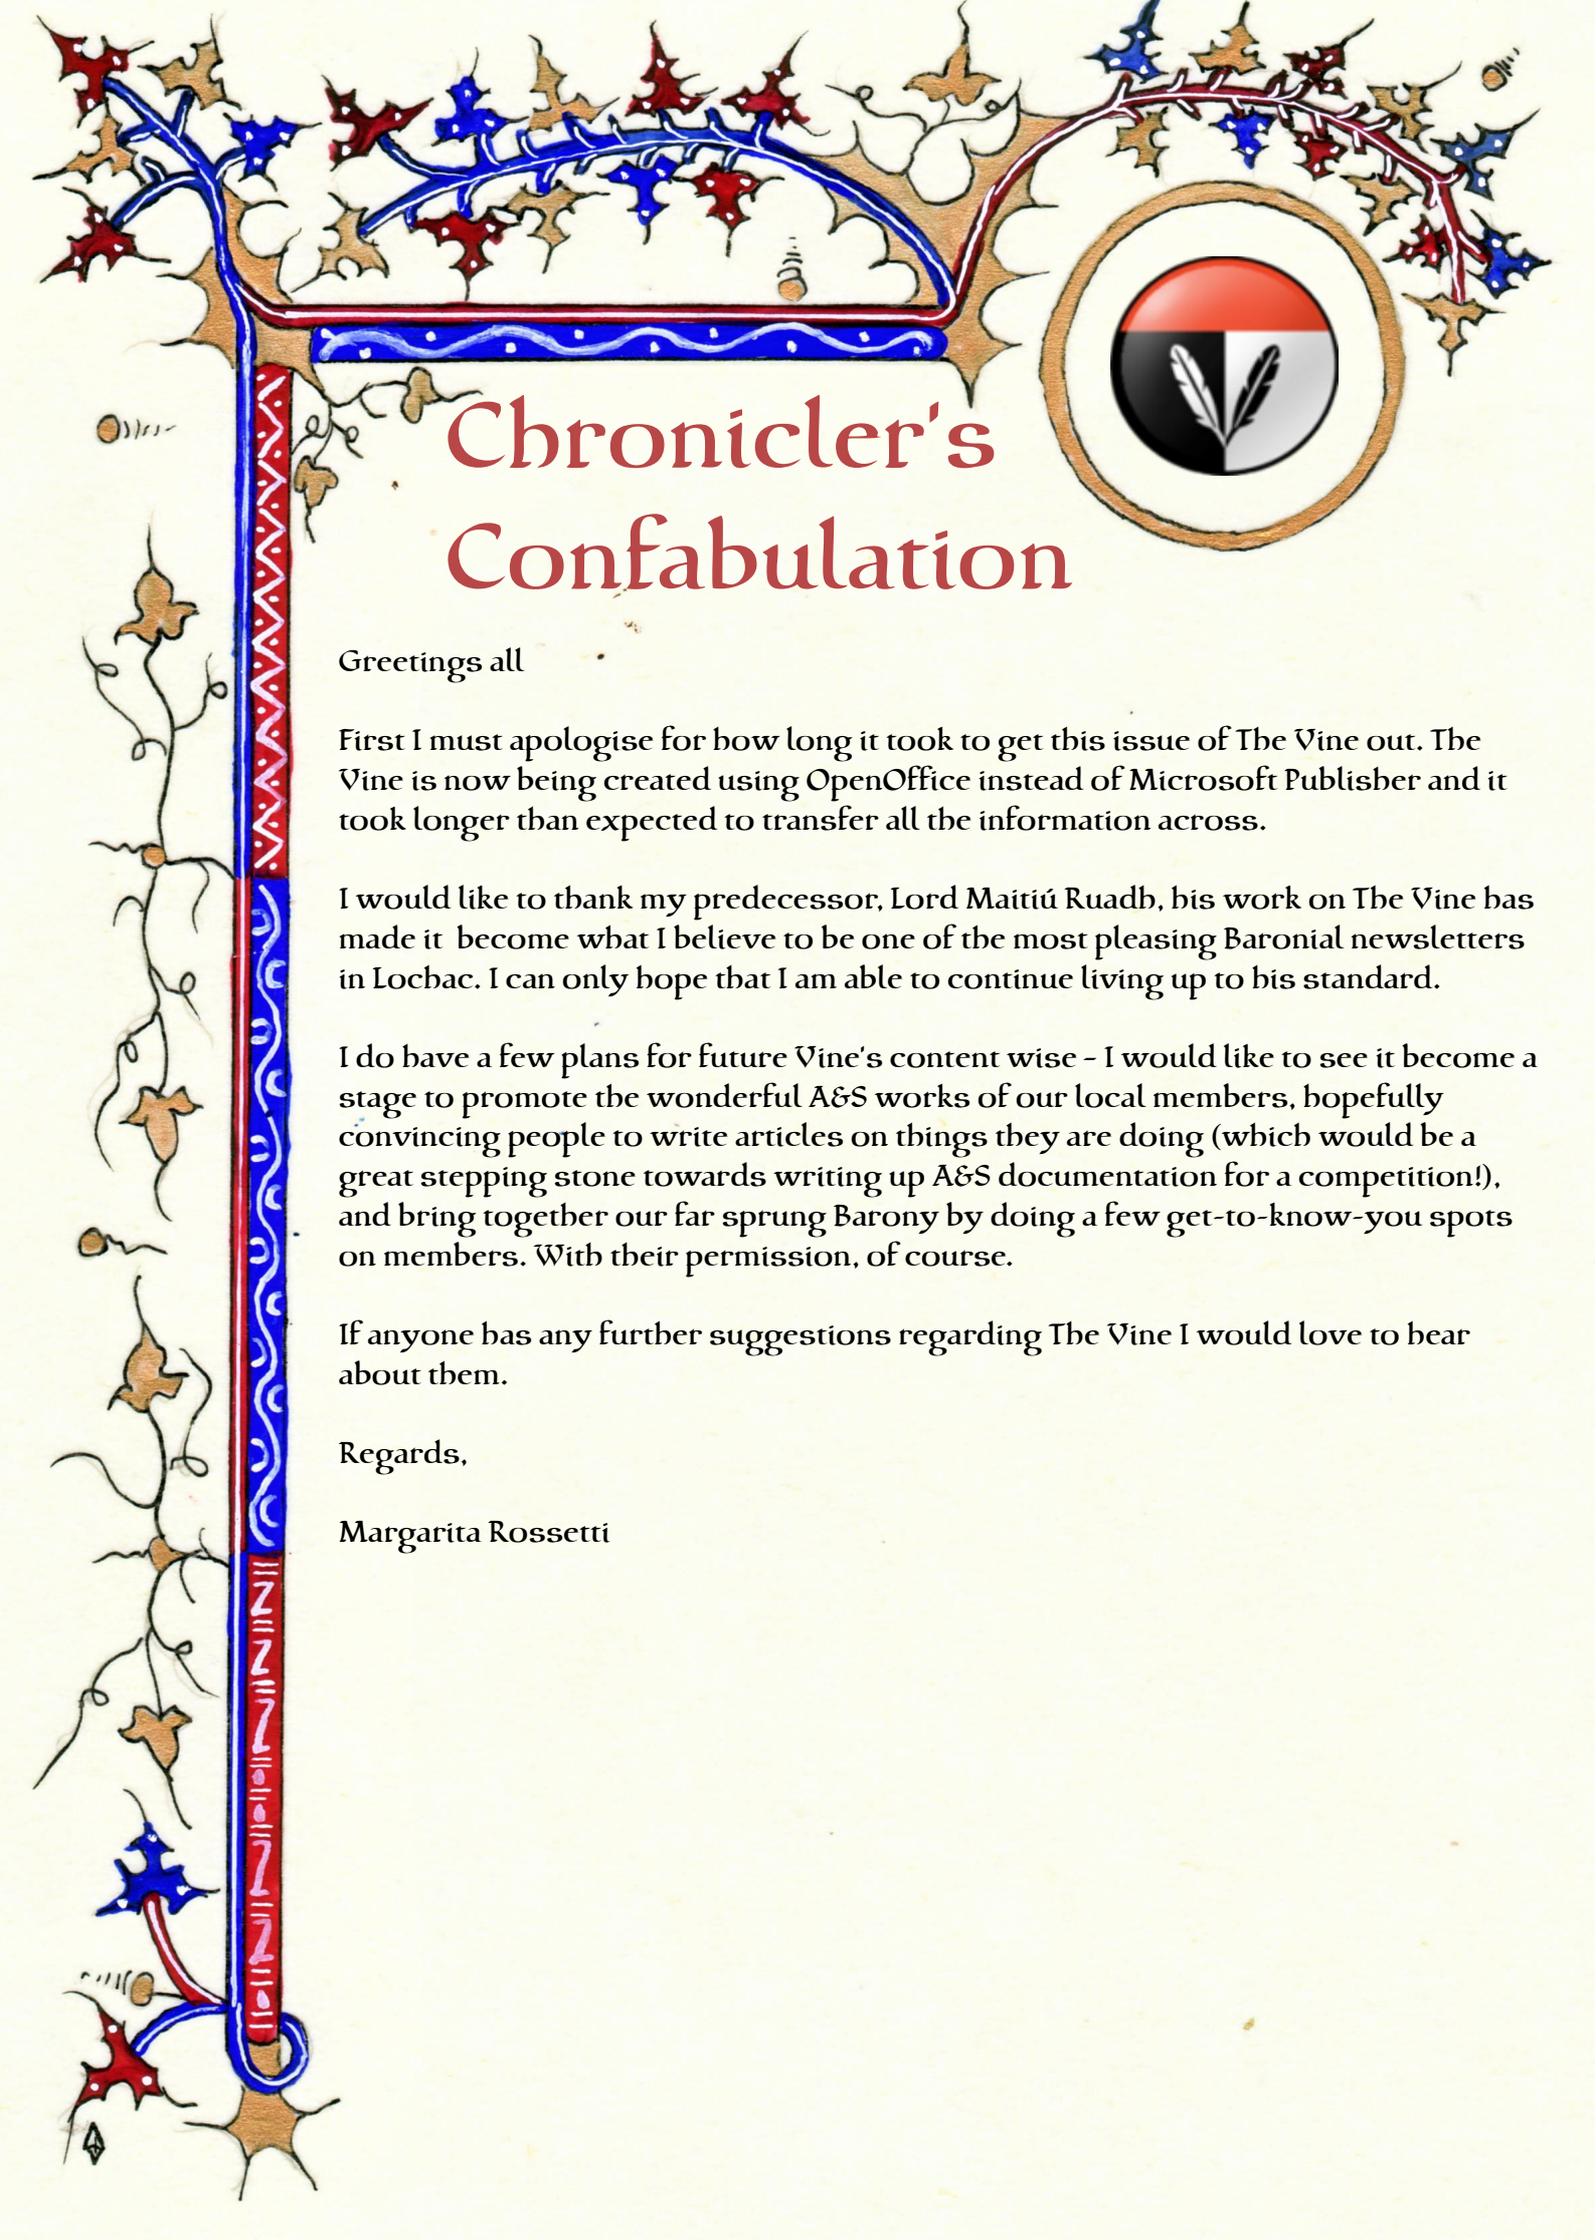

Chatelaine: Lady Jane de Belle has handed over the office to Lady Alessandra de Florenza

Chronicler: Lord Maitiú Ruadh has handed over the office to Margarita Rossetti

Reeve: Lady Mery of Ellersly will hand over her office to lady Elizabeth Severn at Midsummer in January.

As we say farewell to 2015, in hope of a peaceful and prosperous 2016, we thank you all, every one of you, for your support and enthusiastic participation in the life of the Barony, and hope to see you at the Midsummer event on January 16.

Dameon and Leonie
Baron and Baroness of Aneala

Chronicler's Confabulation

Greetings all

First I must apologise for how long it took to get this issue of The Vine out. The Vine is now being created using OpenOffice instead of Microsoft Publisher and it took longer than expected to transfer all the information across.

I would like to thank my predecessor, Lord Maitiú Ruadh, his work on The Vine has made it become what I believe to be one of the most pleasing Baronial newsletters in Lochac. I can only hope that I am able to continue living up to his standard.

I do have a few plans for future Vine's content wise - I would like to see it become a stage to promote the wonderful A&S works of our local members, hopefully convincing people to write articles on things they are doing (which would be a great stepping stone towards writing up A&S documentation for a competition!), and bring together our far sprung Barony by doing a few get-to-know-you spots on members. With their permission, of course.

If anyone has any further suggestions regarding The Vine I would love to hear about them.

Regards,

Margarita Rossetti
