From Dameon and Leonie, Baron and Baroness of Aneala, to the populace of Aneala, greetings

Our thanks to all for two great events this month.

First was the Green Dragon Feast in Dragons Bay on Saturday 22 October. This was a small potluck, but the food was delicious, the dancing great fun, and we welcomed three newcomers as well, who applied to join the SCA the very next day. The following day we attended the Green Dragon Highland Games, with archery followed by baggis hurling and caber tossing. Participants managed to break the caber, but the baggis remained undefeated.

Then on 29 October was the Bal d'Aneala, with a German theme. Well done to Lord Wolfgang Germanicus for doing the early organising, and to Mistress Ant Blowme for stepping in as steward when Lord Wolfgang could not continue. Many thanks to the kitchen crew for the delicious German food, and to the entrants in the brewing competition, who provided the judges with tasty samples of their work. Lord Imar won the brewing, and Lord Zaven won the arts and sciences competition with his new garb. Lady Elizabeth Rowe excelled herself in running the dancing and Ceoltoiri Aneala provided much of the dance music. It is always wonderful to dance to live music.

And of course the Bal d'Aneala is where the Bard of Aneala is chosen. Thank you to the outgoing Bard, Lady Ariel of Saint Basil for organising the competition. It was a small field of entrants this year and the winner was Lady Elizabeth Rowe, with one of her "short" stories. We look forward to her entertaining us all over the next year.

At these two events we gave the following Baronial Awards. Congratulations to:
Jacqueline of Aneala - Black Feather given at the Green Dragon Feast
Lord Ulfr fra Jorvik - Order of the Demi Sun for service to archery, given at the Bal d'Aneala
Lady Ariel of Saint Basil - Order of the Golden Swans for arts and sciences, especially music, given at the Bal d'Aneala

Coming up in the next couple of months we have:

A demo, run by Dragons Bay at the Kwinana Festival Fair Day on Saturday November 12. Please contact the Seneschal of Dragons Bay, Lady Avalon, if you can help.

Abertridwr's Manning Mayhem on Sunday November 20 at Manning Park

Toys for Tots on Sunday December 4 at Garvey Park Ascot. This is our annual charity event, with armoured and rapier tournaments and a potluck lunch. There will be a Cooks' Guild competition for the best summer pot-luck dish. Entry is by donation of a toy or non-perishable food item to be given to a Christmas charity appeal. Garvey Park is a public venue, so we hope that we will also be able to show what we do to interested members of the public.

Finally, we ask you all to consider the ways in which we can make both public appearances and our feasts and tourneys look more medieval. One of the easiest things to do so is remembering to cover up obviously mundane items, such as drink bottles and cans on tables, food eskies at outdoor events, and to limit mobile phone use when possible (especially when it lights up your face in a dimly-lit hall).

Until next time

Yours in service

Dameon and Leonie
