Baronial Missive

Greetings unto the great and wondrous people of Aneasa
Thankyou to Lord Andre and Lord Kondrak for the Tree of Chivalry that they hosted. It was a grand day with lots of courageous venons taking on the challenge.

Thankyou also to Mistress Murighen, who hosted a Valentines revel, which will stay fond in our minds.

March is looking VERY busy, with lots of demos and events planned. We would ask all those who can help out at these events please do so. Swancon is looking to be a very intense weekend of demonstrations and we all need to support each others endeavours over the weekend. The college will also be in need of assistance for their newcomers feast. If you can spare some time helping them to prepare, We are sure they would love your help.

On March 26, We will announce the final nominations for your next Baron and Baroness. This will happen at the fighter Auction at opening court. If you would like to nominate for this position, you must have contacted Their Majesties in writing before this date. This position is open to ANY paid member of the populace over the age of 18 years. Should you feel you would like the opportunity to fill this role please come and talk with Us and other members of the populace.

We are looking forward to seeing you all there.

Yours In Service

House of Aneasa

Well actually at present we are only doing munitions grade mild steel, and/or leather body and limb equipage. We never do stainless but if we did we would charge you an excessively exorbitant amount all out of proportion to the value of the piece.
