From the Baron & Baroness

Well Met Noble Anealans, Abertridwnians and Basilites

Baron Hectors tourney was an intimate occasion which saw more battles of words and hearty conversations than swords and shields. Many thanks to Baron Hector and his household for a lovely day conversing on the green.

War of the Weir was a brilliant weekend with much skirmishing and arrows flying. It was great to see some of the archers out there giving the heavies a run for their money. We have been told all the sheep have been successfully been recovered and that the flock can be expected to attend future events. The camping ground was lovely and We look forward to having the next Baronial championship held there. Thankyou to Marcellus and Fionnula for a terrific weekend.

The great Anealan Sweatshop has once again been busy. Thankyou to Lady Fionnula and m'lady Constance for making the three chemises and two men's under shirts. Also for letting her Excellency near the sewing machine (which by the way did NOT blow up, though the gremlins were about!!). While they were busy inside there was much hammering of metal in the shed. Thankyou to Sir Randall, Lord Marcellus, Lord Culain, and m'lord Phil for assisting His Excellency. The list posts will require more time (and more effort!) than we had. But much fun was still had.

The month of July will commence with two tourneys, one hosted by Her Excellency and the other by SirRandall', followed by a sumptuous Mid Winter, to be hosted by Baroness Catherine. We look forward to seeing you there.

Seneschal's Missive

Here does Marcellus de Damacian, Seneschal to Aneala, Send greetings.

My Evil plan has worked and the last council was larger then ever. The more people making the decisions in the barony the better, so follow your peers and become a decision maker in your own right. A firm decision has been made by those who attended the council that it not follow events due to a separation of the dream that we create and the brain storming it takes to create that dream. The next council will be at the house of Catalina de Gata on the third Friday of the month, start of 7:30pm sharp.

An agenda of what design of period pavilion should be sourced for use by the populace will be undertaken. Your ideas are needed and I encourage you to come along.

As some of you may have heard I am in need of a Hospitaller. The office is in very good condition and with the Seneschals' office in hand I am finding less time to devote to this wonderful and inspiring office. Any who would conceder putting in for this position is hereby encouraged to contact me for a full explanation of the duties and responsibilities of the office.

I would like to extend my congratulations to Sir Randal as his application to take on the office of Reeve to Aneala has been approved. Their will now be a two week commenting period before he will take on the office. If you feel the candidate is unsuitable for the position then email my self at dragons_hollow@eftel.net.au with the subject heading of Reeve to Aneala.

I am looking for a deputy to help in my office as I may need to exit the greater Kingdom of Lochac due to family health. This is not an easy decision to make and should not be taken lightly. Please contact me if you are intrested in being a deputy seneschal.

In Service to Aneala
Marcellus de Damacian

Scheduled Events

Midwinter Dancing

This is the dance list for Midwinter. Knowledge of dancing in the 14th century is sketchy so we will settle for 15th century dances, all of which have been taught and done in Aneala in the past. If you need any help with these please ask. If time permits there will be music available for 16th century dancing later in the evening.

Saltarello la Regina - the best guess we have for a 14th century dance style and still the most popular dance in Aneala
Prenes en Gre - Gresley MS, c1500 England
Lybens distongs - Gresley
Talbott - Gresley
Dance de Cleves - Brussels MS, 1470 Burgundy
Amoroso - Ebreo, 1463 Italy
Anello - Domenico, 1450 Italy
Petit Vriens - Domenico
La Spagna - Domenico
Jouyessance Vous Donnerai - Arbeau, 1589 France, a 16th century version of an almost extinct 15th century style

Baronial Dance Practice

All good things must come to an end. After almost a decade Baronial dance practice has been cancelled due to poor attendance. I am still happy to help with anything dancing related but will not be holding regular classes.

Baroness Catherine d'Arc

Odessa Style Mushroom Tarts
as served at Pencampwr AS XXXX

* ¼ C. butter at room temp
* ½ medium onion finely diced
* 1 lb. field or brown mushrooms, whole or sliced - Portabella mushrooms work well
* 1 Tbs. flour
* Salt and freshly ground pepper
* ½ C. sour cream
* 1/3 C. heavy cream
* ½ C. grated hard cheese - Parmesan or Romano will do
* 2 shortcrust pastry pie bases

Melt ½ of the butter in a skillet Add the onions and sauté briefly, then stir in the mushrooms and cook for about 5 to 6 minutes.

In a small bowl, combine 1 T. of the butter with the flour, working it to make a paste ball. Stir the butter ball into the mushrooms and cook for 3 minutes, or until thickened. Season to taste, and stir in the sour cream and heavy cream.

Preheat the oven to 180° C. Pour the mushroom mixture into the pie bases, sprinkle the top with grated cheese and dot with the remaining butter.

Bake 20 to 25 minutes until bubbly.
