From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings most noble and gracious people of Aneala

Our heart felt congratulations to Sir Kane Graymane for becoming the inaugural Pencampwr gan Abertridwr. We believe Sir Kane was the last Champion of Abertidwr, before it vanished into the mists. So it comes full circle, that We see him reclaim this honour, and carry the spear for Abertidwr once more.

During the past month saw a raid of the Baronial flocks. The sheep were scared, and the ladies aghast, as the fighters took to the field to fight over their bodies (that's sheep's bodies not the ladies!!). But all survived and Sir Peter took the honours this day. The sheep are all safe and well and grazing peacefully, even after a "lambnap" attempt. We know who you are, you masked Viking!

Randall's tourney was a lovely day in the winter sun. A break in the rain made for a great day fighting and revelry. Master Haefdane was victorious over some worthy combatants

A drop spinning class was held in the Canton, conducted by Lady Arielle Beaumaris. What a fun time we had made more mess than yarn. By the end of the night, there was a little yarn made. Those woollen socks may need to wait awhile. Lady Arielle has kindly offered to return and show us some more advanced techniques.

We look forward to seeing you all at Baroness' Crisiant's tourney, and at the Balingup Fair. If you are interested in travelling to Balingup, please contact Sir Peter for more details.

On a house keeping note, some of the current officers in the Barony are looking for deputies or willing gentles to take on their office. If you feel you might be interested in becoming an officer, please chat to Marcellus, Ourselves or the current officer.

Yours In Service

Seneschal's Missive

Greetings unto the Populace of Aneala,

I hope this finds you well and full of excitement for the next month of wonderful events and friendly meetings. As most of you now know the Lady Fionnula and I are off to lands afar. We are very excited to explore the yonder shore of An Tir but remember, we will miss you all terribly and look forward to our visits back to Aneala.

As I prepare to hand on the office of the chatelaine and seneschal I need to inform all of you that applications will close at the next council. I am sorry to have to rush things but with the castle on the market and the armoury being packed onto the ship time is running short. If you feel you would like to take on any of these jobs then feel free to contact me and I will answer any questions you have.

I also need to remind any who have items in the armoury. If you wish to collect them the please do so. I am not really interested in putting your hard work or tools in the tip. Please speak up, as I have a lot of unclaimed armour and materials.

In Service to Aneala
And to each you, warmth and friendship.

Marcellus de Damacian

From the Anealan rapier marshal,

All has been quiet in the Barony of Aneala in recent months. The rapier fighters, including myself, have not gathered in force for some time. I don't know if this is due to arrests by the constabulary for brawling or other factors are involved.

You should know of two incidents of which I have heard rumours, unfortunately the absence of evidence has halted further investigation. After the close of the recent Baronial camping weekend a fight apparently took place between a local Knights squire and a certain fop from the royal court. Said squire has since expressed interest in learning more about rapier combat, possibly in an unwise attempt to settle the score.

The other incident happened in the Canton of Abertridwr, also at a camping weekend, also involving the same fop. No witness will say it was anything other than training but I suspect this is directly due to fear of reprisals.

In other business I have handed on my role as one of the Queens Guard. Part of my duties involved restoring the vestments given me. My name has now been added to the honour roll inscribed into the baldric though sadly, one name has faded past recognition. Previous holders included Atar of Sarum, Gui von Oberhausen and Wendell von Bayern.

If anyone is able to identify who was the holder of this baldric after Sir Atar and before Sir Gui I am offering a reward.

Yis,
Lord Leofric
Anealan Rapier Marshal
