From the Baron & Baroness

Greetings wondrous people of Aneala,

As We write this missive, our caravans are being prepared for the journey to the weir. Our minds and hearts are filled with anticipation of a spectacular Championship event, and by the time this missive reaches your hands, Aneala will have new Champions!!

Through September, We had the honour of being guests of St Basil the Great. And great it was, to see so many faces at their annual challenge. The spirit and camaraderie that was shown throughout the day was a joy to behold.

We would also like to thank the people of Abertridwr for hosting a splendid collegia. We had an enjoyable day sharing ideas, and learning new skills. A warm thankyou must be given to m'lord Ramon, for a fantastic hat making workshop. It is amazing what can be done with felt, a can of hairspray and a bit of imagination!

October will see a tournament hosted by Sir Randall, plus a selection of demos across all of the Western Shores. We would ask that you take the time to attend as many of the public demonstrations as you can. These occasions provide an opportunity to show the wider community just what we do. The more people on hand makes the day a little easier on everybody. If you can lend a hand, please get in touch with each of the event coordinators.

See you there!

Arts & Sciences Missive

Greetings to the populace of Aneala,

It is with some regret that I must announce my plans to step down as Arts and Sciences Officer at the Midsummer Feast. Therefore, anyone interested in taking over this office should submit an application to the Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences, the Baron and Baroness, and Baronial Seneschal. The job is not difficult, with only a small amount of paperwork, a network of supportive people, and the fun of encouraging the arts and sciences. Applications should be in by the end of October.

If you have any questions, be it about the office or anything else arts and science related, do not hesitate to contact me.

In service,
Alessandra

Ex-Ex- Reeve

1. All you gentles who feel like being a hero (and can add up) (and have time) (and are currently a member) please please please come forward and save the day by volunteering to be the Reeve. Unfortunately the position is up for grabs again....

2. Heres a gentle reminder for all those people who bought fighters (or gear) at the Baroness' Fighter Auction back in April. There is still just over $600 to collect. Hopefully you all know who you are because I'd rather not write up a list of shame for all to see! If you have an inkling that you maybe do owe the Barony money, please come forward with your gold, before we have to send out the heavies (he he he). Preferably go see the Baron Creag, as he is the acting Reeve-y type person, or if all else fails, you can pay me.

With Love and trying not to be In Service right now,

Ottilia Adelise von Grafenbach

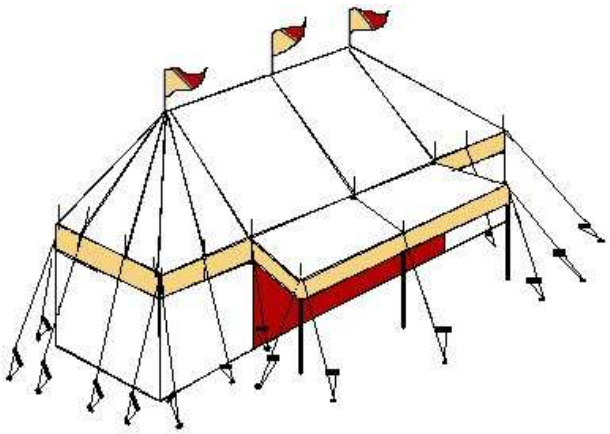
Baronial Pavilion Acquisition Discusion



"Oh delightful shade let not the sun burn my weary brow..."
Greetings from D'Gaunt and tidings of much import,

Their Excellencies have tasked me with coordinating the purchase of the Baronial Pavilions, which at this stage involves the Baronial Royal Pavilion, Officers Pavilions and possibly a multi-use pavilion. The guidelines to date are:
1) the Royal Pavilion will be as period as practical and a major capital investment,
2) the Officers pavilions will not be cheap and nasty, and
3) the Baroness favours a royal pavilion that has bell or rounded ends.

Given that this will involve spending a fair amount of money that belongs to us Ansalans it is very important that the pavilion discussion involves as many people as possible. If you are able please take the time to view the Pavilion Page and join the discussion group set up by Baron Nathan and express your opinions, remember individual comment and free discussion are aqua vitae of a healthy society. I was going to say lifeblood but courtesy already lays rightfully claim this title in the SCA :)
Additionally please let anybody know that I am more than happy to accept hardcopy submissions by hand or post which I can then be posted to the list on their behalf.

Postal address for sending hardcopy is: PO Box 6104, East Perth WA 6892.
The Pavilion Page can be found at http://ancala.sca.org.au/pavilion.
To access the page you will need to contact Baron Nathan via email at nathanb@hale.wa.edu.au and he will need the following,
Logon Name - This will be listed next to each of your comments,
Full SCA Name - Displayed when you hover over a login name, and a
Password - this is kind of obvious (I don't think Nathan means an obvious password so much as the need is obvious).
Further discussions will also occur and are encouraged as required at the various regular meetings held within the Barony, so as with all Society business within the Barony come and let the Baron and Baroness know your personal thoughts and brilliant ideas.

Yours in Service to the Dream Viscount Master Sir Peter D'Gaunt Noir
