Baronial Missive

Greetings great and noble people of the Western Shores.

The Western Shores has grown substantially with the development of a new Shire in Our southern reaches. Our heartfelt congratulations to Lord Jochen for all the hard work he and his companions in the south have put into establishing this new group. It is never easy creating a new group, but with the enthusiasm and devotion these gentles have shown We are confident that it will thrive. Thankyou to all those kind gentles of the Greater Barony and Canton who went down to the Shire for its first feast and who were able to support this fledgling group. We know that over the coming months you will continue to provide a vast array of knowledge and expertise. With the guidance of the College of Herald's the Shire will soon be able to display its arms and shout its name across the battle fields of the Known World.

We would also like to say thankyou to all those gentles that travelled eastwards and met with the members of the College of St Basils in the fair town of York. A brilliant day was had singing for our supper, demonstrating the fine works we do and of course a majestic display of martial prowess.

During August We shall see many of you at the feast of St Alban and at the Balingup festival, which will be Our last events before divestiture. We are looking forward to catching up with as many of you before Our time as Baron and Baroness is complete.

Yours In Service

Baroness

Good Morrow kind Gentles

I bring you this short missive so all may be informed of the many and wonderful things happening within the fair and shining barony. Firstly From all the Accounts I have heard all had great fun and met with fabulous people in the newcomers feast and tourney held in the growing shire of as yet no name but The Shire is good for now :D

Many thanks to all those who went down and supported this fledgling group with support and encouragement they will prosper for the greater enjoyment of all .

SECONDLY

POSITION VACANT ... Well not quite cause I am in for now but this was a temporary thing due to changes in lives. Yes this means I do not intend to continue in this position for too long and am search pleading asking cajoling any who would think they could enjoy this really easy role to contact me . we can talk no I wont just dump it on you and leave lol I will work with you for a wee while and then pass the office to you when your comfortable .

Hmmm I think that's all from me for now opps not quite

Reports are due to me before the 15th of August

Cheers

Muirghein your redoubtable
seneschal

Championship

Lords and Ladies, good gentles of Aneasa, Lord Lachahn and Lady Jane give you greeting and entreat you to be mindful of the noble contest soon to take place to decide the Champions of this fair Barony.

Upon the last day of September, and the first day of October, at the place known as Manjadel, three grand tournaments shall be held, through which Champions shall be sought for Sword, Bow and Rapier.

All who practice any of these several arts are encouraged to take their places amongst Aneasa's finest.

Come one, come all to display your prowess before the assembled populace, for the honour of yourselves and your houses, to the delight of those who inspire you, and for the glory of Aneasa.

We wish also to take this opportunity to issue an open invitation to all the populace, to approach us with your ideas, suggestions and plans for enhancing the game we all play. Be it an idea for an event, or a pattern for a favour, or simply a desire to be involved, nothing is too big or too small, and we would love to hear from you!

Pack up

Site: Manjedal Scout Camp, Nettleton Road, Byford.

This site features ample tent sites for even the largest of pavilions, and bathrooms with hot and cold running water and flush privies, all less than one hour from the centre of the Barony.

Food: Hot breakfast (featuring bacon) will be served on Saturday and Sunday mornings. Hot food (some made of vegetarians and some made for vegetarians) will be available on Friday and Saturday nights. On Sunday night, there will be a Victory Feast of lavish proportions.

Cost: All this for the measly sum of $50 for members and $55 for non-members.

Saturday only $20, Sunday only $25.

Any individual wishing to enter any of the Championship lists is expected to make such intention known to Their Excellencies before the close of bookings for this event.

All entrants in the Championships of the Sword and the Rapier are expected to present in good order with no visible duct tape or rust and with a properly decorated shield if they intend to use one.

All entrants to the championship of the Bow are advised that bows will be limited to 30 pounds for the hunt, bows and blunts will be made available for this shoot. Bows will comply with Society archery rules and all arrows must have wooden shafts. Synthetic fletches will be permitted in this list by the grace of Their Excellencies.

Please book early.

Aneala Baronial Investiture Or A night in the fairylands

Come one and all to the court of their majesties Drako and Hssa as history is made in the fair barony of Aneala. Share in the spectacle of wonder at the passing of an age that shall forever be known in the history of the brightly shining land as the reign of Baron Creag and Baroness Morwenna.

Share in the last court of their Excellencies and bask in the radiance that is the King and Queen of the realm.

Attend the investiture of Lord Lachlahn Joseph of Dunbar and Lady Jane Grenville into the role of Baron and Baroness of Aneala and see the beginning of a reign destined to bring glory and renown to the Jewel in the crown of lochac.

The hidden lands of the sidhe have been gifted to the brightly shining for the time of a giant's breath and all within shall be feasted by the seelie court. Not since the time of Arthur has the land been opened to those of mortal blood and bone, the wonders within have been unseen outside of the dreams of men for untold generations and none may say when man or woman may be welcomed again.
