Baronial Missive

To our well-beloved populace of Aneasa, do Lachlahn and Jane send greetings.

Much activity has been going forward of late in the Barony, and through it all we have been privileged to see the skill and dedication of the people of these lands. We have lately been most cordially received by the loyal folk of the Barony's southern reaches, the Canton of Abertridwr, and we do warmly congratulate Lord Benedick and Lady Kateřina, whose noble efforts have seen them step up respectively as Pencampwr and Arobryn. We also give our hearty thanks to Master Healfdene, who has held both posts for the past year.

It is with no small measure of pride that we reflect upon the achievements of our populace, for well we know that they are the true strength of Aneasa. It behoves us all to take time to consider wherein lies the heart of our Barony, and there can be no doubt that it is in the care we have, each for the other. Those who stand with us in time of war, those who defend our honour upon the field, those who protect their fellows from harm in perilous circumstances; any gentle who speaks up for another, any one who makes known their appreciation of the achievements of others; any who come to the aid of those in need, and those who work together for the common good - these gentles are the true pillars of our Barony, and it is to them that our successes, and our deepest gratitude, are owing.

Lachlahn

from the Seneschal

Wow! what an event the Pencampwr Gan Abertridwr camping weekend was. Full marks to Master Haelfdane and his event crew. With our enthusiasm lifted by such a great event I thought I would look ahead to what is in store for the rest of the year.

Their Excellencies plan to attend the Grey Company Tudor Midwinter on the 30th of June. Contact Her Excellency Baroness Jane for more details. We never know who will come to our event if we go to theirs.

The next Anealan event on the horizon is Midwinter to be held at the North Perth Community Hall. See the event information at the back of this issue for full details.

Time to think about performing a piece of entertainment and of course what to wear.

After that will be the Balingup medieval Fair 25th & 26th of August, Mistress Liduina is co-ordinating this demonstration please give her your support. For more information www.balingupmedievalcarnivale.com.au/

Next is the Anealan Championship weekend on 28th of September to the 1st of October. I will be stewarding this event and will get more information to you as soon as I can find a site. Any ideas would be welcomed.

Other wise the Barony is doing very well, council meetings are fun and the amount of work getting done is dazzling. Council minutes for May can be found in this publication. Next council meeting is on Friday the 15th of June see regular events for where and when.

I remain your in service

Kane Greymane

Communication In The Modern Medieval Age

A new E-mail list for official announcements for the SCA in WA has been established. This list will carry only official announcements with no discussion. Any of the four WA groups' officers will be able to post to the Announce list all others will be read only. The E-Vine (Aneala) and E-Rhol (Abertridwr) will be announced as ready for download via this new list current subscribers to either of the newsletters are asked to subscribe to the announce list. The advantages of this list are

1. People can take themselves off the list and not have to get the chronicler to take them off a distribution list.
2. People can stay in touch with what's happening in the SCA without all the E-mails of an Email chat line can subscribe only to this list.

From the Seneschal

3. Officers wanting to contact everyone only need to send an E-mail to Announce rather than 4 to the E-mail chat lists.

How to subscribe to Announce: Send an email to listmanager@aneala.sca.org.au

containing the text subscribe announce in the body of the message.

New SCA WA Chat list

A new E-mail chat list for all of the SCA in WA has been established

Anealan Championship Camping Weekend

Queens Birthday Long Weekend.
September 28th to October 1st

Mark this on your calendar now, organise holidays or build up some flex time this is too good to miss.

Friday night is Dinner with the Baron and Baroness. Their Excellencies will supply the meal.

Saturday will see the Archery championship and rapier championship competitions then in the evening a campfire with entertainments and games.

Sunday will be the Anealan triple list chivalric weapon and shield, two-handed weapon and the one weapons combination once open weapons list Followed by the champions' victory feast.

Apart from the Friday night meal that is a gift from the Baron & Baroness and the victory feast no meals will be provided.

More information to follow once we find a venue.

Knights Tournament Demonstration

Abertridwr

Sunday 18th of November. A fine opportunity to put the SCA in the media limelight the other end of the year to the Perth Medieval Fair & 3 months after Balingup.

Please put some time aside to help with this important day.

Armoured Combatants Meeting

Friday June 22nd. Venue

Here is a chance for you to have your say in what you would like to see happening for armoured combatants. What sort of tourneys do you want to fight in would more wars attract you do you want to stand a tree of chivalry how can we get more people having fun with us.

Champion of Aneala

Arts & Sciences

Workshops

The recent workshops were very successful. Under Nathan Blacktower's expert tutelage, two people have completed bow stands with another three in progress. There will be another workshop to finish what has been started and for those who could not make it this time. I have no doubt that those who attended will find both the stands and their new skills useful.

The Barony is now the proud owner of a set of new brocade table runners which will grace the hall at Midwinter. These were made by Evelynne van der Haagen, Catalina da Gata and myself.

The ladies present found Liduina de Kastellen van Valkenburg's chapellet making class useful and entertaining. The results of this should start to appear in court in the near future.

Kingdom A&S

Competitions

In answer to a call from the Loehae Minister for Arts and Sciences, I arranged for several items made by Mistress Rhianwen ni Dhiarmada and myself to be sent to May Crown for the narrow wares competition there. All were very well received, my tablet woven girdle (Nathan's favour) won.

I would encourage everyone to consider entering kingdom competitions. Our work is certainly good enough to win. This is a good way to get feedback on your work at the highest level and to show the rest of the Kingdom what we can do here. The piece that won at May Crown was over ten years old so it is quite acceptable to keep an eye out for a competition that suits something you already have, rather than making a new piece for the occasion. Smaller entries can be posted to other groups quite easily and cheaply or you can wait for an event that a fellow Anzalan is travelling to and ask them to courier it for you. I am happy to help with this if I can, just be sure to arrange it a couple of weeks before the event. It seems likely that a few Anzalans will be travelling to November Crown this year, so be sure to check out the competitions for this event.

Midwinter

Masks (for a ball or performance)

Something gilded

Outrageous underwear (codpieces etc, and/or hose)

Wool (on or with) WCOB (Worshipful Company of Broderers competition)

Slips (including LOG pouch design) WCOB

Baronial A&S

Competitions at Midwinter

Open – for anything, from any time or place, including performance pieces and food as well as craft items.

Tudor – for anything you can justify as Tudor. Their Excellencies, Lachahn and Janz, Baron and Baroness of Anzala, are donating as a prize for this competition a Tudor outfit, to be made for the winner by Mistress Evelynne van der Haagen. This is a worthy and valuable prize and merits a special effort on the part of our artisans. I look forward to seeing the entries for this competition.

Balingup Medieval Carnivale

"A Medieval Affayre" and Tulip Festival

To be held on 25 & 26 August

Saturday: 10.00 am until 5.00 pm

Sunday: 09.00 am until 4.00 pm

Where: Balingup Woods
(Balingup Community Centre Grounds)

This year's SCA demonstration at the Balingup Carnivale will be co-ordinated by the Shire of Boesenberg.

The Barony of Aneala and the Canton of Abertridwr have offered to help in any way we can so we need lots of volunteers to head down to Balingup for the fourth weekend in August.

Accommodation can be found at

<http://www.balingup.asn.au/p16-accomodation.html>

or there is always room to camp at Balingup Transit Park, (08) 9764 1051

The Carnivale always gets a lot of visitors from the city, as well as country centres, so it is definitely in our interest to put on a great show for this event. It's always a lot of fun and the local people really appreciate our efforts.

*Set up for Saturday will be from 8.30am
For all those planning to come down for the weekend/day, please contact Liduina at liduina@iinet.net.au or 0421 806 768*

Surcoats Lachlahn

Any surcoats not being purchased are to be laundered and returned to his Excellency for safe keeping. Purchase price $50

One has been handed back so far

Anealan War Banner Catherine

Rhianwen has donated the silk, Catherine, Liduina and Rhianwen have silk paints. Authorised to spend up to $60 to get banner done.

On Going.

Lining for Baronial Pavilion Catherine

Authorised $250 to line baronial pavilion. Catherine to investigate best fabric buys. that pavilion lining fabric has been found and will be bought this week.

On Going

Table Runners (Completed) Catherine

Lake Monger School Keys (Completed) Kane

New keys now with constable. Copies are not to be made if keys are to be handed over to another person then Viscountess Rhianwen will organise for that person to meet school officials.

Many thanks to Viscountess Rhianwen for sorting this problem out.

Feast Stewards Equipment Maidiú

Knives need sharpening, colour coded chopping boards need engraving, purchase 12 tea spoons.

On going

Bow Stand Workshop (Completed) Nathan

People who attended need to pay their $5 dollars to Nathan ASAP.

Regalia Insurance (Completed)

Where possible individuals holding baronial regalia should have it added to their contents policy while it is in their care. Cost of individually insuring baronial regalia is prohibitive. The Barony recognises that it will have to replace regalia if it goes missing or is broken. After much discussion it was felt that no special fund need be established to formally self insure.

Vine Mailing List

Keridwen

1. Those people receiving the Vine by mail have been asked if they want to continue receiving it
1. Posts to other interstate SCA group Chroniclers to be done by E-Mail
1. E-vine to be announced as available on Lochac List.
1. E-Vine will be announced on the new Announce list

SCA-WA List

Nathan

Lachlahn reported that following discussion with the shire, an SCA-WA list is to be established so we can all have input into what's happening in the SCA on this coast. An administrative list for announcements is also to be established for those people who do not want to get the volume of E-mail traffic the discussion lists generate. All groups officers will be able to post to Announce. Replies will go to the sender and not the list.
Both lists are to be hosted by Nathan.
Nathan to send Kane the details of how to subscribe
Kane to write an E-Mail informing every one of the new lists.

Officer Succession

On Going

Kane

All officers should be seeking out people to take over their office, officers are encouraged to ask people they think suitable directly rather than advertising generally. Information on succession management of volunteers for groups can be found at the Australian Sports Commission Clubs site.

<http://www.ausport.gov.au/clubs/volunteer club mngmt.asp>

Event Reporting Format

(Completed)

Kane

Kane requested that in future the event steward was to be treated as a deputy Seneschal in charge of the event.

1. All officers are to arrange to achieve the office at the event or have informed the steward who they have appointed as the deputy for that event.
1. Officers event reports are to be sent to the event steward for inclusion in the event report as an appendix.
1. A copy of the event report form is to be kept on file with the office.
1. Officers are to include a précis of the event report in the end of reign report.

Event stewards are to

1. liase with the reeve regarding financial reporting and
1. liase with the Seneschal regarding the format of the report.
1. Contact the Constable as soon as possible to organise a pre-event Constables site inspection.

Not one week ago did I set out to ride to the lands of Lief Thrainson to protect them from the Marauders that occupy the Southern Hills and make their dishonest living, robbing the gentle folk of our Shire. No sooner did I enter the dark woods than one of.....Um At least 3 dozen of them set upon me and despite my most vigorous efforts to defend myself did steal my Armor from me..... Again.... I implore that all those that be good and noble assist the gentle folk of the Shire of Bosenberg to deliver a blow to these brigands that they will not soon forget..... And get my Armor Back.
