From the Baron & Baroness

"Unto the Populace of the Barony of Aneala, a missive from Their Excellencies, Lachlahn and Jane, Baron and Baroness of the same.

We begin by welcoming our new Champions - Baron Nathan Blacktower, Champion of the Sword; milord Edmund Kerr, Champion of the Bow, and milord Edwin Wordsworthy, Champion of the Rapier. We are well pleased to have them in our court and we wish them every success in their endeavours over the coming year.

It has lately been our pleasure to attend the Challenge of the College of St Basil the Great, and such fine display of valour and courtesy as we did see that day upon the field impressed us greatly. In the Rapier challenge, the fencers from the Barony were well matched - indeed, we may even say surpassed! - by those of the college, and in the Armoured combat challenge, Lionel Blackhurst and Edmund, Lion of Stirling, both newly authorised, and ably supported by Baron Nathan, held the field most courageously against the onslaught from the Baronial fighters. We congratulate the College on a successful and most enjoyable event.

Bal d'Aneala followed closely upon the College Challenge, and it was again a truly splendid event. Lively music, graceful dance and gorgeous garb were very much the order of the evening, and delightful refreshments were provided by several talented cooks. We welcome back Senora Catalina, who once again takes up the mantle of Bard of Aneala after an extraordinarily close competition. Our thanks and our congratulations to Baroness Catherine once more for a most magical evening.

Now as the year draws to a close, we look forward to sharing the festive spirit at the Toys for Tots tournament, and to joining our neighbours in Dragon's Bay to make merry at their upcoming Yule feast.

Yours in Service...
Lachlahn & Jane
Baron Baroness

From the Chronicler

Greetings and welcome to the November issue of The Vine.

As I worked on this issue I reflected on how much The Vine benefits from the photographers at events. As well as making my job a lot easier, it enables us to share the event in some small way with others that were not able to attend. So I must extend my thanks to all of the people who capture the events on film and allow me to share them in the Vine. You have my warmest appreciation

Regards
Rosalind

The College of St Basil the Great

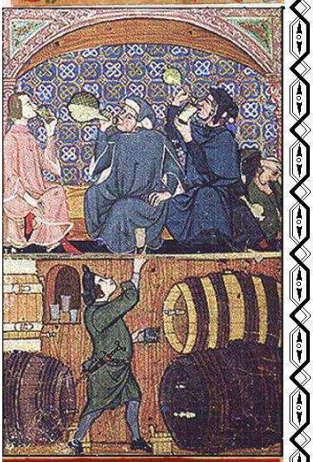
presents

A TAVERN NIGHT OF POISONING, PILFERING AND PARTYING!

As the end of the year draws nigh, the studies and examinations of our hardworking college students also come to an end.

What better excuse for a party?

Everyone is invited to what promises to be a fun and frolicsome night, where college students and the populace alike can dance, eat, drink and be merry.



Activities throughout the night will include poisoning, pilfering, bawdy ballads, saucy wench competitions and dance-offs, not to mention tournaments of tavern games.

All rogues, rapscallions, wenches and wanderers are more than welcome in our hall. Bring drums and musical instruments—let us make a merry din!

Please advise of any dietary requirements when booking.

Historic Armouries

Purveyors of munitions-grade armour and re-enactor supplies, Historic Armouries invite you to look through their web site:

http://www.historicarmouries.com.au/

New stock added regularly. "If you don't see what you're looking for, ask, and we'll endeavour to get it for you."

Wanted

Any Old Armour … (New is also acceptable)
Do you have any unused armour lying around? Know someone who has armour gathering dust? Or some leather or basket hilts you no longer need?
I'm looking for armour and other fighting equipment no longer being used to put together a few loaner suits so we can help our new and future fighters get into the action sooner, to enjoy the thrill of combat, the clash of arms, the braining of our mates and the exhilaration of inflicting pain upon others before they do it to us.
If you have anything lying around or can hassle someone into donating a piece or two, I'll be at Baronial training each Sunday (if maybe a little late) or I can be contacted on:
0405 570 885 or centurion@iinet.net.au
and we can arrange something
Thank you greatly for any assistance

Bard Aneala

On the 25th day of he Month of October the many from the populace did gather in their finest attire to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of her Excellency Baroness Jane. Lady Rosamond de Montfort was the winner of the best ladies garb in the Anealan colours of blue, white and gold in an absolutely stunning gown in the Elizabethan style and milord Hadrian was the winner of the lords competition in an outfit made by Lady Ydeneye. The populace was tempted by a selection of foods that were as apetising to the eyes as to the palate. Milord Bechtold was the winner of the cooks guild competition for the second year in a row.

The musicians performed and the dancers danced and the crowd was entertained by a entrants into the competition to find the next Bard of Aneala and ? And his rat. The Bardic competition was to a very high standard, and Senora Catalina was eventually declared the winner in a very close run race.

College Challenge

The annual Challenge held by the College of Saint Basil (University of WA) - held this year on the Oak Lawn on Sunday, October 12th. There was a wonderful turnout with around 5 College Fencers and 5 Anealan Fencers. In armoured combat there were 2 College combatants and 8 Anealan combatants. By all accounts, a great day was had by all.. Photo's on this page courtesy of Sir Andre de Monstegur

Positions Vacant

An Opportunity!

Are you looking for something more in the SCA? Are you interested in being a marshal? The Marshal Officer:is in charge of armoured or "heavy weapons" fighter training, safety on the combat field, and enforcing the armour rules and regulations.

If you are interested in this role you will be expected to:

- Be a member
- Report to the Lochac Marshal or Herald respectively, the Anealan Seneschal and the Baron and Baroness every three months. This is quite simple and pro-forma reports are available.
- Attend events and undertake the role of Marshal or Herald.
- Attend council regularly so you know what is going on and what events you might need to attend..

If you think you might have an interest in either of these offices please speak to the Seneschal, the Baron and Baroness or Nathan Blacktower (marshal).
