Book Review

Arnold, Janet et al (2008) Patterns of Fashion 4, The cut and construction of linen shirts, smocks, neckwear, headwear and accessories for men and women. C. 1540—1660. MacMillan. ISBN: 978-0-333-57082-1

As with previous volumes in this series, there are numerous photos of extant clothing and graphed patterns. Unlike earlier works, this book has numerous colour illustrations. There are also numerous close up images of seam treatments and embroideries. This book is a must for anyone interested in 16thC costuming. Copies are available from Amazon or Boffins Bookshop in Hay Street.

Pattern Review

Butterick Pattern B5233.

If, like me, you have not yet tried making a pair of shoes because you have no idea where to start, you may be interested in the Butterick shoe pattern, particularly the shoes in the centre. This shoe is constructed from three pattern pieces and looks relatively simple to make. I will test drive the pattern and make a pair of shoes for the midsummer feast. Fingers crossed.

March 7-8

Royal Visit (Kingdom Event)

Details to follow.

28 March

The WA Medieval Alliance, the gateway to medieval groups and likeminded folk in Western Australia, proudly presents the 4th Annual Medieval Fayre.

The Fayre is held suitably close to All Fools Day, a folk celebration that began to appear in Europe in the late Middle Ages. A plethora of Perth's medieval clubs will be on display showing off their various talents including historical European swordsmanship, dark ages combat, renaissance fencing and swashbuckling.

The fayre is rich with traditions, full of exciting and thrilling misadventures, storytellers and tales, all set in a time where chivalry, grace and courtesy were a part of everyday life.

Wondrous and diverse entertainment, fun, frolic and folly will be the order of the day. Join with the nobles, serfs, Vikings, Saxons, Celts, Knights and Ladies that will grace our lively city. A grand parade will travel through the fayre grounds, delighting all with dancers, merchants, minstrels and everything medieval.

Place: Supreme Court Gardens, Perth

Time: 10am - 5pm

Entry: Adults $5, Concession $3, Children under 13 enter for free

mutterings

Greetings and welcome to the January edition of The Vine. I hope you all had a safe and happy festive season and are well rested for what would appear to be a very busy year.

The annual Anealan Midsummer Feast is shaping up to be a great night and is only a couple of weeks away, so make sure you contact Mistress Catherine to book before 11 Jan. If you are interested in displaying your fantastic medieval clothing to a wider audience, Columb Mac Diarmata is organising a medieval fashion parade for the Wai-Con on Sunday 1 Feb—please contact him if you are interested in participating. Virtue and Vice will battle it out on the rapier field in February and March looks like hosting a Royal Visit! So polish up your armour, sew some more garb (you can never have enough) and get ready for another year of great events, good food and great company.

Sunday training will also continue, and for those that can only make the occasional training session, different activities will be the focus of the day—first Sunday—archery, second Sunday—Artes of Defence, third Sunday—Armoured Combat. I heard a rumour that the fourth and fifth Sundays would be dedicated to the arts of brewing and taste testing, but this has not been confirmed.

If you are missing some of your feast gear or other items, they may have been left behind at an earlier event. Abertridwr's Constable, Lady Alienor has several items of lost property which may be viewed at :

<http://www.flickr.com/photos/30084707@N06/sets/72157607033386802/>

If you have heard rumours of another canton forming, you have heard correctly. There is discussion about establishing a canton in the North and opinions are being sought on names etc. Further information can be found at :

<https://sites.google.com/site/proposedcanton/home/heraldry>

I have added a book and a pattern review to page 9. Please let me know if you find them useful and if so I will endeavour to add more weblinks and reviews.

From A&S Officer Branwen of Werchesvorde

New number 93940683

Greetings one and all, hope you are recovering quickly from the festive season and raring to go for another fun filled SCA year. A few things I wish to share.

Upcoming Workshops.

4th January at Kerridwen and Donnchadh's. General A&S projects.

30th January at Catherine and Nathan's for personal projects, making banner stakes, and guidons from 10am.

I need places for workshops. Want to host? Give me a call. I'm happy to have them at our place.

I need to know if you want to do personal projects or work on Anealean ones. The Anealean projects are: Painting list shields, Gathering camp screen size 1.5 X 1.5 m, large hall banner the size of the Kingdom one that Mistress Evelyn so kindly made, personal banner silk painting workshop. These things can be done at regular workshops but I need to know you want to do them in order to bring and/or arrange supplies.

The Leaf is the A&S magazine for Aneala. I am intending to publish an edition each quarter and this one is due by the end of the month. I have already received articles but would like more. So if you have promised to do one can I have it now? If you would like to do one and need guidance please ask me. I won't bite. I'm hoping to have it published and on sale (submitter's get their copy free) by mid February and even try to get a few copies to Rowany and the Southern gathering. Articles can be short or long, preferably in word and can be hard or soft copy.

Embroiderer's Guild in the West. Lady Rosamond has been kind enough to act as our Co-coordinator for the Embroiderers Guild. If you love doing embroidery and would like to share your time and experience please come join us. Meetings time and place at this time are to be discussed with interested parties.

Competitions

Well there are plenty around.

Midsummer on the 17th the competition's are Open (you can submit anything), Best Plague Cure (please no practical demonstrations) and Best Heraldic Garb.

The Baron has challenged the members of the Order of the Golden Swan to put in entries to show what the members are capable and renowned for as well as being inspirational to others.

The Kingdom Competitions are elsewhere in the Vine but don't be shy, enter these Comps too! Probably too late for 12th Night as that is 9-11 Jan at Ynys Fawr (Tassy)

Next in May Crown, Lots of hats, Medical treatments (if you do the Plague cures you can enter that in) Patents of Nobility paper and book research, and for Cooks a soup.

Aneala A&S Champion.

I feel we have champions for all the other areas in the Barony and yet we do not have an A&S Champion. I have been told that there have been Champions in the past but was allowed to slide because of the lack of interest.

So one we need to revive it. Why? Because we have the best artisans in Lochac! You just don't recognize it. And if we don't, know one else will. The reigning Lochac A&S Champion is our very own Seneschal Catherine d' Arc! Woo Hoo!

So how am I going to run it? Every event the Barony runs it also runs an A&S Competition. If you enter any of those competitions your score will be accumulated. The highest score will become the Champion. Competition rules run according to the Kingdom rules. When will it start and end? It starts with Midsummer and ends at Aneala's Champions weekend in Nov, so you have approx 9 months. Competitions may be run at any event sponsored by any Anealean group. The Southern Gathering will have competitions too; any Anealean entrant to those Competitions can have those considered too. Hmmm incentive. Maybe we need to include an incentive. Apart from getting a tassel, a scroll and your name in bright text how about a book voucher to the value of $100 at a bookstore of your choice? The only responsibility involved is to run one A&S Competition at any event in the following year.

How's that sound? Ok get cracking.

*Yours in Service
Mistress Branwen*

On this Day: 10 January 1429:

Philip the Good, Duke of Burgundy, founded the order of the Golden Fleece (Ordre de la Toison d'Or) to celebrate his marriage to Isabella, daughter of King John I of Portugal. The fleece holds double significance as an object of knightly quest and a symbol of one of Philip's sources of wealth, wool.

The Barony of Aneala's Midsummer High Feast

The annual celebration of Midsummer will be held at the North Perth Greater Hall on the 17th day of January. The first remove will be served at the bell for Vespers with the hall and garden to open an hour before.

The Head Cook is Mistress Rhianwen ni Dhiarmada, and she will be using recipes created by the cooks of King Richard III for the royal table.

There will be great rewards for the person who can bring the best cure or prevention for the black death, for the creator of the best heraldic apparel, and there shall be an open competition for general arts and sciences.

See the Upcoming Events pages for further details.

Virtue and Vice Valentine's Rapier Tourney

Shall Virtue or Vice reign supreme in Aneala?

Find out when our noble fencers take the field in the guise of Deadly Sins and Cardinal Virtues!

The victory shall be decided by honourable combat in three styles – Melee, Single Combat and King-of-the-Hill.

Come one, come all to see the exciting outcome of the day!

Site: Juniper Park bushland, Sycamore Drive, Duncaig

Site opens: 9:00am for setup

Opening Court: 9:45am

Armour inspection: 10:15am

Tourney begins: 10:30am

Bring a pot-luck lunch, plenty of water and sun defence

Historic Armouries

Purveyors of munitions-grade armour and re-enactor supplies, Historic Armouries invite you to look through their web site:

<http://www.historicarmouries.com.au/>

New stock added regularly. "If you don't see what you're looking for, ask, and we'll endeavour to get it for you."

Wanted

Any Old Armour ... (New is also acceptable)
Do you have any unused armour lying around?

Know someone who has armour gathering dust? Or some leather or basket hilts you no longer need?

I'm looking for armour and other fighting equipment no longer being used to put together a few loaner suits so we can help our new and future fighters get into the action sooner, to enjoy the thrill of combat, the clash of arms, the braining of our mates and the exhilaration of inflicting pain upon others before they do it to us.

If you have anything lying around or can hassle someone into donating a piece or two, I'll be at Baronial training each Sunday (if maybe a little late) or I can be contacted on:

0405 570 885 or centurion@iinet.net.au

and we can arrange something

Thank you greatly for any assistance

Positions Vacant

An Opportunity!

Are you looking for something more in the SCA? Are you interested in being a marshal? The Marshal Officer is in the officer in charge of armoured or "heavy weapons" fighter training, safety on the combat field, and enforcing the armour rules and regulations.

If you are interested in this role you will be expected to:

- Be a member
- Report to the Lochac Marshal, the Angalan Seneschal and the Baron and Baroness every three months. This is quite simple and pro-forma reports are available.
- Attend events and undertake the role of Marshal.
- Attend council regularly so you know what is going on and what events you might need to attend..

If you think you might have an interest in the office of Group Marshal please speak to the Seneschal, the Baron and Baroness or Nathan Blacktower (marshal).
