A missive from the Chronicler

Greetings good people and friends of Aneala.

The sands of time continue to flow and it approaches two years since I first began the role of Chronicler, and it is now time to seek a successor. It is well known that there are many within our fair Barony that are fluent and well versed in the written arts and the Vine is your opportunity to share your skills with the populace....

The Chronicler prepares the monthly newsletter for the Barony and distributes it far and wide. Event stewards will send you information to include in the events section and officers will forward information for inclusion. It is a fun role where you can display your creativity. All you need is access to a computer with Microsoft Publisher and email.

Please forward expressions of interest by Wednesday 31 March 2010 or contact me off list for more information.

Yours in Service

Lady Rosalind

Chronicler of Aneala

Target Archery News

The 2010 Inter-Kingdom Archery Competition is now under way. The first shoot in our region was hosted by Abertridwr last Sunday, 28th February. Despite the very hot conditions, we had 8 archers on the line including Their Excellencies Baron Kilic and Baroness Branwen, also a newcomer, Nigel. The top three scorers were:

Richard of Aachenfeld with 110 points.

Heath MacKay with 88 points

Alianore de Essewell with 64 points

I would like to thank all the archers who participated - your results have been uploaded to the Aneala archery results page. Special thanks to Baroness Branwen for her assistance with list keeping. I look forward to seeing you all again at the next IKAC shoot which will take place on Sunday 21st March at Aachenfeld training, Lake Monger.

March Riddle:

*Oft I must strive with wind and wave, Battle them both when under the sea
I feel out the bottom, a foreign land. In lying still I am strong in the strife;
If I fail in that they are stronger than I, And wrenching me loose, soon put me to rout.
They wish to capture what I must keep. I can master them both if my grip holds out,
If the rocks bring succor and lend support, Strength in the struggle. Ask me my name!*

There will be a Victory Ball in celebration of the heirs in the evening. On the day following the grand Tournament there will be displays of skill from heavy combatants, Rapier fighters as well as Target Archers. Throughout the weekend there will be Arts and Sciences displays and competitions. Come one and all and gather in Aneala on such verdent lands that do border upon the crashing waves of the Western Ocean.

PENCAMPWR VI

Hear ye, Hear ye, Hear ye

We of the Canton of Abertridwr send a call to our cousins in the Barony of Aneala to join us in our much adored Pencampwr Tourney weekend.

Distance and isolation have not dampened our spirits nor lessened the splendour of this event.

This weekend has, A War Melee, the Penhiliwr Hunt, the Pencampwr Tourney, the games of skill and luck at the Tavern (not to mention the bawdy wenches!!), Merchant's Row, Gorsedd, the talent of the Arobryn, the Mini-Quest for the young ones, and of course a Victory Feast. This event has something for everyone.

Join us for Abertridwr's premier event.

Pencampwr is by far the biggest and best weekend on the western shores of Lochac and endeavors to be bigger yet again this year so don't miss out,....

Pencampwr Arobryn Theme—Pageantry

The reason for choosing this theme is that we as a group have discussed on a regular basis at various meetings that we want to enhance the look and feel of Pencampwr and Abertridwr as a whole. So to this end I thought a set of competitions based around this enhancement would help promote and encourage that desire. Note: the categories I've chosen are not intended to be limited or limiting, each one allows for different techniques, materials and ideas.

Besides the categories, I've also included the rules of the Arobryn to give everyone a heads up as to what is expected in the competition. Note the entries listed with the letters a, b and c are examples only. So if you think something else will fit in that category then by all means do it.

Category:

1. List Field banner - This can be either your own personal banner, that of your consort or for someone you admire.

2. Hall or Pavilion decoration

a. Hanging - e.g. made from fabric or decorated wood

b. Chair cover

c. Heraldic Table Runner

3. Subtlety - must be Heraldic and must be able to be placed at one end of the hall and seen from the other

4. Royalty at Pencampwr

a. A Book or Book cover for the Royal Herald

b. A woodwork piece - e.g. decorated bowl, small table

c. Carpet/floor covering - e.g. Printed or painted

5. Helmet crest - for use at demos, either worn by a fighter as part of a parade or as a display piece on a spare helm.

6. Shield or Tabard - The shield should show period decorative techniques (it won't be used for fighting). The tabard can be heraldic or non-heraldic.

7. Open - This can be anything a person deems would enhance the pageantry of an event or demo.

Please see the Abertridwr website for the rules for the Arobryn competition

Kingdom A&S Competitions

May Crown 2010* (Barony of Rowany): Item of clothing or armour re-created from a portrait/illumination/woodcut, A blacksmithed item, Performance of a song in rounds

March Riddle #2

*A moth ate a word. To me it seemed, A marvelous thing when I learned the wonder
That a worm had swallowed, in darkness stolen, The song of man, his glorious sayings,
A great man's strength; and the thieving guest, Was no whit the wiser for the words it ate.*

Historic Armouries

Purveyors of munitions-grade armour and re-enactor supplies, Historic Armouries invite you to look through their web site:

<http://www.historicarmouries.com.au/>

New stock added regularly. "If you don't see what you're looking for, ask, and we'll endeavour to get it for you."

Wanted

Any Old Armour ... (New is also acceptable)
Do you have any unused armour lying around?

Know someone who has armour gathering dust? Or some leather or basket hilts you no longer need?

I'm looking for armour and other fighting equipment no longer being used to put together a few loaner suits so we can help our new and future fighters get into the action sooner, to enjoy the thrill of combat, the clash of arms, the braining of our mates and the exhilaration of inflicting pain upon others before they do it to us.

If you have anything lying around or can hassle someone into donating a piece or two, I'll be at Baronial training each Sunday (if maybe a little late) or I can be contacted on:

0405 570 885 or centurion@iinet.net.au

and we can arrange something

Thank you greatly for any assistance
