This Month in History

July 17, 1429. King Charles VII crowned King of France.With considerable help from Joan of Arc, the Dauphin gained popular and noble support as the next king at a time when the Hundred Years' War had thoroughly disrupted France. After Joan's victory at Orléans, Charles made his way to Reims, where tradition had it that kings had to be crowned for their kingship to be true http:// historymedren.about.com/library/date/bl0717.htm

mutterings

Another busy month has passed by and it is again time to send out The Vine. July promises to be an exciting month with the couple who are to be our next Baron and Baroness announced on Saturday, Archenfeld's first event on July 12, the Feast of Excess on 25th and a Lightning Carnival on the 26th. So I am off to sew some new garb.

Until next month…..

Lady Rosalind le Clochard, Chronicler of Aneala

Historic Armouries

Purveyors of munitions-grade armour and re-enactor supplies, Historic Armouries invite you to look through their web site:

http://www.historicarmouries.com.au/

New stock added regularly. "If you don't see what you're looking for, ask, and we'll endeavour to get it for you."

Wanted

Any Old Armour … (New is also acceptable)
Do you have any unused armour lying around? Know someone who has armour gathering dust? Or some leather or basket hilts you no longer need?
I'm looking for armour and other fighting equipment no longer being used to put together a few loaner suits so we can help our new and future fighters get into the action sooner, to enjoy the thrill of combat, the clash of arms, the braining of our mates and the exhilaration of inflicting pain upon others before they do it to us.
If you have anything lying around or can hassle someone into donating a piece or two, I'll be at Baronial training each Sunday (if maybe a little late) or I can be contacted on:
0405 570 885 or centurion@iinet.net.au
and we can arrange something
Thank you greatly for any assistance
