Each year the populace of the Barony of Aneala shine their armour, polish their blades and check their fletching in anticipation of the Baronial Championship weekend. The Anealan Champions of the Sword, the Rapier and the Bow stand as shining examples to all, defending the Barony against all comers, preserving the persons of our noble Baron and Baroness, writing wrongs and leading the way as shining paragons of virtue. Do you dare to stride forth, and prove yourself worthy of being counted among their number? Does your heart leap at the prospect of witnessing the finest fighters and archers of Aneala displaying their prowess? You shall have your chance. Baronial Championship weekend approaches, to fall between the 25th and 28th of September! Any who wish to contest for Champion of the Sword, Rapier or Bow should approach Their Excellencies.

Bookings are required to the steward by the 10 September 2009. Contact details - columb.mac.diarmata@gmail.com, 9355 1208, 0416 717 202. Breakfasts Saturday, Sunday and Monday are provided. Dinner Saturday and Sunday are provided. Day rates do not include breakfast. Website: <https://sites.google.com/site/anealachampionship09/>

mutterings

Greeting good gentles

The year is passing rapidly and the time of the Baronial Devest and Invest is rapidly approaching. Truly this will be a splendid event (or series of events) and we will be honoured by the presence of our King and Queen, Gabriel and Constanzia. This is an opportunity to shine and demonstrate the wealth of skills amongst the populace and share the hospitality for which our fair Barony is renowned.

The Anealan Championship is also fast approaching. If you are skilled at the Rapier, Bow or Sword, you might like to talk to the current champions (Edwin Wordsworthy, Edmund Kerr and Nathan Blacktower respectively) about their roles and responsibilities.

My congratulations to everyone involved in organising the recent Midwinter Feast. It was a magnificent occasion and the array of clothing was truly amazing. Good food, good company and dancing are always enjoyed. If you would like the opportunity to practice dancing in preparation for the Devest/ Invest, Mistress Catherine is running some lessons on Saturday 15th August at Wandii.

*Yours in Service
Lady Rosalind le Clochard, Chronicler of Aneala*

Quiz:

Answer to last months Quiz: Who or what is a Lungis? Lungis (n.) - A heavy awkward fellow. (Pronunciation: /ˈlʌŋɡɪs/). Congratulations to Benadic who was last months winner.

August Quiz: Who or what is a Loteby?

Resources: Medieval Forum

<http://www.sfsu.edu/~medieval/index.html>

A website by the English Department at the San Francisco State University. A range of articles discuss medieval literature. For example:

"The Pale and Perfect Measured Parade": John Steinbeck's First Draft of The Acts of King Arthur and His Noble Knights Nancy Stork

John Steinbeck abandoned his first draft of his Acts of King Arthur for a variety of reasons, and it was never incorporated into the version published after his death. The manuscript of this first version was recently donated to the Martha Heasley Cox Center for Steinbeck Studies at San Jose State University and is examined here for the first time and compared to both Malory's and the published version. The first draft is a stylistically faithful rendition of Malory's original and is closer to Steinbeck's initial concept of the work as a "translation" that would remain close to Malory in spirit and style.

Historic Armouries

Purveyors of munitions-grade armour and re-enactor supplies, Historic Armouries invite you to look through their web site:

<http://www.historicarmouries.com.au/>

New stock added regularly. "If you don't see what you're looking for, ask, and we'll endeavour to get it for you."

Wanted

Any Old Armour ... (New is also acceptable)
Do you have any unused armour lying around?

Know someone who has armour gathering dust? Or some leather or basket hilts you no longer need?

I'm looking for armour and other fighting equipment no longer being used to put together a few loaner suits so we can help our new and future fighters get into the action sooner, to enjoy the thrill of combat, the clash of arms, the braining of our mates and the exhilaration of inflicting pain upon others before they do it to us.

If you have anything lying around or can hassle someone into donating a piece or two, I'll be at Baronial training each Sunday (if maybe a little late) or I can be contacted on:

0405 570 885 or centurion@iinet.net.au

and we can arrange something

Thank you greatly for any assistance
