Positions Vacant

Greetings fair populace of Aneala! I trust you all had a merry festive season and are looking forward to the new year.

With midsummer approaching I am declaring my intention to step down from the office of Reeve at this event. I am therefore opening nominations for the position of Reeve of Aneala. In order to hand on the office at Midsummer, I will close nominations on the 8th of January.

What's involved in being Reeve? Thankfully not very much during SCA event time. Outside of SCA time there is some minor book keeping and the following up of autocrat's for their financial reports. All reporting is now done through a simple EXCEL template so reports take very little time to generate. You are also expected to attend council monthly and advise on financial decisions made by the barony.

Previous treasurer/Reeve experience is not necessary although obviously a bonus. I will be more than happy to act as deputy reeve for as long as you need me after you step up.

If you are interested in the position please let me know as soon as possible via email. In your email please include:

- A statement indicating your interest in the position
- A statement of your experience in the SCA
- A statement of any relevant mundane experience.

Please also feel free to contact me to chat further about what is involved. The office of Reeve is not difficult and you get to wear, in my opinion, the snazziest of the officers medallions! Also you will be privy to the inner financial workings of the barony and it's a relatively non-threatening way to get involved in the operations of the barony and learn more about what makes the SCA tick.

Herr Bechtold Voleric,

Reeve Aneala

A Missive from The Acting Crux

This being the final IKAC of the season, the overall winners for the year were announced. They were:
Open division - Richard of Aachenfeld - his top score of 174 points was shot during the visit of Their Majesties Gabriel and Constanzia.
Youth Division - Wesley of Aachenfeld, his top score of 164 shot at this event. Richard and Wesley were presented with prizes of Robin Hood hats made by Lady Alianore de Essewell.

I would like to thank and congratulate all those archers who have participated in the 2009 IKAC Season and particularly Lady Alianore for organizing the monthly shoots. I look forward to seeing you all again next year.

Update to Target Archery Rules

All those participating in target archery in any form are required to download and read the Target Archery Handbook*, the link to which can be found on the Lochac Archers website at http://www.sca.org.au/archers/ Please be aware that this handbook is currently undergoing a review process and, hence, you are encouraged to give feedback about any content you feel needs amending or updating. Please email me via archer@aneala.lochac.sca.org with your suggestions.*

QUIZ

Last months quiz was riddle:

My attire is noiseless when I tread the earth, Rest in its dwellings or ride its waters.
At times my pinions and the lofty air, Lift me high o'er the homes of men,
And the strength of the clouds carries me far High over the folk. My feathers gay
Sound and make music, singing shrill, When no longer I linger by field or flood,
But soar in the air, a wandering spirit.

What am I? Answer: A wild Swan.

Benadict, Ally, Lachlahn, & Ydeneye all answered correctly. This winner drawn out of a suitably medieval hat was Lachlahn. Congratulations. A prize will be heading your way.

Historic Armouries

Purveyors of munitions-grade armour and re-enactor supplies, Historic Armouries invite you to look through their web site:

http://www.historicarmouries.com.au/

New stock added regularly. "If you don't see what you're looking for, ask, and we'll endeavour to get it for you."

Wanted

Any Old Armour … (New is also acceptable)
Do you have any unused armour lying around? Know someone who has armour gathering dust? Or some leather or basket hilts you no longer need?
I'm looking for armour and other fighting equipment no longer being used to put together a few loaner suits so we can help our new and future fighters get into the action sooner, to enjoy the thrill of combat, the clash of arms, the braining of our mates and the exhilaration of inflicting pain upon others before they do it to us.
If you have anything lying around or can hassle someone into donating a piece or two, I'll be at Baronial training each Sunday (if maybe a little late) or I can be contacted on:
0405 570 885 or centurion@iinet.net.au
and we can arrange something
Thank you greatly for any assistance
