Baron Rothri de Ross of the Barony of the Far West presenting gifts of friendship to Baron Kilic and Baroness
Branwen at Pencampwr

A missive from the Chronicler
Greetings good people and friends of Aneala.

My time as Chronicler has come to an end and I now hand this task over to mLady Marguarita, who I am confident will do an excellent job and bring a fresh touch to The Vine.

I would like to take a moment to thank everyone that has read The Vine, provided stories, pictures and participated in the quizzes. It has been my pleasure to be able to contribute to the Barony in some small way and I am sure that other projects will soon come along.....such as recording some of the history of the SCA in Western Australia (if you have stories or tales please forward them to me at rosalinddeperegrine@yahoo.com.au).

I thank you for you support and patience.

*Yours in Service
Lady Rosalind*

A Missive from the Constable

Greetings to the lords and ladies of our fair Barony of Aneala from your Constable, Columb mac Diarmata.

I have been serving as Aneala's Constable for some 22 months, and then end of my two-year tenure draws near. I am thus advertising for applicants for the position of Constable of Aneala

The successful applicant will work closely with me for the next few months until the position is handed over some-time in September or October.

Any gentle interested in the position is welcome to apply. Previous experience serving as an SCA constable will serve you well, but is not required - we have months for the new Constable to learn the office.

The Baronial Constable is responsible for organising and reporting on all constabing activities in the Barony, including both Cantons and both Colleges. This primarily involves ensuring that someone is serving as a Constable In Charge at every event and official training. The Baronial Constable is also responsible for the storage and reporting of all indemnities collected in the Barony, and all lost property.

Currently, the Shire of Dragon's Bay is still in an "incipient" status, so the Constable of Dragon's Bay is considered a "deputy" of, and reports to, the Baronial Constable. Lord Robert is very diligent in his duties, so this places almost no burden on the office.

If you are interested in this position, please contact me at: constable@aneala.lochac.sca.org .

Applicants are invited to have a browse through the lochac constable's website and read the handbook: <http://lochac.sca.org/constable/>

Regards,

Columb

In the land of the setting sun will rise banners most colourful and pavilions most splendid in anticipation of seeking of the Heirs of Lochac. All who would witness are called to gather from November 5th , 2010 so that we may all prepare for the Tournament that will decide the next King and Queen of Lochac. There will be a Victory Ball in celebration of the heirs in the evening. On the day following the grand Tournament there will be displays of skill from heavy combatants, Rapier fighters as well as Target Archers. Throughout the weekend there will be Arts and Sciences displays and competitions. Come one and all and gather in Aneala on such verdent lands that do border upon the crashing waves of the Western Ocean.

Kingdom A&S Competitions

Midwinter 2010* (Barony of Ildhafn): A carved item (email entries are encouraged if there is an issue with quarantine), Dance - (reconstruction details tbc), gardening - a treatise on the properties of a perfumed plant (in the style of Culpepper)

November Crown 2010: Lace making, Glass - an item of glassware or stained glass, Aprons for working people (ie, craftspeople, smiths, cooks)

12th Night 2011: Illumination - a bestiary, Textiles - a hand-woven item (excluding narrow wares) Preserves - dried or sugared fruit

May Crown 2011: A cloak (any time period or style), Tudor or Elizabethan jewellery, An item used on a hunt

Midwinter 2011: Linens (table cloths or hand towels), A Seal of your Barony, Shire, Canton or College, Jousting equipment

I would humbly ask that you seek to promote the competitions in your group, by making people aware of them, possibly having a workshop day in relation to an item, helping to point people in the right direction for research, etc. As a reminder, email submissions are fine (ie, if the item is too bulky to transport, or there are quarantine issues). If it is a research paper, it should be sent to the KMOAS two weeks in advance. Dates are to be finalised and they will be advertised in upcoming Pegasus.

I thank you for your support with the Kingdom Competitions!

March Riddle #2

*A moth ate a word. To me it seemed, A marvelous thing when I learned the wonder
That a worm had swallowed, in darkness stolen, The song of man, his glorious sayings,
A great man's strength; and the thieving guest, Was no whit the wiser for the words it ate.*

Historic Armouries

Purveyors of munitions-grade armour and re-enactor supplies, Historic Armouries invite you to look through their web site:

<http://www.historicarmouries.com.au/>

New stock added regularly. "If you don't see what you're looking for, ask, and we'll endeavour to get it for you."

Wanted

Any Old Armour ... (New is also acceptable)
Do you have any unused armour lying around?

Know someone who has armour gathering dust? Or some leather or basket hilts you no longer need?

I'm looking for armour and other fighting equipment no longer being used to put together a few loaner suits so we can help our new and future fighters get into the action sooner, to enjoy the thrill of combat, the clash of arms, the braining of our mates and the exhilaration of inflicting pain upon others before they do it to us.

If you have anything lying around or can hassle someone into donating a piece or two, I'll be at Baronial training each Sunday (if maybe a little late) or I can be contacted on:

0405 570 885 or centurion@iinet.net.au

and we can arrange something

Thank you greatly for any assistance
