July AS XLV

The Newsletter of the Barony of Aneala
Volume 17, Issue 3

Greetings from your Chronicler...

As I worked on The Vine this past month my admiration for Lady Rosalind grew immensely. It is a daunting task to organise the majority of a newsletter entirely from ones own creativity. As Lady Rosalind was Chronicler for nearly two years she has nothing but my deepest respect.

As this is the Barony's newsletter I ask of the populace—what would you like to see here? Any articles, pictures or suggestions can be submitted to chronicler@aneala.sca.org.au

If you currently have an advertisement or would like to have one in the merchants section please submit (or resubmit) your advertisement.

*Many Thanks,
Margarita Rossetti*

A Missive from your Arts and Sciences Officer

Greetings unto the populace of fair Aneala, from Baroness Jane Grenville.

Please be advised that I am now seeking an enthusiastic gentle to take over the position of Baronial Arts and Sciences officer.

Your duties, should you wish to take up this office, will include promoting the practice of the arts and sciences in the Barony by various means - such as workshops, group projects, and bringing arts and sciences works, both individual and collective, to the notice of the populace at large - to organise and run Arts and Sciences competitions and collegia at events, and to report both to the Baronial council and to the Kingdom Arts and Sciences officer at the appointed times throughout the year.

Should you wish to find out more about the office or make known your interest, please contact either myself or Their Excellencies, Branwen and Kilic.

All who would witness are called to gather from November 5th, 2010 so that we may all prepare for the Tournament that will decide the next King and Queen of Lochac. There will be a Victory Ball in celebration of the heirs in the evening. On the day following the grand Tournament there will be displays of skill from the heavy combatants, Rapier fighters as well as the Target archers. Throughout the weekend there will be Arts and Sciences displays and competitions. Come one and all and gather in Aneala on such verdant lands that do border upon the crashing waves of the Western Ocean.

Historic Armouries

Purveyors of munitions-grade armour and re-enactor supplies, Historic Armouries invite you to look through their web site:

<http://www.historicarmouries.com.au/>

New stock added regularly. "If you don't see what you're looking for, ask, and we'll endeavour to get it for you."

Wanted

Any Old Armour ... (New is also acceptable)
Do you have any unused armour lying around? Know someone who has armour gathering dust? Or some leather or basket hilts you no longer need?

I'm looking for armour and other fighting equipment no longer being used to put together a few loaner suits so we can help our new and future fighters get into the action sooner, to enjoy the thrill of combat, the clash of arms, the braining of our mates and the exhilaration of inflicting pain upon others before they do it to us.

If you have anything lying around or can hassle someone into donating a piece or two, I'll be at Baronial training each Sunday (if maybe a little late) or I can be contacted on:

0405 570 885 or centurion@iinet.net.au

and we can arrange something

Thank you greatly for any assistance
