A missive from their Excellencies

Unto the Populace of Aneala do we Baron Kilic and Baroness Branwen send greetings.

We have a couple of events coming up that sound like they are all going to be a lot of fun.

Dragon's Bay is holding an IKAC and tourney on Aug 1st go along and have some fun.

Aachenfeld is having a different sort of Archery event in the Tournament style this promises to be a great event.

Heraldry is the theme, so bring along your banners. There will also be a Pot Luck Cook's Guild competition; this will be an opportunity for any Questers or those running for AS&S Champion to get their entries in.

The big events coming up are the Championship weekend where those who wish to be Champions of the Armoured Fighters, Rapier Fighters, Archers and Arts and Sciences will compete with all their skills.

We were recently asked why one would be Champion? There are a lot of pluses.

Firstly it is a prestigious position, you get to stand Court and be in the know. The Champion positions offer you training in Court procedures and give you an insider understanding of how a Barony is run. You have the opportunity to serve the Barony and consequently the Baron and Baroness. The Champion's responsibilities are to protect the B&B, to represent the Barony in Tourneys and wars, especially if the Baron cannot take the field, stand as our Guard at Court, sometimes you maybe required to enforce the will of the B&B and/or the Crown and Serve the Crown when they come to the Barony. Help put up and take down the Baronial pavilion et al. Use and maintain the regalia of the Champion. The Champion also runs the next Championship Tourney to help pick a successor. The Armoured Champion also selects 3 members for the Baronial Guard by Mid Summer. The Champion can also Command the Baronial Guard and or Hearth Troop in war scenarios when the Baron cannot take the field. We know that the A&S Champion would be hard pressed to defend us with needle or a pie, but you never know, their main responsibility is to run a minimum of one class or competition but hopefully more in the year, promoting A&S in Aneala. Normally the martial Champions are made members of the Hearth Troop. If you are not sure if you want to enter ask us or better still ask the current Champions about their experiences. Please note, it is not mandatory that you attend every event.

This year the Baronial Bard Competition will be run at Champion's as we will not have time at November Crown which leads me to the next big event.

After a Pirates Day Tournament in Abertridwr (arrgh) we will be hosting the November Crown Tournament which is run to select the next Heirs of Lochac. This event will be big, so you will have to book soon. There will be the Crown Tournament, the King and Queen will come as well as visiting dignitaries from other Baronies of Lochac.

Missive continued on the next page...

There is a Kingdom A&S Competition where we get to show off our artisans, as well there will be a Laurel prize tourney where you can show your skills and get feedback from the Laurels of the Kingdom. Lots of fighting, archery and good Companionship. There will be a celebratory Ball in honour of the Heirs with lots of food and dancing in an Italian Atmosphere.

Keep an eye out for workshop announcements. We will have to get behind all these events and help out where we can or possibly you may need help? Either way there are dance and music nights, silk banner painting and check the Baronial gear days coming up.

Another thing we will all have to keep in mind is that Their Majesties would like to hear from you about the good works that the people around you have been doing and achieving. If you are not sure what to write, drop us a line and we can help you out. We too would like recommendations for our local recognitions.

Ladies- in Waiting. Our most gracious and most helpful ladies-in-waiting will also be stepping down at Championship, if you feel you would like to serve As a Lady-in-waiting please contact the Baroness or any of the Ladies-in-waiting who are , Mistress Rhiannwen, Mistress Ludwina, Duena Catalina and Lady Celestria.

Finally we would like to congratulate the following for the Admittance to the Anealean Orders.

At Pencampwr,

Sir Kane Greymane, Supporting Swan; Baron Lachlahn, Supporting Swan; Lady Isobel de Annesley, Demi Sun; Lady Alessandria de Florenza, Demi Sun; Lord Jonathon Makeblise, Demi Sun; Lady Rosalind le Clochard, Demi Sun; Lady Eloise Silver Cygnet; Adamo Valentino, Black Feather;

At Mid Winter Lord Pax il Demnio Award of Arms; Lord Edmund Kerr, Demi Sun; Lady Celestria Ashwood, Golden Swan; Elinor Clifford, Black Feather; Meyrick der Roth, Black Feather.

We also attended the Abertridwr 4 man Melee Tourney where we very impressed by the determination and bravery of our fighters who fought under/in very difficult weather. Winners of the various competitions on the day were ; To St Basil for their 'wailing', Abertridwr for their Heraldic Food and List shield; To Aachenfeld for heraldic supporters and a special mention for the outstanding chivalric demonstration by Dragon Bay's fighters. As we said, well done all.

Upcoming we also have a couple of Officer Positions coming up. A&S Officer, Chatelaine and yet to be advertised, Constable and Herald. If you think you would like a go at any of these Officer positions please contact us and/or the current Officers and indicate your interest.

Keep well all.

Yours in service

*Kilic and Branwen
Baron and Baroness of Aneala*

Greetings from your Chronicler...

Just a short message this week to thank those who've said kind words to me as I continue to learn this role. I would also like to request of the populace that any event advertisements be submitted in A5 size, preferably not as a pdf. If they could also be accompanied by the event information form that would be brilliant.

Many Thanks,

Talk Like a Pirate Day

A Quest for Buried Treasure!

Sunday, September 19th

It is said that there be a Treasure of Grand Proportions buried in Abertridwr!

In 1607 the Explorer Willem Janszoon left behind loot salvaged from the wreck of a Spanish Black Ship - for it were too big to fit in the hold of his ship, the Duyfken!

A scrap of Janszoon's map has been found and on it were clues to whereabouts of the rest of the pieces! Do you and your friends have the courage to fight off Pirates, solve puzzles, outwit hermits and wrestle with Davy Jones himself to put together the map and find Buried Treasure?

If so, then this is the Quest for you!

Assemble at the Wandu Progress Association at 10am on Sunday morning, September 19th, bedecked in all your Piratical Finery, armed with boffer swords, rapiers and rattan (and all necessary armour!).

You have only a small longboat, so Adventuring Parties are restricted to teams of no more than six.

Bring 8 gold and a Potluck Lunch. (10 gold for non-members, ½ price for Scallywags under 16).

There will be a prize for the most Piratical Lord, Lady and Childe!

Bookings by September 12th.

Regards
