About The Vine

This is Volume 17, Issue 13 (May A.S. XLIV / 2011) of The Vine, the newsletter of the Barony of Aneala. It is available from the Chronicler at chronicler@aneala.sca.org. The Vine is not an official publication of the Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) and does not delineate SCA policy. The official newsletter for the Society in Australia is Pegasus, which is available from the Registrar at registrar@sca.org.au.

The closing date for submissions to The Vine is the Sunday evening after Baronial Council, which is normally the third Friday of the month. Advertising, including event flyers, should be formatted for an A5 page in text, Word, Publisher or similar format. PDFs are not preferred; please send original source documents instead. If in doubt, contact the Chronicler for more information.

Unto the populace of Aneala does Kilic and Branwen, Baron and Baroness of Glorious Aneala send Greetings.

Well what an eventful few weeks we have had.

Many of our populace did journey over to the East of Lochac and enjoyed some rare rain and mud. Some of them experienced some bruises, but by all accounts had a great time. We are still waiting to hear stories from our College members, or maybe we don't? Welcome back.

We ourselves did attend Autumn Gathering and had a great time. The site at Boddington was rustic and reminded us of really, really early Rowany Festival site, dust, mud and wind being the main reminders... but no Tea Trees. I can see this site being developed for future events. The Shire of Dragon's Bay did put on a fine event, with great food and entertainment. Well done Sir Peter and your feastocrats.

There were various competitions run during the weekend. The Armoured Tourney, sponsored by the Canton of Abertridwr had 5 combatants with M'Lord Konrad defeating all. In the IKAC we had M'Lord Uffa Edda winning and he also won the Hunt. The war was attended by some 15 and as they changed sides so much they all won. The winner of the A&S open competition was M'Lady Catherine of Shirwode for her red hat. Although there were a small number of entries, they were again of a high quality; Lady Petronella's archery vambrace was excellent. We also congratulate Lord Edmund and Lady Alanna for authorising for Combat Archery.

We would also give our thanks to the Constables, Heralds, and Marshals for jobs well done. To the A&S teachers, Lady Genevieve, Mistress Rhianwen, Lady Mery, Duena Catalina, and Mistress Catherine for the various classes taught over the weekend. Our thanks are also extended to those who helped pack us up just before the heavy rain.

Finally we are proud to congratulate the Anealean Scribes, Lady Celestria, Lady Arlette, Lady Alessandra, Mistress Catherine and Mistress Liduina for their part in producing the Aneala Bestiary which won the Kingdom Competition from 12th night. They competed with 20 other entries. Huzzah! You rock!

The next few months will still be busy.

There will be an A&S shield painting workshop at Lady Isabel's on 14th May, we will also be attending Boesenberg's Masked Picnic that day.

The Baronesses Fighter Auction is being held on the 22nd of May at East Cannington Park . Fighters are invited to be auctioned to raise funds for the Barony. This is a blind auction where the bidders will bid for a fighters favourite feast dish. After the bid the fighter will be revealed. We also invite members to donate gifts for the prize table and attendees to bring along a potluck dish. Come along and support the Auction.

June sees Pencampwr hosted by the Canton of Abertridwr and later in the month Sir Berenger is attending to give some armoured fighter training. Our newest Incipient Canton of Vallen d'Or will hold their first Feast on the 25th of the same weekend (a Saturday). If you are able to attend please do, we will be there too. They are happy to billet. Car-pooling would be a good idea. We want to encourage and support our new canton.

July 16th sees a Spanish Mid Winter feast and the steward will be Du-ena Catalina. This will be followed by the 4 Man Lightning Team Melee at Abertridwr on the 24th July (hopefully no lightning this time).

Well that's all for now. Just to remind you, Their Majesties will be attending Pencampwr so get those recommendations in (to us too!)

Keep healthy and safe.

Yours in service
Kilic and Branwen
Barona and Baroness of Aneala

Illud est rem diximus

The College of Saint Basil the Great has been going great!

We've had newbies in armour and working on garb and the college officers reported on time!

We PROSHed, helping out charities by selling newspapers in garb. It was very early in the morning and we were tired.

Baron Lachlahn gave an etiquette talk - hopefully we took in his words of wisdom and will be more chivalrous and awesome for it!

Some college members are at autumn gathering and others have flown off to festival, but we all hope everyone has a safe and happy Easter.

 Elizabeth

Rats and Wreath Shoot

The Canton of Abertridwr having cleaned out their communal storeroom were suddenly inundated by a plague of rascally rats that were hiding inside. On the Sunday of April 17th the Piper called forth the Rats to the Wandri grounds, in order for this furry menace to be dispatched, by the able bodied Archers who answered the call for help.

Ten Archers responded to the call on this dismal day and it was quickly discovered that some of these Rats carried a deadly plague of white dust, hampering the score and forcing the Archers to maintain a distance of 20 yards. The shoot came down to a tie breaker between Elizabeth of St Basils and Konrad Hildebrandt, who was the eventual winner.

Following on this, a Wreath Shoot was held to mourn the losses and the brave rats who survived to linger for another day. This was a Kings Round 6 arrow elimination starting at 5 yards. The shoot was interrupted by some curious magpies who tried to carry off one of Konrads arrows but who were unsuccessful due to its weight.

New Captain of Archers sought

Greetings

Applications are invited for the position of Captain of Archers of the Barony of Aneala.

It is now two years (and a bit) since I stepped up to the role of Captain of Archers of the Barony. My warrant has therefore expired and I am seeking a replacement. The role of Captain of Archers is generally summed up as "facilitating and encouraging archery activities within the barony". You will function as a deputy to both the Knight Marshal of Aneala and the Kingdom Deputy for Light Combat. It is a very rewarding position and I heartily encourage all interested gentles to contact me for further details of the duties involved.

Please submit applications to archer@aneala.lochac.sca.org by 12th May 2011.

Pencampwr Screen Competition

New Stewards Prize Competition for Pencampwr

The screen wall that is used to hide the campsite is not working

The competition is to make a screen wall 2M X 2M that shows your group or any (G Rated) medieval scene you wish.

Heraldic rules are not important but devices may be incorporated into the screen. Medium is up to you but must be free standing or safely secured into the ground. So you can do your: Kingdom, Barony, canton, college, shire or household. Households would for example be Darksun or Templestone, Knights Bridge, Clan Brechin, Annwn or Bastion ETC or all of the above.

NB as this is a steward's prize competition thus it does not count as an A&S competition so may be entered in the open A&S competition or Arobryn as well but will need documentation if entered in an A&S competition.

Screens to be in place by 10am Saturday Morning

Stay tuned for what the Stewards Prize will be.

All enquires to Viscountess Rhianwen 0408099346

A&S at Pencampwr

In honour of Her Majesty, Queen Constanzia's visit, a Spanish themed A&S competition will be held.

This will be in conjunction with the regular open A&S competition on the Saturday afternoon.
