Unto the Populace of the Barony of Aneala, does Rilic and Branwen give greetings.

Unto the populace of Aneala does Rilic Baron and Branwen Baroness, give greeting. We missed sending our article to the Dine last month, please accept our apologies.

Since then we attended the Baroness' s Fighter Auction and we need to thank all those who gave of their skills on the field, those who sponsored, provided food and prizes, you should all be proud as we raised some $860 odd dollars which will be spent on renewing Baronial Heraldic display. We thank our officer' s for their service and to our Ladies in waiting and Champions for theirs. The tournament winners were Lord Galen for the armoured fighters and Lord Wesley for the Rapier Fighters.

Next we did attend Pencampwr, always a big event, it was no different this year. Our Barony was held to ransom by Pirates who demanded the King' s taxes, we denied these taxes and called our fighters to arms to defend these lands of the West. Visitors from afar did come to our aid. Sir Kane and House Bastion were sent south on a reconnoitre and were waylaid with Sir Kane taken prisoner, by the time they returned to us we had fought a few skirmishes with the bad old pirate Edward One Eyed and his gang of cut throats. Unfortunately they defeated our forces, but only just. We still denied them the King' s Taxes and we are sure they will come up with a dastardly plan in the future. We must therefore stay vigilant.

There were many tourneys and competitions run during the weekend, and we, as Baron and Baroness were delighted with the variety and number of activities presented to all.

The Pencampwr Champion was Lord Griffin Westcastle, hailing from the Barony of Mordenvale, congratulations.

Lord Wesley did well winning the Rapier Tournament. M' Lord Utha did win both the archery and the IKAC. Such men are an inspiration to us all. M' Lord Wad won the Arobryn and Lady Elouise won the Boffer with m' Lady Meg the Most Chivalrous and m' Lord Raven the Best Death. The Poachers won the Swan ball. Lady Ydeneya won the Wall Competition.

We were able to recognise members of our populace for their service, Lord Agostino Tamborri received a Demi Sun, Black feathers were awarded to Ruby, Zavin, Stephen of St Laz.

Encouragement awards was given to Ranulphus Barbarossa. Lady Seraphina and Mistress Liduina received long awaited scrolls for their Award of Arms and Pelican, respectively.

We now must acknowledge those who ran the event, the Autocrating team lead by Lady Alianore and Lord Hadrian and their officers and their teams, who ran the archery, arts and sciences, to the various feasts and colleges who provided food for the weekend and catered to the needs of many.

To those who assisted with the List keeping, Marshalling, Constabling and those who helped to set up and take down. Without your support and commitment we would not have a Pencampwr. And as always to Our champions, Ladies in Waiting and guardsmen, thakyou for keeping us to timetables and making us drink...tea. Our apologies if we did not remember to thank you all publically or any that we have missed.

The Pencampwr weekend was followed with Baron Kilic attending their Majesties at Great Northern War, were many diverse range of fighting was had by all. On his return our shores did suffer wild storms that did affect us all in some degree, we have not heard that any have lost their roofs or other damage but we were aware that some were without power for some time.

Last weekend our neighbours of the Shire of Dragon's Bay did revel in a feast and by all reports was a great success, we are saddened that we missed it.

Next weekend we have been invited by our incipient Canton of Vallon d' Or to a Venetian feast and IKAC on Saturday the 30th June. We did attend their inaugural feast last year and were very impressed by the quality and quantity of their entertainment and feast and encourage those who can travel to come along and experience their hospitality.

At the end of July we will be renewing our vows at Aneala's Mid Winter Feast. Her Highness Beatrice will be attending along with Count and Countess Bran and Lilya as well as those rascally B&B's from Mordenal, Gilchrist and Lil. We look forward to their visit. All are invited to attend and Lord Hadrian the Steward is taking bookings, details of which is included in this issue of the Vine.

Sounds like we have a lot of activities happening.

Yours in Service

Kilic and Branwen

PAST TIMES CELEBRATION HOSTED BY THE GREY COMPANY

THIS IS NOT AN SGA EVENT

Date: 14th—16th September
Time : 9am
Venue : Camp Leschenaultia, 400 leschenaultia Place, Chidlow WA
Contact : Bill McConnell bill_mcconnell@iinet.net.au

The site can be seen online at <http://www.camplesch.com.au/index.html>

This will be the Eighth Past Times held in Perth if I have my count correct and continues the tradition of gathering together clubs and individuals interested in the study and re-creation of historical events, skills and culture. It is hoped that by bringing these groups together we can have fun with like-minded folk and maybe learn a few new tricks from each other.

Accommodation:

We have booked the Camp Leschenaultia site for the event which also hosted the last Past Times. It has hard accommodation, real toilets and showers, a good kitchen and plenty of camping space and areas for outdoors event.

Most events will be held outdoors on the main oval and in the dining hall.

Meals:

In keeping with requests to keep the event costs as low as possible the banquet on Saturday night will be the only officially catered meal at the celebration. Participants will have to arrange their own meals at other times. We hope to operate a small "snack bar" for those who crave soft drinks, chocolates and chips at odd times of the day. Tea and coffee will be provided free at the banquet and at other times in return for nominal contributions. If there is enough support we may consider running a sausage-in-a-bun stall over the two lunch times and maybe some pay as you go Breakfasts. Any leftovers from the banquet will be served up as breakfast on the Sunday.

Drinks:

Alcoholic drinks are not included in the price of the celebration. There is a local tavern nearby for those who wish to buy alcohol. You can bring your own drinks if you so wish

Activities:

Are you interested in giving a lecture or workshop? We need volunteers to run these and all contributions are welcome.

Market:

On Saturday morning a market shall be held where people can sell their wares. Selling items at the market will not cost you anything and we encourage everyone to get involved.

Competitions:

Prizes will be awarded at the banquets for various competitions. Competitions will including various categories for military and civilian craft, Archery and we also hope to run another "Best Campsite" competition.

Clothing:

Those attending the past Times Celebrations are encouraged to wear historical clothing at all times. This is mandatory for the banquet.

Special Guest:

This year Sandy Sempel has offered to bring his very extensive private collection of Viking Historical artefacts to Past Times. Sandy has over 3000 artefacts in 26 cases. For those who wish to see, touch and photograph real historical items and reproductions, Sandy's collection will be a "must see".

We have tried to keep prices as low as we can realistically.

Adult Dorm	$80.00	Concession Adult Dorm	$48.00
Adult Camping	$58.00	Concession Adult Camping	$34.80
Feast only (Adult)	$30.00	Concession Feast only	$20.00
Day attendee	$10.00	Concession Day Attendee	$6.00

Concession will be children under 16.

I may be able to arrange a special price for children under 10 depending on numbers.

Prices may have to rise in the new financial year so get in early.

Donations:

The organisers are trying to keep prices down to attract as many people as possible to the event. To this end we will gladly accept donations of money or prizes. Volunteers to help with setting up, kitchen work and cleaning duties also gratefully appreciated.
