UNTO THE POPULACE OF THE BARONY OF ANEALA, DOES KILIC AND BRANWEN GIVE GREETINGS.

Well August has come and just about gone. We have had a few events of the last month including an IKAC in Abertridwr which due to other commitments we were unable to attend and of course the Balingup Medieval Carnivale. The latter went well though somewhat soggy on the Sunday due to the rain. We met quite a few people who have shown strong interest in the SCA so hopefully we will see some of them coming along to events.

Now with September nearly here we have a number of events coming up including our champions holding of the bridge on the 15th September. Please come along to this event as Lord Galen has learnt many new things at La Prova Dura and is not doubt eager to put them to use. We would also recommend to all that they consider following Lord Galen's example of visiting other groups because as Baron Aylwin of Innilgard wrote to us - Lord Galen proved a great ambassador for your barony and did endear himself to many people, not least us. A very gentle, courteous and chivalrous man indeed. If the rest of your fighters are the equal to this man in courtesy and chivalry, then you are indeed blessed – so no doubt not only will there be good fighting but great courtesy, honour and chivalry and we are indeed a blessed Barony because these are traits we see in many of our populace.

Towards the end of September and the start of October is our Baronial Championship which will be held down in our Canton of Vallon d'Or. This championship is the most auspicious of occasions in Aneala as it chooses the best amongst us in many disciplines and skills who will serve the Barony for a year and provide our court with the splendour and glory that will reflect well on all of us.

So please consider entering at least one of the championships this year for it may be your prowess and skill which stands above all others.

We would also like to remind everyone that Abertridwr is hosting a Royal event in November at which there will be combat, feasting, archery and A&S. So please start preparing now for this event and please consider sending recommendations to their Majesties for people you think are deserving.

For those uncertain about what to write or send we would suggest keep it short and direct as their Majesties can have a lot of recommendations to read. We would also suggest that you only make one recommendation per email and include the person's name and group in the subject field of the email. This will allow their Majesties to search easily for local people when they are looking at potential people to award on their visit. Would you also CC us on the recommendation as that way if their Majesties discuss with us a potential recipient we can be aware of what has been said. The email for their Majesties is royal@locahc.sca.org and our email is aneala@aneala.lochac.sca.org.

Yours in Service to the Crown and to our Populace,

kilic and branwen

Baron and Baroness of Aneala

Barony of Aneala Championship 2013

*Steward Lady Bella Valori see either the Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/events/144105099130723/> or <http://aneala.lochac.sca.org/calendar/>
for fighting formats and event information.*

We Baron Kilic and Baroness Branwen do invite the Fighters and Archers as well as the Arts and Sciences to bring forth their skills and prowess and challenge themselves on behalf of their consorts to become the next Champions of Aneala.

Please consider the following, you have a short time to make up your mind.

Who are Our Beloved Current Anealean Champions ?

*They are people of great skill and commitment to the Barony and the SCA.
They love playing this game. They are honourable and are full of courtesy.*

Armoured Champion is Lord Galen Wulfric

Rapier Champion is Lord Veil le Pantera

Archery Champion is Baron Lachlan Dunbar

A&S Champion is Lady Alanna Galliwoode

Rose Bardic Champion is Lady Aoife inghean Ui Conchobhair

Ask any of our Champions about being a Champion.

We have 3 Martial champions, Armoured, Rapier and Archery selected by different scenario's to test their skill and endurance as well as their chivalric values.

The A&S Champion is selected by entering A&S Competitions through out the year, using an average of their 3 highest scores.

The Bardic Champion is selected by performance in entertainment arts.

Why be a Champion?

Firstly it is a prestigious position; you have the opportunity to serve the Barony and consequently the Baron and Baroness.

The Champion position's offer you training in Court procedures and gives you an insiders understanding of how a Barony is run.

*You get to stand Court and be in the know. You represent the Barony.
All the Champions have responsibilities: To protect the B&B,
To represent the Barony in Journeys and Wars, Competitions
To stand Court, Sometimes you maybe required to enforce the will of the B&B and/or the Crown*

Serve the Crown when they visit the Barony.

Help put up and take down the Baronial pavilion et al.

Use and maintain the regalia of the Champion.

*Each Champion also runs the following years Championship Journey
The Armoured Champion also assists the B&B to select 3 members of any martial discipline for the Baronial Guard by Mid Summer 2014.*

We know that the A&S Champion would be hard pressed to defend us with needle or a pie, but you never know! Their main responsibility is to run a minimum of one class or competition but hopefully more in the year, promoting A&S in Aneala.

*This year the Baronial Bard Competition will be run at Bal d'Aneala.
The Bards duty is to entertain the B&B and the populace.*

Entering

Those proposing to enter into the Championship should indicate their intent via email to the B&B. It is not necessary to be at every event but in the email please state which Championship(s) you are entering, your consort or person of inspiration. It is not necessary to have a Consort but a person or group that inspires you, such as a College, Household or a Noble from times past etc.

Ladies in Waiting or Liverymen

The Baronesses Ladies in Waiting will be stepping down after completing their term. The Baroness also asks for 4 Ladies or Lords who would like to be part of the Baronial Court to also send a letter of intent.

Ask for the list of responsibilities of being a LIW or Liveryman.

Thank you all.

As always, please send recommendations and any questions you may have.

Yours in service

ARMoured CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT OF THE BARONY OF ANEALA

Unto the Armoured Combatants of the Barony of Aneala, Canton of Abertridwr and the Canton of Vallon D'or, do I Lord Galen Wulfric esq and Champion send greetings.

On the 27th – 29th of September 2013, the Anealan Championship weekend will be held in Balingup and the search for our newest champion in Honourable combat begins with the great Anealan triple list Tournament.

Whether you are an experienced combatant or a novice this tournament will test you in ways you thought not possible and is a very exciting tournament indeed.

The format for the Championship Tournament is as follows:

List 1: Sword and Shield – This list will test your mettle against those with our main weapon combination.

List 2: Pole Arm/Great Weapon – This list will be fought only with either a Pole Arm or Great Sword of the fighter's choice

List 3: Open Weapons – This list will be fought as an Open Weapons class to which a fighter can choose any weapons combination as they deem fit to use against an opponent, but know this, once you use a specific weapons combination, you cannot use it again for the remainder of the list.

Each list will have a finals bout of the top two combatants of that list to determine the winner of said particular list.

Finals: If no defined winner from the 3 lists is identified by the List Keeper's, then a finals bout will be held to determine who will be named "Champion of Aneala" by Right of Arms. This finals bout format will be determined on the day of the tournament.

Lord Galen Wulfric esq
Champion of Aneala

CHRONICLER'S MISSIVE

My warrant as Chronicler of Aneala is due to expire in November so I am looking for someone to take over this Office.

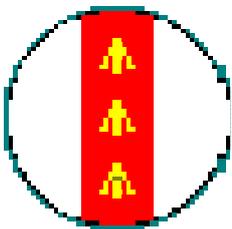

Your main duty is to create a monthly newsletter, upload it to the website and notify the populace. This should only take a few hours every month.

You need to be a SCA member and attend Baronial Council at least every quarter to Report on your office.

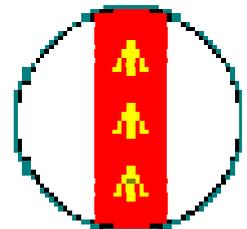

If you are interested please contact me.

Yours in Service,

Lady Bella Valori

CAPTAIN OF ARCHERS

Dear Gentles

The office of Captain Of Archers for our fair Barony is open for applications. My two years in the position are about to expire and I am looking for a replacement.

The duties of the position are not too difficult, mainly encouraging archery in the Barony by organising training and the usual quarterly reports.

Please contact me by email (archer@aneala.locac.sca.org) or in person if you are interested.

Yours In Service

Maitiu
