Baronial Missive

From Dameon and Leonie, Baron and Baroness of Aneala, to the populace of Aneala, greetings.

Happy birthday SCA - Fifty years old on the first day of May.

And to kick off the SCA New Year, the SCA has a brand new peerage, the Order of Defense, to honour those of great prowess in the arts of defense (notably with the rapier). The Order of Defense came into being on the first of May AS 50, and we traveled to May Crown in Ildhavn where the first three members of the order in Lochac were elevated. They are Don Caleb Adolphus (Rowany), Don William de Cameron (Ildhavn) and Don Dameon Greybeard (Baron of Aneala).

Master Tariq ibn Jalal, speaking on behalf of the Order of the Laurel, for the creation of the new Masters of Defense

Also at May Crown there was a tourney of course, and the winner, and Crown Prince of Locbac, was Sir Stefan Glaube, who fought for his lady, Branwen, Crown Princess of Locbac.

The final death in May Crown Tourney, Ildbafn, AS 50

At the beginning of April we traveled to Rowany Festival, with a good number of people from Aneala and Abertridwr. At Opening Court we declared our intention of fighting with Innilgard, the Northern Reaches and Stormbold, which alliance was victorious in the War and halted the Mongol invasion for a time. Thanks to everyone who fought with Aneala, in the wars, the Heraldic Melee tourney, and the Barony of Origin tourney.

It was also at Festival that Lady Slaine was invited to join the Order of the Pelican, in recognition for the enormous effort she has put in to getting Locbac's financial reporting in order. Warmest congratulations, and also our thanks to her for acting as Leonie's Lady in Waiting in all the courts.

We came bome to Autumn Gatbering, beld on tbe Anzac Day long weekend. It was a fabulous event, witb great teacbers in Master Sir Leofric Willoughby de Broke, wbo taugbt soapstone mold-making and casting, Burgundian male clotbing, and also fougbt in tbe armoured tourney, and Lady Urtatim Al-Qurtubiyya, wbo taugbt us about Ottoman clotbing and cooking. Tbis event was also a Royal Visit, witb Altani Yeke Kbatun (Altani, Queen of Locbac) paying us a visit. Sbe asked us to keep ber visit fairly informal, after tbe many courts at Festival, so we "allowed" ber to take part in tbe cooking classes prior to Sunday's feast, and work at soap-stone carving witb Master Leofric.

Tbere were a number of awards given by tbe Queen at Autumn Gatbering. Congratulations to tbe following gentles:

Lord Ulfr Fra Jorvik - Order of tbe Nock

Baroness Mistress Branwen of Werchesvorde - Order of Prometbeus

Lady Elizabetb Rowe - Order of tbe Star and Lily

In addition, Lady Ydeneya de Baillencourt was named as Locbac's Arts and Science Champion.

We also gave some Baronial Awards - congratulations to:

Lady Sorcba ingbean Uí Bbradagáin - Order of tbe Demi-Sun

Micbael of Aneala - Black Featber

Ricbard of St Basil - Black Featber

Congratulations everyone, for your efforts in service, creativity, archery and teacbing.

Tbere were also presentations to ber Majesty, including an amazing collection of award cords, not merely tbe fifty tbat were planned for, but sixty four of tbem - well done to everyone wbo worked on tbem.

And, of course, there were tournaments - for which tassels in autumn colours were presented (thanks to Mistress Catherine for making them).

Winners were:

Archery:

Slot shoot - Lord Ulfr Fra Jorvik

Open IKAC - Lord Ulfr Fra Jorvik

Period IKAC - Lord Thomas O' Caerdyf

Youth IKAC - Amelia of Dragon's Bay, who also got a pecial mention in the youth division of the Slot Shoot

Armoured combat - Sir Nathan Blacktower

Rapier combat - Lord Prospero ab Aqua

As always, many thanks to the stewards and their team of helpers, and to all who made Autumn Gathering such a wonderful event. There will be another one next year, so mark it in your diaries now.

Coming up we have the Perth Medieval Fayre this weekend, and we ask the rain gods to take a holiday on Saturday. Then at the end of May we will be attending Abertridwr's Pencampwr. We hope to see many of you there.

The Baroness's Fighter Auction Tourney follows on June 21 (the Winter Solstice) and we ask the rain gods to take a further holiday at that time. Further off is Midwinter, in mid-July, after which we will be traveling to the Pennsic War. We will be away from July 23 to August 16, in company with what promises to be the largest Lochac contingent ever to attend the war.

After that, we have the Anealan Championship weekend, at the end of September. This will also be a Royal Visit, with the presence of their incoming Majesties Stefan and Branwen, so remember to send award recommendations in good time.

Yours in service to the Crown and the people of Aneala

From the Chronicler

As you may have noticed, the cover of this issue of the Vine is a bit different. The SCA started 50 years ago on May 1st 1966. The knight with the heraldry of the Society is based on the seal of Sir Thomas de Beauchamp, the 3rd Earl of Warwick, 1314-1369 who was one of the founding members of the Order of the Garter in 1348.

The devices surrounding the central figure are of all the Landed Gentry of Aneala, Barons on the left and Baronesses on the right and Aneala's device in the centre. Our Landed Gentry are:

Steveg Stevegsson and Rhianwen ni Dhiarmada
Baron and Baroness of Aneala
Invested on 12 April 1987
Stepped down on 15 April 1989

Snorri Ottarsson and Angharad of Chester
