Baronial Missive

From Dameon and Leonie, Baron and Baroness of Aneala, to the populace of Aneala, greetings.

Firstly, thank you to the Shire of Abertridwr, for inviting us to Pencampwr on the June long weekend. We had a marvelous time—the food was delicious, the company welcoming, and the weather perfect.

Thank you also to everyone who turned out in less-than-perfect weather for the Baroness's Fighter Auction. The fighters described an interesting variety of medieval superheroes as part of the auction process, to the entertainment and education of the spectators. Five fighters contested each tournament, and the winners were Sir Nathan Blacktower in the armoured tourney and Lord Veil le Pantera in the rapier tourney. The winner of the food competition was Lady Alessandra de Florenza with her delicious beef dish (We hope to see that on a feast menu in the future). Thanks to those who bought a fighter, to those who generously donated prizes, and to everyone for helping set up and pack up. We managed it all in between rain showers and gusts of wind.

The day also brought journalist Ray Sparvell, from WA Today, to do a story on the SCA. He took photos and video, and interviewed several people. Thanks to all who talked to him and showed him what we do. We hope to see his story published this week.

And, to round off our thanks for the Baroness's Fighter Auction, congratulations to Lady Ariel of St Basil, who officially stepped up as the new Anealan Rapier Marshal, and to Lord Laveolus, in his new role as Black Wing Pursuivant, who ably heralded both courts and tourneys.

Next weekend we hope to see many of you at Aneala's Midwinter Feast. The menu looks delicious and the hall allows candles, which will be lovely. Then, two weeks later, we will be attending Dragons Bay's Candlemas Feast, before heading off on July 23th to the Pennsic War.

Thank you to all those who have sent award recommendations to us recently, and please keep them coming in.

Yours in service to the Crown and the people of Aneala

Dameon and Leonie
