From Dameon and Leonie, Baron and Baroness of Aneala, to the populace of Aneala, greetings

Season's greetings to you all, whichever festival you are celebrating.

We were happy to see so many of you at Aneala's annual charity tournament, Toys for Tots, which this year was held at Garvey Park by the Swan River. Both the Rapier and Armoured tourneys boasted a list of seven fighters. The rapier tourney was run as a single kill double elimination format, and the victor was Lord Zaven Zeitountsi. The armoured tourney which followed was run as a round robin and won by Sir Nathan Blacktower. Congratulations to both fighters. There was also a cooks' guild competition, in which the winner was Baroness Leonie.

Aneala seldom receives out-Kingdom visitors, but at Toys for Tots we welcomed Lord Duncan Chaucer, Kingdom Rapier Marshal of Drachenwald, and our sometime Anealan Lady Anneleyn. We hope to see both of them at training and other social events over Christmas and New Year.

Once again, thanks to Lady Isobel of Annesley for running an excellent event, and to all those who helped her make it so. Sixty five toys, 30 food items and four gift cards were collected for Christmas charity.

We are also pleased to announce this year's IKAC results. Congratulations to Lord Seth of Dragon's Bay for the best average score in the open division, and to Lady Vivienne Neville in the Period division.

In the various youth divisions, no one shot three IKACs in the year, but the best scores were:

In the Yeoman's category (15 and under) Roban of Annwn, who attended 1 IKAC and scored 13

In the Youth category (12 and under) Emelia of Dragon's Bay, who attended 2 IKACs with a best score of 97

In the Child category (9 and under) Matthew of Dragon's Bay, who attended 2 IKACs with a best score of 74.

Aneala is in need of a new Rapier Marshal. Lady Ariel of St Basil has taken up a job in Queensland so has relinquished the office. We thank her for her excellent service to both Aneala and the College and wish her the very best. Our loss is River Haven and St Florian's gain. If you would like to try your hand at the office, please contact the Knight Marshal and the interim Rapier Marshal, Baron Dameon.

The final official event for the Anealan calendar this year will be December council meeting. It is rescheduled from the third Friday to 3 pm on Sunday December 18, at the home of the seneschal, Sir Nathan, and will be followed by a barbecue. BYO food and drink, and bathers if you wish to swim. Training will be on as usual in the morning

So 2016 draws to a close, and once again, we thank all of you who have joined in with courtesy and good cheer to make Aneala such a wonderful barony. There has been a succession of great events through the year. It is a privilege and a pleasure to serve as your Baron and Baroness.

All the very best for Christmas and the New Year and may 2017 be peaceful and bountiful for you all.

Yours in service

Dameon and Leonie
