From Dameon and Leonie, Baron and Baroness of Aneala, to the populace of Aneala, greetings

A happy new year to you all. We hope that 2017 will bring good things to everyone. This year marks the thirtieth anniversary of the Barony of Aneala, four years after the founding of the Shire (as Aneala Scir), so we look forward to celebrating our past and the future of our great Barony.

In a few days Twelfth Night Coronation will take place when Lochac welcomes King Ariston and Queen Lilavati to the throne. Since we will not be attending the event, we have sent our written fealty scroll to be presented in court when the landed Baron and Baronesses of the Kingdom swear their fealty to the new Crown. Many thanks to the Honourable Lady Ydeneya de Baillencourt for calligraphing and illuminating the beautiful scroll for us.

Baron Dameon will be travelling to Canterbury Faire in Southron Gard, with several others from this side of Lochac. We wish we could both go, but later in the year Baroness Leonie will be travelling to Rowany Festival instead.

Aneala's first official event for the year is our monthly council meeting on Friday January 20. This is where the administrative business of the Barony happens, where events are planned and coordinated, and the work of the officers reported and discussed, as well as Kingdom-level and even SCA-wide issues. All members of the populace are welcome to attend and participate in the discussions; it is a great way to find out how the Barony works and we would love to see you there. Remember that since it is an official event, event insurance is payable by non-members.

Aneala's first garbed event is the Midsummer Feast on January 28, which this year has a Chinese theme to celebrate the Chinese New Year and the incoming Year of the Rooster. Details have been posted to the populace list, and on Facebook, as well as in this month's Vine. It sounds like a fantastic event and we look forward to seeing you all there.

Once again we have been invited to participate in the Hyde Park Fair on the March long weekend. We have been promised the same site as for the last two years which offers great public exposure, and shade as well. Please come along if you can to help show what the SCA is about. There will be a follow-up tourney later in March, so that potential recruits can get a further taste of what we do.

April brings Rowany Festival. Although we don't expect the record turnout of last year, several people have told us they will be travelling there. Once again, the Baron and Baroness of Saint Florian de la Riviere have invited us to join their food fund, and to camp with them if anyone wants that option. Details will be posted to the populace list when available.

In May, the Shire of Abertridwr is hosting May Crown, at the Kerem Adventure Camp, Bullsbrook. We encourage you all to volunteer to help if you can, to make this a great event for the whole of the West.

May Crown is of course a Royal event, so please send in recommendations for those you believe deserve recognition for their achievements. Sending a copy of such recommendations to us is a good idea, since the King and Queen usually consult with local Barons & Baronesses and officers about awards.

Until next time

Yours in Service

Dameon and Leonie
Baron and Baroness of Aneala
