Baronial Missive

Greetings to the Populace of Aneala,

Last month we chose to reserve our words instead of writing a Baronial Missive, as we were still busy witnessing the Baronial Championship. This month, we have much news to share.

To begin, we give thanks to Lady Ilaria de Vale for teaching at the second Viking Garb Workshop. As Rekkathing approaches, many are hurrying to produce new garb in a Viking style and Ilaria's instruction and research were invaluable resources.

The major event of the month was Aneala's Baronial Championship weekend. Our thanks go to the steward of the event, the Honourable Lord Richard Ferrowre and his mentor Mistress Leonie de Grey, who over the course of the event provided assistance and support to all. We are very grateful to the work that Richard, Leonie, and their team put in to making the event so fantastic.

In addition to thanking all those who formed a part of the stewarding team, there are members of the Populace who we would like to thank and name in particular. When unexpected circumstances had a devastating impact on Sunday night's Victory Feast, these four gentles rescheduled their weekend plans to come a long distance, some travelling even further than fifteen leagues, to help out. We give our sincere thanks to:

Mistress Sláine inghean Uí Ruadháin
Lord Robert Leffan of York
Andy of Dragons Bay
Kathryn of Abertridwr

We were sad to devest last year's Champions from their positions in our court. They did an amazing job at keeping the Barony safe and inspired over the past 12 months and we thanked them with scrolls made by Baroness Elizabeth and the Scribes of Aneala and Dragon's Bay.

Fortunately, we were not sad for long as we were able to invest new Champions! The competition was strong this year, making the various tournaments and competitions greatly entertaining to behold. Our congratulations go to the following Champions:
Champion of the Sword: Lord Konrad Hilderbrand
Champion of the Rapier: Lord Zaven Zeitountsi
Champion of the Bow: Lord Wolfgang Germanicus
Champion of the Arts & Sciences: Mistress Branwen of Werchesvorde

Baronial Missive

We also had the great pleasure of watching the inaugural Children's Championship. Six children entered the boffer tournament on Saturday morning, with the winner being Marek of Vargahol. Six children entered the archery tournament on Sunday afternoon, with the winner being Taylor of Vargahol. Finally, the talented siblings chose a team member each and battled it out on the Kubb field. Congratulations to the victor:

Children's Champion: Marek of Vargahol

We invited Marek into our court as a Court Page. We thank him for agreeing to take on this big responsibility.

It was our great joy to recognise the following members of the Populace with Baronial awards:

Lady Julian Greenwood - Demi-Sun

Lord Konrad Hilderbrand - Demi-Sun

William of Walford - Black Feather

Catherine of Walford - Black Feather

Victoria of Walford - Black Feather

There was an Arts & Sciences competition held over the weekend of Baronial Championship.

Congratulations to Dede Kilic for winning the competition with his impressive and fluffy shepherd's coat.

Let us share some of our favourite moments from Baronial Championship...

Firstly, we loved looking out from the Baronial Pavilion and seeing only medieval sights before us. The new layout for the event meant that from around the list field you could look out and see not modern facilities but instead period items such as canvas tents and a huge fire box.

Secondly, the Vegetable Olympics were a fun and silly way to spend Saturday afternoon. Our congratulations go to Kat of Vargahol who was the winner of these Olympics. We're sure that your skill at moving pumpkins with only a spoon will serve you well in the future. Thank you to Lady Susanna de Plume for orchestrating these activities.

Finally, on Saturday night the Honourable Lord Lokki Rekk was sent to Vigil in anticipation of his upcoming Knighting. Many Peers with great experience in the SCA shared words of wisdom with Lokki and all those in attendance. Many thoughtful questions were posed to those gathered and it was a great privilege to hear the considered answers of Lokki and others.

Baronial Missive

Since Aneala's Baronial Championship weekend, we have been having a month of demonstration and marketing! At the time of writing, the Canton of Dragon's Bay has already held successful demos at Highland Gathering and the Naragebup Festival and the Barony of Aneala had a lovely day out running a stall at the Groat Street Festival.

Baron Agostino is looking forward to attending the IKAC and Zombie Shoot down in the Canton of Dragon's Bay on October 27th. It promises to be a fun day of archery in both target and combat styles.

The calendar for November is extremely busy with both demos and events. We would like to draw your attention to two events in particular:

Einherjar aka November War and Bal D'Aneala. On November 9th, head down to Wandi for your choice of WAR! or Arts & Sciences during the day and an evening ball, which is sure to provide entertainment, games, dancing and great conversation.

Rekkþing. On November 23rd, we will be joined by the Crown of Lochac, King Niall and Queen Sabine, who venture West to elevate Lokki Rekk to the order of Chivalry. With a Bear Pit tournament during the day and a Viking Age themed feast in the evening, it is sure to be an event to remember!

Other upcoming events include a range of demos, Aneala at Perth Pride, and the Dragon's Bay Champion of the Bow event.

For those who celebrate, we hope that the scary season of Halloween or Samhain is a fun and special time.

Yours in Service,
Baron Agostino and Baroness Elizabeth
Aneala
