Baronial Missive

Greetings to the Populace of Aneala,

We write to you this month feeling exhausted but delighted by the events of last month. If there are spelling errors in this missive, we blame that on still being tired from Golden Thimble!

To recap what has happened this month:

We began the month at Hyde Park Fair, where Master Dameon ran a two-day demo on the Sunday and the Monday public holiday. We commend the fighters who attended on their stamina in such hot conditions and extend a thank you to everyone – fighters and non-fighters alike – who attended the demo, spoke to the public and put on a great show. To anyone who signed up to the group at Hyde Park Fair, we wish you a warm welcome.

In the middle of the month Baron Agostino ran a Newcomers' Tournament. Another warm and humid day, we enjoyed tournaments and food just down the road from training. We would like to congratulate Sir Nathan Blacktower and Lord Zaven Zeitountsi for their wins in the armoured combat tournament and the rapier tournament, respectively.

Finally for March, Mistress Leonie ran the Golden Thimble two-day sewing competition. We wish to thank not just Mistress Leonie and Lady Elizabeth, who organised everything and kept the competitors fed all weekend, but also Lady Ottilia at whose home the event was hosted. The three teams who competed at Golden Thimble put in an immense effort and it turned out to be a very close competition with only 5 points between first and third places! The winning team was "The Baroness's Servants" who made a 15th-century ensemble for Baroness Elizabeth. Special congratulations go to one of the Barony's newest members, who learnt how to handsew for the first time and used her new skills to make a pair of silk sleeves and most of a linen smock – well done to Katie of Aneala. Special congratulations also go to Frances Affrica Ray who made over 4m of tablet-woven braid for her team – a truly outstanding and inspiring effort.

Welcome, now, to the month of April, which we will be taking at a very different pace because Aneala has no scheduled events this month. We know that many of our populace will travel east to Rowany Festival this month, and to those travellers we say safe travels and please bring back plenty of stories to share with us!

Baronial Missive

We do have an Autumn Collegium event running on the 4th of May, so please contact Baroness Elizabeth if you would like to run a class. For forward-planning your calendar, please also be aware of the Boddington Medieval Fayre Demo on May 18th where Dragon's Bay will host a stall, and Pencampwr-Winterfest over the long weekend of May 31st to June 3rd.

We will have Royalty joining us for Pencampwr-Winterfest, so we would like to encourage you to make award recommendations. Of course we hope that the populace is making recommendations on a regular basis anyway, but it is of particular importance as we approach a Royal Visit because we so rarely see them on this side of the Kingdom. If you have any concerns about making a recommendation directly to the Crown, please feel free to send it to us (aneala@aneala.lochac.sca.org) and we will be happy to pass it on. We will be reminding everyone about award recommendations with increasing frequency in the coming months.

And finally, although it is still many months away on the September long weekend, we are thinking forward to Aneala's Baronial Championship. Our Champions have an important role in the Barony to keep our populace safe and to represent their individual disciplines, and our current Champions are doing a marvellous job. While each Champion will share their own requirements for the competitions that they run at Championship, we also have some general criteria that we would like entrants to meet this year.

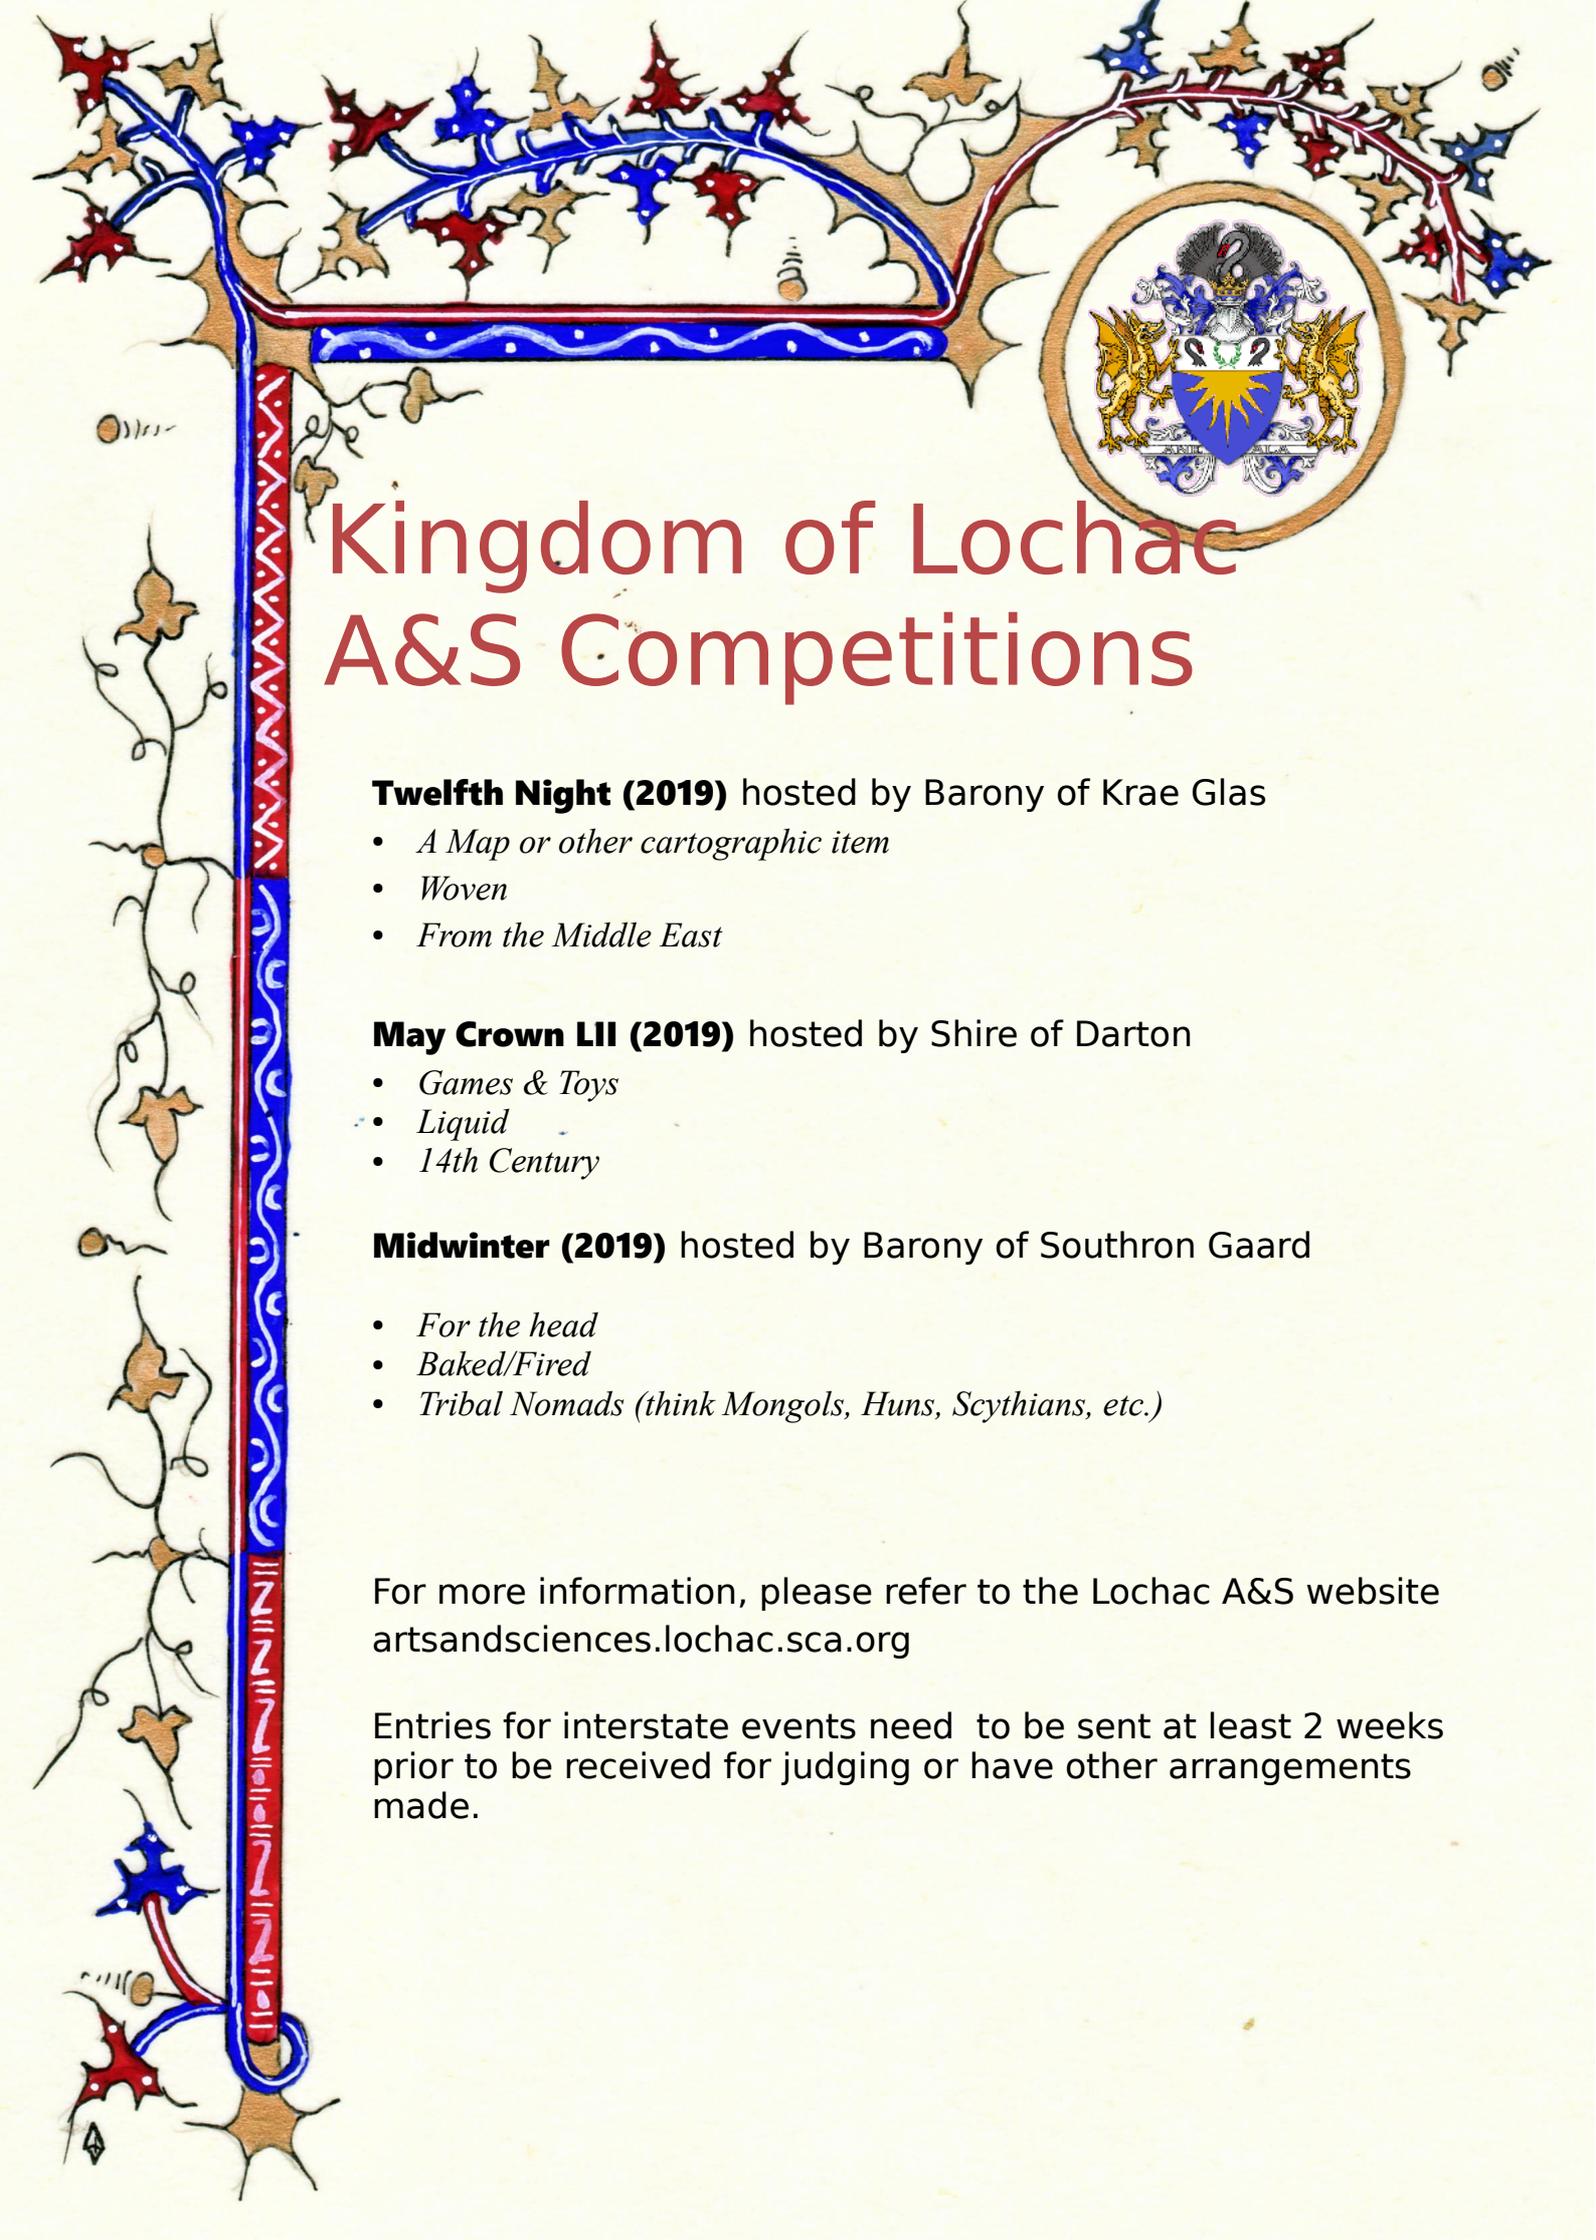

All entrants must inform us of their intent to enter in writing and introduce themselves in Court at the event.

All entrants must have demonstrated safe participation in the activity 3 or more times. For those doing armoured or rapier combat, having been authorised and attended training recently covers this. For those doing archery, you will need to attend 3 or more SCA archery practices or events before Championship to be known to be safe.

All entrants must be 14 years or older.

Please keep an eye on The Vine for specific details of the plans for the Championships - our Baronial Champions will release them well ahead of the event so that everyone can prepare.

Yours in Service,
Baron Agostino and Baroness Elizabeth

Championship Tourney: Armoured Combat Plans

Prepared by Aneala's Baronial Champion Lord Richard.

Please note that these details are subject to change before Championship.

All entrants will require a list shield. This is intended to encourage pageantry not exclude people. A list shield is a small shield that represents you as a participant in the event. It gets placed on a "List Tree" by the List Keeper or their assistant, to show who you are fighting next. You do not need to have had your heraldry registered, but it should be respectful of the heraldic rules. Please feel free to approach our heralds for assistance in the development of your device, and for details on the size for your list shield.

All entrants must request permission to enter from Their Excellencies prior to the close of bookings for the Championship event. Additionally, Their Excellencies also reserve the right to invite participants at their exclusive discretion.

The tournament shall consist of three events, with a possible fourth event should a tie-breaker be required.

The first event shall be a round-robin fought with a maximum of one single handed weapon. A non-weapon defensive item may be used in the other hand.

The second event shall be a round-robin fought with no non-weapon. Single handed and two-handed weapons are permitted in any legal combination. No restriction on re-use of weapon(s) or weapon combinations.

The third event shall be a "Last Contestant Standing" tournament. Any legal weapon or weapon combination, or weapon-plus-defensive-device combination may be used, but each participant may only enter the field with a weapon combination once. A strapped shield is considered different to a centre-grip shield, but different types of strapped shields all count as a strapped shield, as all centre-gripped defensive devices count as a centre-gripped shield. The tournament shall be fought one-on-one king-of-the-hill style. The victor of the first bout shall remain on the field and may continue to use their current weapon combination until they are defeated by an opponent. The victor may choose to change weapon combinations whilst victor, but once a combination has been used, and discarded, it may not be reused.

Championship Tourney: Armoured Combat Plans

The order shall begin with the victor of the first bout, the victor of the second bout, then the rest of the contestants in random order as identified on the list tree.

The list shield of the defeated contestant will be moved to the end of the order.

Once a contestant has used all their weapon combination options, they are to advise the B&B that they withdraw. Should a contestant not be prepared to face their bout with an unused weapon combination when their turn arrives, then with due respect given to extenuating circumstances, after an appropriately short time the B&B shall declare them withdrawn. The victor will be the last person standing once all other contestants have withdrawn. Should a tie-break be required, it shall be fought with any weapon or weapon plus defensive device combination chosen by the participants, king-of-the-hill, first to three consecutive wins.

Pencampwr / Winterfest A message from you Baronial Knight Marshal...

Greetings!

This is your friendly Baronial Knight Marshall here, and with The Pencampwr Winterfest coming up I'd like to take the opportunity to remind everyone to make sure their authorizations are still valid so they are not left wishing they could join in on the War activities!

While Pencampwr Winterfest is still two months away, that's only 8 weekends between then and now where people hoping to participate in the war can brush up on the combat arts specific to that sort of fighting, make sure their authorisations are still valid, and check that their armor is war-ready.

War sees the opportunity for some special weapon forms to come into play, such as fiberglass spears, combat archery, and throwing weapons. All of these require their own weapon-form specific authorisation to be checked beyond the typical "Heavy Combatant" tick on your Authorisation card, so if you are thinking of taking to the war field with a new weapon format your first step is to authorise well in advance of the weekend. Arranging these authorisations in advance helps to reduce the last-minute rush that so often occurs in the weeks leading up to a war event, and authorisations for a form such as combat archery can take time to organize as you not only need a Marshal and someone to fire back at you, but enough space to do that in as well. Specific information on the rules and armor standards which govern each form of combat can be found in the Lochac Fighters Handbook (<http://www.sca.org.au/marshal/docs/fighters-handbook.pdf>), which you will need to be familiar with and demonstrate where appropriate to be successful in your authorisation

A copy of the authorisation paperwork may be used in lieu of an authorisation card for a period of up to three months from the date of the authorisation. This means that even if you are still waiting for you card in the mail once you authorise, you can still use the form as proof of authorisation. I would also encourage newly authorised or reauthorised combatants to email a copy of their paperwork through to me just in case their own copy goes missing.

If you are having difficulty getting in touch with people who can help you authorise (eg fellow combatants to fight during authorisation, or an appropriate Marshal) or any other queries please get in touch with me at marshal@aneala.lochac.sca.org .

Yours in Service,

*Baron Agostino
Aneala Knight Marshal*
