Baronial Missive

Greetings to the Populace of Aneala,

What a month it has been! A week stuck at home. A week wearing masks. And sadly, more SCA events cancelled or rescheduled.

To the College of Saint Basil the Great who had to cancel College Challenge and to the Canton of Dragon's Bay who had to cancel A Feast of New Foods, we send our deepest sympathies. We share in your disappointment at the loss of these events, but we are grateful that the event stewards made the choices that would keep the Populace as safe as possible.

We also know that the recent fires – both in the North and the South – were scarily close to home for some of our Populace. We hope that you are all safe and sound (thankfully we have not heard otherwise) and we would remind everyone to ensure you have a bushfire plan in place. While raging fires may be perfectly period, they are a part of history that we do not wish to recreate.

On a brighter note, Combined Training did go ahead and included a class on SCA Etiquette for Around the Crown. Thank you to all who attended and joined in the discussion. Baroness Elizabeth intends to write an article that includes the discussion points – keep an eye out for that in future issues of the Vine.

It's a particularly good time to brush up on your knowledge of SCA Etiquette for Around the Crown because, all going well, the Crown are coming to visit! King Rowland and Queen Taitiu intend to visit the Barony of Aneala for our upcoming Aneala Collegia event. It promises to be an amazing weekend that we will enjoy in the company of Royalty.

The Hyde Park Fair also went ahead, although inclement weather meant that it was only a one-day affair. Thank you to Sir Nathan for stewarding this demo and thank you to all who showed up and put in a big effort to promote the Barony of Aneala. We had some great conversations with interested people and put on a good show for the fair-goers.

In stark contrast to the wet and wild weather that cancelled the second day of the Hyde Park Fair, the College of Saint Basil the Great held an O-Day display on a typically hot day! Well done to the College for running their stall and collecting a great many sign-ups. Some of these sign-ups attended a Boffer Tourney on the Oak Lawn and proved themselves to be excellent candidates for combat. In fact, a new member won the tourney, even when facing experienced and authorised College fighters! Well done to the College and we look forward to meeting your new Collegians at an upcoming event.

As tradition dictates, we will be holding Newcomers Tournaments to welcome all those who have recently discovered the SCA (such as new Collegians and people who showed interest at the Hyde Park Fair). The event will be held as an all-day affair, featuring each of our martial disciplines and an Arts & Sciences display. It will be held on Sunday March 14th at the same location as Combined Training. The Cook's Guild is also meeting at the same site on the same day. There will be something for everyone at the Newcomers Tournaments – we look forward to seeing you there! As always, details can be found on the Calendar page <https://aneala.lochac.sca.org/calendar/>

Last month we shared the joyful details of the inter-Kingdom pen-pal program that we are starting with the Barony of Andelcrag. Details of the program are slowly progressing and we hope to have an update for everyone within the next month – get your quills ready to write! If you are interested in joining, you can either contact us directly at aneala@aneala.lochac.sca.org or alternatively you can sign up on this form <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdt1RluyhaLNpMmgLewMvdyiaSxgZjVaeaOBYOPulsgXwkCVA/viewform> The form was created by the Andelcrag Herald and features a cute banner that combines our different Baronial animals. Sign up ASAP as plans are afoot!

We look forward to seeing you at the upcoming Newcomers' Tournaments or at a local training.

Yours in Service,

Baron Agostino and Baroness Elizabeth
