Baronial Missive

Greetings to the Populace,

We must start this month's missive by offering our sincere congratulations to the College of Saint Basil the Great for their decisive win against the Barony at College Challenge. Of course, we were merely humouring the Collegians, for a great many of their team did in fact belong to our very own Hearth Troop – and in the end, are we not all Anealan and all members of the great Kingdom of Lochac? Nevertheless, the College really did give the wider Barony a proper challenge this year and we look forward to future College Challenges where perhaps we'll do a little better. Thank you to Lord Marx and his team for a wonderful event.

A great many Anealans visited the far-away Barony of Rowany for this year's Rowany Festival. We are pleased to report that the only news that has reached our ears has been entirely positive – both from members of our own Populace and from those from elsewhere in the Kingdom. One particular item of note is that our Champion of the Sword, the Honourable Lord Galen Wulfric, represented the Barony in not one but two tournaments of note at Rowany Festival! We thank him for his efforts in the Fire Tourney and Champions Tourney. Sadly, we were unable to attend Rowany Festival ourselves and are now highly envious of everyone who did make it over to enjoy the event. Fortunately, Maestræ Pantera created many an artwork to share the occasion – thank you for all the wonderful photos posted online! It was great to live vicariously through these images.

On the last day of this month was held the May Day Picnic. Thank you to Bantiarna Aife, Lord Jonathon de Hadleigh and their team for running a wonderful event. The crisp air and bright sunshine were a beautiful way to welcome the month of May, the tournament was a spectacle to behold and the maypole was an utter delight with a great many people taking a turn at dancing and creatively winding the ribbons.

We had the great honour of presenting the following Baronial Awards at this event:
Order of the Valiant Swans – Lord Miloš Boskov

We would also like to offer our sincere congratulations to:

Winner of the Tournament – the Honourable Lord Konrad Hildebrandt, inspired by the Honourable Lady Sorcha inghean Uí Bhradagáin

Entrants into the Arts & Sciences – Lady Skjaldadís Bragadóttir (Intermediate) and Lady Mael Muire ingen Mael Muire mhic Rhodri (Beginner)

For those who are hoping to win this year's Arts & Sciences Championship, we have provided a table at the end of this missive to keep you updated on current scores. Remember that 3 entries are required to be eligible for the Championship (sadly, no one is currently eligible – keep crafting!)

Baronial Missive

At the May Day Picnic, we presented Aneala's portion of the Consummata document for signing. The Consummata document is a scroll whereupon witnesses to the Crown Tournament (held here in Aneala in March) can make their mark, sign their name, affix their seal or even use a stamp, and in doing so confirm that the Crown Prince & Princess's Bond of Manrent has been completed. For the full article on the original Bond of Manrent document, read: <http://webcentre.co.nz/kk/CrownRat.htm#Manrent> Thank you to all who signed; the document is beautiful and it is such a joy to see so many names, marks, etc. represented upon it. Thank you to Mistress Leonie who wrote the text and Dame Edith who will complete the fancy title.

Having welcomed May with a wonderful picnic, the month promises to be on the quieter side events-wise. This is because the whole Barony will be busy preparing for Western Raids (June 2nd – 5th).

We are pleased to confirm that Crown Princess Katherine (who will, by then, be Queen Katherine) will be attending Western Raids. We are also pleased to confirm that Don Donchadh Baillie will be elevated to the Order of Defense at Western Raids, with a vigil on Saturday night and the ceremony on Sunday followed by a rapier tourney.

The Canton of Dragon's Bay is running this year's Western Raids event. It is not to be missed! You can ensure that you don't miss out by looking at the website <https://westernraids.lochac.sca.org> and remembering to book ASAP. Please encourage your friends to book, whether they are local or will be travelling from outside of the Barony.

On a personal note, we must offer apologies in advance for our absence during the month of May and possible absence (to be confirmed) from most or possibly even all of Western Raids. We will do our very best to continue checking emails and put in an appearance where we can. For those who don't know, we'll be busy having a baby.

We wish you all the very best for the month of May and hope to see you at Western Raids.

Yours in Service,
Baron Agostino and Baroness Elizabeth

By To Radbot and Katherine, King and Queen of Lochac, here do we Agostino and Elizabeth, Baron and Baroness of Arneala, swear fealty. We swear that we will obey Your lawful commands in all matters that concern the Kingdom of Lochac, that we will faithfully maintain our lands and, mindful that the harmony of the Barony springs from our deeds, that we will treat with courtesy and justice those of every degree, until the King departs from his throne, death takes us or the world ends. In witness whereof we hereto set our hands this Autumn Coronation day, Anno Societatis fifty eight.

Sauce Which is Called Pine Nut Dish of Garlic

You will take a pound of pine nuts, and another of peeled almonds, and grind them very well, each by itself, and then both together. And cook two heads of garlic in a little pot with broth of hen or mutton; and then when the garlic is well-cooked, grind it with the pine nuts and with the well-peeled almonds; first [grind] the garlic, and when it is all well-ground, grind also with it a little grated cheese, which is very good, with eight or nine hard-boiled egg yolks; and when everything is well-ground, blend it with the broth of hen, and mutton. And set it to cook in a very clean pot; and cast into it one or two ounces of sugar, and a little bit of rose vinegar tempered with rose-water in which crushed cloves, and ginger, and cinnamon, and pepper have been steeping overnight; and cook it until it is cooked and quite thick; and prepare dishes, and cast sugar and cinnamon over it.

MUSTARD *MOSTAZA

You must take mustard seed, and clean it of the dust and the soil and the stones, and grind it well in a mortar; and when it is ground, strain it through a cloth strainer; and then take the mustard powder and put it in a mortar with a crustless piece of bread soaked in meat broth, and grind it all together; and when it is well-ground, blend it with a little bit of lean broth without fat which is well-salted; and when it is blended in a good manner so that it is not too thin, take honey which is good, and melted on the fire, and cast it in the mortar and stir it well until it is well-mixed, and prepare dishes. Some cast a little vinegar in the broth; you can add peeled, toasted almonds, ground-up with the mustard.

MANJAR PRINCIPAL Cheese sauce

For a half dozen dishes, take a half azumbre of strained milk and six egg yolks and four ounces of grated aged cheese, and just as much of grated hard bread; and thoroughly mix the cheese and the grated bread with the egg yolks and beat it very well, and thin it with a little milk; and then take a half pound of sugar and remove two ounces of that sugar to grind with the cinnamon to cast on the dishes; and the other portion that remains will be six ounces that you will cast into the milk; and set it to heat on your coals away from the fire; and when it is hot, remove it from the fire, and cast the abovementioned beaten eggs into it, stirring it constantly in one direction until it is good and thick; and sample it for taste; and if it is good, set it aside to rest while the meal is prepared, and dish it out with your sugar and cinnamon on top.
