Baronial Missive

Warm greetings to the populace of the Barony of Aneala, Canton of Dragons Bay and the College of Saint Basil, While we have not had any “in garb” events in February, it is pleasing to see plenty of activity at weekly trainings across all three of our groups.

Fencing, Armoured Combat and Archery practice have all been well attended, despite the heat. We look forward to cooler weather on the horizon.

The Arts & Sciences are also keeping us busy with a variety of different projects being worked on at Spearwood, Darlington and Wandl.

We are greatly cheered to see a good number of painted banners being started and look forward to seeing the finished products on display at future events. We will be bringing the fabric paints and the banner template to future A&S days if anyone else would like to start a banner.

We have another project in the works, being created for the children of our Barony. Cygnet Academy!

The concept is to encourage kids to have fun and get involved in a wide range of SCA activities such as sports, arts & sciences and acts of service.

Participation in activities will allow the kids to collect badges/tokens in any variety of categories they are interested in.

We are hoping to roll this out at Western Raids if we can get all our Cygnets in a row!

NEWCOMERS' GRECO-ROMAN GAMES & TABERNA 15 MARCH 2025

If the Newcomers' Greco-Roman Games and Taberna will be your first SCA event, then welcome! Here are a few pieces of (potentially) useful information...

Fun and exciting contests of athletic skill, with divisions to suit all ages and abilities! If you're not sure you can imitate this lot: <https://onartandaesthetics.com/.../12/discobolus-of-myron/> then that's ok! Seated throws, youth categories, all skill levels catered for.

Plenty of shady trees! Regrettably we MAY NOT hammer any pegs into the ground at the park - why not enjoy the rare luxury of travelling light? Bring a picnic rug and enjoy the scenery!

Chariot racing! Don't forget, you need a team of four (coconut operator is a crucial role). You may prefer to employ a charioteer of small stature, just saying...

Thrilling exhibition fight! Classical-era combat, introduced by a prominent local lanista...

Fashion show! Our populace show off their garb, with examples from a variety of periods and nations, and speak briefly about the clothing and the creation process.
(please let me know if you'd like to be involved)

Indoor games! Ever fancied flinging your leftover wine lees about in a competitive manner? Now's your chance...

Battle the Baroness! Take your life into your own hands and face off against our terrifyingly skilled Baroness - over the backgammon board! But be warned, she's been training hard...

And what would the Ides of March be without...an assassination or two?

What you can expect:

*An immersive living history experience in pleasant surroundings. Good company
Lots of fun games and activities to join in, or watch while laughing hysterically
An excellent dinner (catered to your dietary requirements if you mention them when booking)
Possibly togas...*

What you should bring -

For the afternoon:

*An attempt at pre-1600 garb (Greek or Roman is great, other period options are equally welcome)
Sunscreen and drinking water, snacks if you want them
A picnic rug/chair etc. for your comfort at the park*

Plus, for the evening:

*Your feasting gear: cup, plate, bowl, cutlery. If you have some Viking drinking horns or gem-encrusted goblets lying around, that's great, but your regular household gear is perfectly fine.
Your preferred beverage/s
Your sense of humour and desire to enjoy the experience!*

*there are loaner garb and feast kits available for any newcomers who do not yet have their own.
These can be arranged by contacting the Chatelaine
Miloš Boskov chatelaine@aneala.lochac.sca.org

Participants are reminded that if they are unwell or showing cold or flu-like symptoms, they must not attend.

Western Raids AS LX

<https://westernraids.lochac.sca.org/> Dragons Bay, 30 May - 2 June 2025

Come one, come all, to the glorious Western Raids! Join us as we celebrate the arrival of winter on our fair, sun-drenched western shores...what can you expect?

Feasting! A nourishing soup dinner for travellers from afar, the riotous delight for all the senses that is our Village Green markets - browse a variety of food stalls, haggle for the best price or pop into the Dragon's Quest tavern for a restorative tankard of lemonade - and take your taste buds on a journey through the annals of history at a splendid celebratory feast!

Fighting! For alas, how can we have civilisation without conflict? Beware, the borders are uneasy, raiding parties are not out of the question...enjoy assorted rapier and heavy combat ranging from epic melees on the warfield, as we struggle to defend our lands, to splendid tournaments, featuring all the pageantry we love, to commemorate our victory over the unwashed hordes (let's hope!).

Shopping! The Village Green will also host a veritable bazaar of market stalls for your perusal, ranging from exotic delights brought from far-off places (via slow camel train, one assumes) to local specialities and works of art created by the skilled craftspeople of the west.

Entertainment! Shimmering firelight glimmering off the frost crystals - such an atmosphere can hardly fail to attract the Muse. Enjoy a memorable Bardic circle, lively musical entertainment and epic tales from far-off times and places, dancing and vigorous contests of strength and skill - I guarantee you've never seen tug-of-war like it!

Arts and Sciences! Share your knowledge and bask in the wisdom of your colleagues. You can expect a variety of enthralling classes on all manner of skills, as well as opportunities to expose your completed masterpieces to the admiration of the masses.

Archery! Night shoots with glimmering arrows creating a rainbow in the starlight, daytime contests to determine who has the steadiest hand and the keenest eye, apples on the heads of children...no! wait! wrong story! Apples and monster heads to be shot by the children...is that better?? And, while I think of it.

Children's entertainment! The younger members of your household can enjoy a full schedule of activities ranging from arts and sciences and archery through boffer fighting, books and board games to musical entertainment from the famous Viggly Viking Virtuosos (here's a hint: there's a Blue Viking, a Red Viking, a Yellow Viking and a Purple Viking...so I hear...)!

Camping and good company!

What better opportunity to hang out with your friends, comrades you have not seen for an age, and dear companions you're just about to meet? Come, load up your baggage train and join us on the verdant grasslands of Wandi (honestly, we're about due for a dry year, it will be FINE!)

Experiments in Baronial Token Casting

Baron Donnchadh and I had our first attempt at casting pewter tokens last week, with the help of the capable Lady Camille. The process is relatively easy and only required a small butane camp stove for heat.

I recommend wearing welding gloves, eye protection and long sleeves.

Pro tip: do NOT get water in the hot metal. It will explode!

We melted a goblet in a small stainless steel pot.

Brushed the moulds with the release powder and put the fronts and backs of the moulds together, securing them with elastic bands.

The moulds were then placed between bricks to keep them upright and in place.

Molten pewter was then poured into the moulds with a modified spoon.

After waiting a few minutes we placed the moulds in water to cool briefly, then pulled them out and released the tokens from the moulds.

The last step is to trim off the excess pewter and file any sharp edges smooth.

Leche Frys in Lentoun Leche

Good recipe for Lent (March 5th - April 19 2025).

From Gode Cookery (A Newe Boke Olde Cookery)

PERIOD: England, 15th century | SOURCE: Harleian MS. 279 | CLASS: Authentic

DESCRIPTION: Fruit and Almond Milk Pie

ORIGINAL RECEIPT: Take Wyne & Fre[er]ssche brothe, Clowes, Maces, & Marow, & pouder of Gyngere, & Safroun, & let al boyle to-gederys, & put ther-to creme, (& yif it be clowtys, draw it thorwe a straynoure,) & yolkys of Eyroun, & melle hem to-gederys, & pore the licoure that the Marow was sothyn yn ther-to; than make fayre cofyns of fayre past, & put the Marow ther-yn, & mynce datys, & strawberys in tyme of yere, & put the cofyns in the ovyn, & late hem harde a lytel; than take hem owt, & put the licoure ther-to, & late hem bake, & serue f[orth].

- Austin, Thomas. Two Fifteenth-Century Cookery-Books. Harleian MS. 279 & Harl. MS. 4016, with extracts from Ashmole MS. 1429, Laud MS. 553, & Douce MS 55. London: for The Early English Text Society by N. Trübner & Co., 1888.

MODERN RECIPE:

Pastry dough for 1 nine-inch pie crust

1 pear, cored and cut up small

1 medium apple, cored and cut up small

1/2 C each dates and pitted prunes, cut in two, and currants

1 C double thick almond milk

1 T melted butter

1 tsp sugar

1/4 tsp cinnamon

1/8 tsp each mace, powdered ginger and allspice

6 whole cloves

Pinch salt

1. Preheat oven to 450°.
2. Line a pie pan with the pastry dough and fill it with the cut-up apple and pear. Put it in the oven and bake it for ten minutes to harden it. Remove, and reduce heat to 350°.
3. In a bowl, combine the apple and pear from the pie crust with all the remaining ingredients except the almond milk and melted butter, and mix thoroughly.
4. Stir in the almond milk and melted butter, mixing thoroughly. Spoon the mixture into the pie crust. Put it in the oven and bake for forty-five minutes, or until a toothpick draws out clean. Refrigerate before serving.

Serves six to eight.

NOTES ON THE RECIPE:

The name of this pie (literally "fried slices") is rather odd; nothing is blatantly sliced in it, or fried. Maybe the name is a corruption of "cold slices", referring to how it is to be served.

There is a second leche frys recipe in Forme of Cury, a plain egg and cheese quiche, also neither sliced nor fried. Both are for fish days; this one, without eggs, is specifically for Lent .

For "good powder" I use ginger and allspice. In place of oil I substitute melted butter.

Leche Frys in Lentoun is featured in Servise on a Fisshe Day
