We also extend Our appreciation to our outgoing Champions, Lord Dino de Malta, Lord Chretien deLou Dupont, Lord Marx Lamprecht, Lady Romana Wahlburga, as well as Our Bard of Aneala, Lady Leoflaeda and Page of Aneala, Milady Skye. It was a pleasure having you all in Our Court for the last year.

During court we inducted Lord Marx into the Hearth Troop and elevated Lord Chretien to the rank of Captain in the Hearth Troop for being Champion a second time.

We are very excited to announce all the winners and We look forward to working with them over the coming year.

We also had the pleasure of giving out 2 Black Feather awards to new members for their enthusiasm. Congratulations to Alric Aelfwulf and his daughter Sigrun Ulfsdottir.

Thank you to Lady Julian Greenwood and Lady Romana Wahlburga for running the Baronial Largesse classes, teaching people how to make award cords and tassels.
The Barony and Kingdom coffers are always in need of more stock so we can appropriately award Our populace.

Special thanks to Lady Julian Greenwood Helen Jekabsons and Noble Gwyn Cantor Clare Gwyn for successfully running their first kitchens and feeding us so well.

3 successful Guild of Defence Guild Prizes were played over the weekend.

Free Scholar	Lady Uriangkhai-yin Cirina Soqor

Special mention to Lord Frosti af Ufahol for being the only person on site during set up who could tie a knot, enabling us to raise the BBT!

We had a wonderful time at the event. The food was plentiful and delicious, the company of friends was a delight and the help and assistance from so many of you across the weekend was inspiring.

So, with Championship fresh in your minds, We would love to be flooded with award recommendations for people you noticed performing deeds of service, creativity, fighting skill or generally being courteous wonderful humans! These are the things that make our society great!
Please email Us at: aneala@aneala.lochac.sca.org or talk to Us in person.

Baroness' Fighter Auction

Sunday 6th December at Site Garvey Park, Ascot.
Steward Baroness Bella (Kerryn Ward)
Members Free (non member fees $10 adult, $5 minor)
Just bring an item prize table and a dish to share for lunch

9am	Set up
10am	Opening Court & Auction
10:30am	Fencing Tournament Round Robin
12:00pm	Potluck Lunch
1:00pm	Armoured Tournament Round Robin
3:30pm	Closing Court and prizes.

The Baroness' Fighter Auction is a traditional Anealan event for a charity of the Baroness' choosing. You may have noticed Baroness Bella's personal Arms feature an Australian Magpie. For a few years now a disease has been ravaging our Magpie population, causing paralysis and death. Early intervention can save lives but wildlife rehabilitation facilities are not government funded and require donations to afford this care.
Registered charity: Perth Wildlife Hospital

How the auction works: All attendees supply an SCA related prize for the table. It could be fabric, braid, garb, an item you have made, books, or anything else you think people might like. Fighters are auctioned off, then fight in round robins to rank first to last. Owners/patrons are then escorted by their fighters to choose prizes until there are none left.

I am looking forward to a sunny and fun filled tournament day by the river in support of saving the lives of our native wildlife and I hope you all will join me.

Baroness Bella Romana Valori

Event

Halloween Harvest Hoedown

31 October 2026

Anealans, neighbours, friends and foes, the time for harvest is upon us and the Baron and Baroness of Aneala invite you to attend their Halloween Harvest Hoedown (err.. Ball) so that you may show off and reap the rewards of the bountiful harvests you have had this past year. Rumours that the B&B plan to use this information to appropriately tax their populace are wildly mistaken, however those looking to avoid such taxes may wish to be appropriately masked or cloaked to hide their identity.

The Further Details
FOOD
To ensure there is stamina enough for dancing, finger food shall be served periodically, along with a cold drink to cool you down, and a warm drink to keep you toasty!

The reason for food:
DANCING
Unsure about dancing? Maybe you're worried about finding a partner to dance with, or not knowing the steps, or how well your body will hold up? This is the event for you!
Not only will the dance list be released more than a month early but also include Baroness Elizabeth's (patent pending) shoe and knee rating AND be focused on country and simpler dances to encourage participation.

Still not keen on dancing? What about some....
ARTS & SCIENCES
There will be A&S Competitions for appropriately themed (harvest/Halloween) finger food item (and if one wished to feed the populace while also entering the competition, please let the steward know) and any item you can justifiably claim is harvest/seasonally related.

But perhaps you are not competitively minded or, understandably, more interested in showing your harvest off and looking at others?

HARVEST TABLE
Perhaps more commonly known as an open A&S Display, you are invited to show off your "harvest" so that the populace may know of your skill and passions and be suitably inspired.

Maybe your harvest cannot be physically defined, or you know of someone in the populace who has achieved great things? We invite you to contact the steward or mention in your booking these details so they may be applauded on the night as well.

Officers Missives

Greetings dear Populace,

I hope you're all just as welcoming to my wonderful replacement Lady Leoflaeda Aelfwynnesdohter who can be contacted via email to chronicler@aneala.lochac.sca.org. Handover will take place at an event soon.

Yours In Service

Baroness Alazais Escoffier de Verdun

Greetings, good gentles all!

I am pleased to announced that, after consultation with our kingdom seneschal, we have a new baronial Seneschal!

Please join me in congratulating Lady Camille Maupin de François, mka Cam Lynch.

Handover will take place over the next couple of months, but I already know the barony is in good hands.

Oyez, oyez oyez!

Aneala seeks a new Blackwing Herald extraordinaire!
Whether it's the pageantry, the opportunity to be loud all the time, or the fascinating historic research and painstaking heraldic submission process that appeals to you, now is the time speak up.

Key requirements:
- You will need to be a current SCA member, 18 years or older
- Reliable and responsive access to email
- Ability to keep on top of a variety of related administrative tasks
- Skills in the various aspects of heraldry are useful, but keep in mind that an officer's job is to see that the work is done, not necessarily to do all the work themselves - there will be people able to help with other heraldic skills.

You may not think that you are the right person for this job, but if your friends forward you a copy of this notice, pay attention to them! And if you know someone who you think would be good in the job, do them (and all of us) a favour - ask them to apply.

Key elements of the job:
- overseeing heraldic activities, including both voice and book heraldry, in Aneala
- reporting on and communicating with others regarding awards, submissions and other heraldic operations
- updating the Populace website (instructions provided!) as necessary

You'll find more detailed information about this role in the Officer Job Descriptions Document at https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/resources#officer

Please send your applications by 20 October 2026 to herald@lochac.sca.org, with a courtesy copy to rifka86@hotmail.com.

If you would like to know more about the job, or to discuss how you see yourself taking it forward, I would love to hear from you!

Yours in Service,

Leoflaeda AElfwynnes dohter.

Officers Missives

- Reliable and responsive access to email and internet connection
- Ability to keep on top of a variety of related administrative tasks

Key elements of the job:
- Encouraging the development of chivalry on the field
- Development, maintenance, publication and enforcement of the Kingdom Standards for construction and use of weapons and armour

You'll find more detailed information about this role in the Officer Job Descriptions Document at https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/resources#officer

Please send your applications by 4 October 2026 to armoured@lochac.sca.org, with a courtesy copy to Marshal@aneala.lochac.sca.org.

Please include your membership number, mundane and SCA names, and any relevant experience, along with any important plans or great ideas you would seek to enact if successful in winning the role.

If you would like to know more about the job, or to discuss how you see yourself taking it forward, I would love to hear from you!

Yours in Service,

Marx Lamprecht

CALL FOR CHATELAINE- EXTENDED

Would you like Aneala to be seen as a welcoming place, attracting and retaining new folk? Are you happy chatting to people at public events and encouraging their involvement?

Our Chatelaine is responsible for the encouragement and empowerment of newcomers in the group, from being a welcoming presence to fielding enquiries from the website, social media, etc. It can also involve the housing and administration of the Hire/loaner Garb (though this may be delegated to a deputy).

So, if you have the following skills, consider becoming our next Chatelaine and help us grow.

Key requirements:
- You will need to be a current SCA member, 18 years or older
- Reliable and responsive access to email and internet
- Ability to keep on top of a variety of related administrative tasks

Key elements of the job:
- a keen and fresh enthusiasm for recruitment and retention
- a sunny disposition, a positive outlook and good communication skills
- a willingness to be responsible for the encouragement and empowerment of newcomers as a member of the Barony of Aneala

You don't have to do everything yourself - know that you will be well supported by your Kingdom and other Officers in this role. You'll find more detailed information about this role in the Officer Job Descriptions Document at https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/resources#officer

Please send your applications by 19th September 2026 to hospitaller@lochac.sca.org, with a courtesy copy to chatelaine@aneala.lochac.sca.org

Please include your membership number, mundane and SCA names, any relevant experience, and your general experience in the SCA - as well as outlining why you think you'd be suitable in the role and any fabulous ideas you have.

If you would like to know more about the job, or to discuss how you see yourself taking it forward, I would love to hear from you!

Plum Jam

The Mittelniederdeutsches Kochbuch (Middle Low German Cookbook) aka Wiswe MS or Wolfenbüttel MS is the earliest of the very few Low German recipe sources we have. The collection of 103 recipes was written in the late 15th or very early 16th century and edited by Hans Wiswe, a German scholar, in 1956. Very little is known about its context, but it shares some recipes in parallel with the Harpestreng tradition.

Translation by Volker Bach

A good puree of Kreken

If you would make a good puree of kreken (aka Krieken, Kreten or Kricken, a distinctive local variety of plum identified as prunus domestica ssp insititia), take them, when they are most timely (ripe), as many as you need. Set them by the fire and let them boil a while. And take them and pass them through a copper strainer (kopperseff) so the stones stay out, and add honey. And let that boil. And take with that baked flour that was baked in the oven, as much as you think good, and let it boil to its thickness.
Season it with plain (i.e. only) pepper. And then put that into a wooden container, that way you may keep it as long as you wish.

Master Bella's Recipe 3rd April 2021

5 ripe plums (made 2 Cups of fruit after straining)
1/3 C honey
1/2 tsp rice flour
Pinch of pepper

Boil plums in water until soft.
Strain through colander to remove stones and skin.
Put fruit back in pot, simmer, add honey and pepper, stirring frequently until thicker.
Add flour mixed with water and simmer while stirring, to thicken.

I interpreted this item as a jam.
I used rice flour as it was specified in an apple puree earlier in this manuscript.

A picnic in 16th Century Aintab

Zaven Zeytuntsi

The modern city of Gaziantep in Türkiye was once the Medieval Armenian citadel of Aintab, a prosperous commercial and industrial city flanked by numerous Kurdish Emirates to the east. During the 16th century Aintab was handed over by the Mamluks of Egypt to the Ottoman Turks, but this was only when it came to governing. This region of Eastern Anatolia remained a frontier, distant from the Istanbul court that is so often depicted in SCA documentation. So what would an Armenian and a Kurd, far from the eyes of the Sultan, have worn?

In preparation for my elevation I dreamed of having a fencing kit as well as ceremonial attire for myself and Zarinaea that was distinctly from the far Eastern reaches of the Ottoman Empire. The end result is garb fit for a Kurdish noble-woman, and an Armenian travelling merchant of caravan bodyguard.

Top Right: 16th century Ottoman 'military' braids from Topkapi palace museum in Istanbul. Whilst there are many kaftans and entaris with such braids, this one was most important to my design as if you look closely you can see the left and right braids are not a contiguous pattern but flipped 180 degrees.

I deconstructed some traditional patterned Armenian fabric to create my braids, and my favourite design was an asymmetrical key motif which meant if I flipped the fabric on one side of the kaftan, the pattern would look upside down compared to the other. Fortunately, this extant piece demonstrates that this was done at least once before in period.

Bottom right: The 16th century Bible written and illuminated by Hakob Jughayetsi, now in the Toledo museum. This rare text is not only from the Armenian Highland but depicts many of its Biblical figures in contemporary attire.

Far left: A modern sculpture honouring Mir Xanzad, a 16th century noblewoman who avenged her brother's death and became the Emir of Soran (largely situated around Northern Iraq).

Left: An Ottoman Turkish dancer from the manuscript album collected by Hans Sloan, known as 'The Habits of the Grand Signor's Court' believed to be painted circa 1620.

Right: Women depicted in Hakob Jughayetsi's 16th century Bible, wearing contemporary garb as opposed to the Biblical style typically seen in religious manuscripts.
